Assisted Living Facilities

Who is the Operator?

- The operator for the facility is American Healthcare Management Group (AHMG).
- Founded in 2002, AHMG is a management and consulting organization focused on creating industry leading and challenging solutions for hospitals, health systems, senior living organizations, mental health, physician practices, and family enterprises.
- The AHMG Senior Living Division brings forward proven clinical and business models designed to support independent, assisted and memory care communities.

What exactly is an Assisted Living Facility?

Assisted Living Facilities are basically residential communities that allow for our parents and grandparents to live in a safe, comfortable and luxurious environment. ALFs provide assistance to our residents with all Activities of Daily Living.

Common Questions

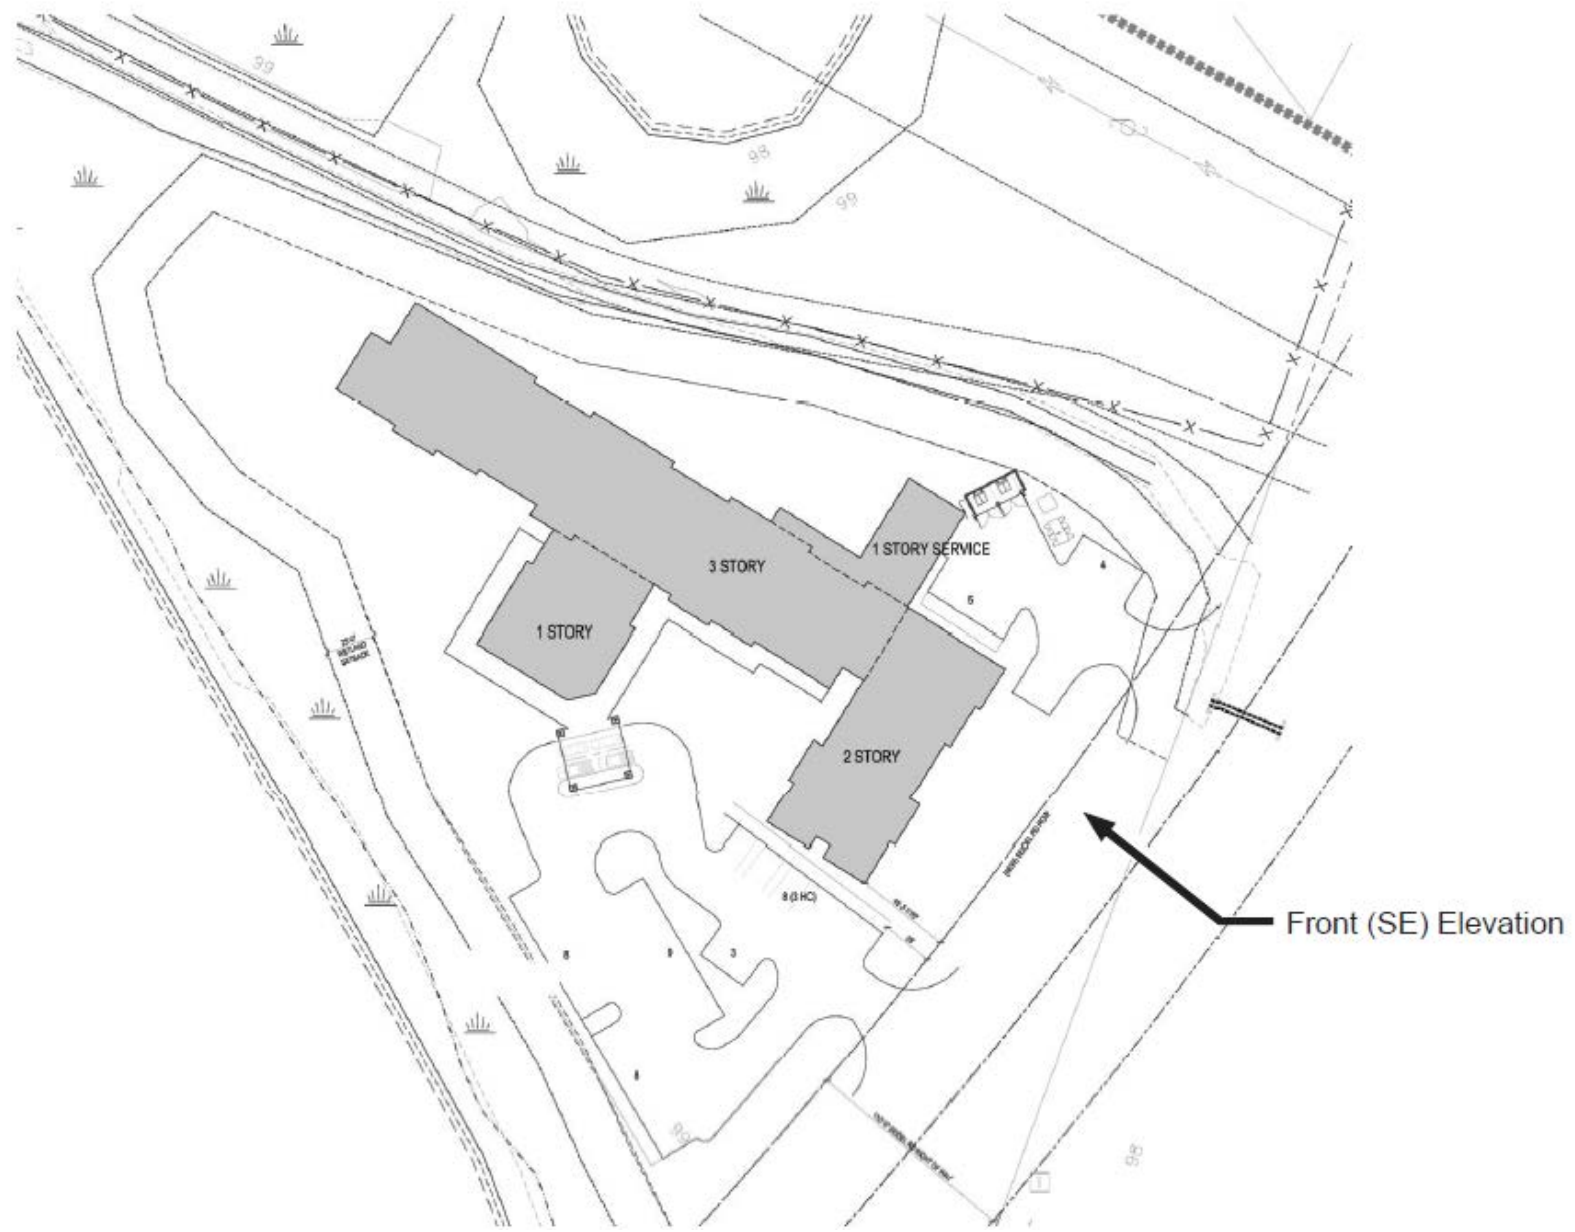

- Is this a drug or alcohol rehabilitation center?
 - No! It is a place for our parents, grandparents and loved ones to live in a safe and caring environment
- Is this a government funded center?
 - No! It is 100% private pay
- Do we background check residents?
 - Yes! Same as our employees.
- Are there a lot of emergency vehicles coming to the site?
 - No! On average, there is 1 emergency call a month.

Common Questions

- Is there going to be skilled nursing or memory care on site?
 - No, we are only seeking an assisted living license for this site.
- How often are there deliveries?
 - Generally two food deliveries per week and one supply delivery per week.
- How old are the residents?
 - 55 and up, but generally 75 years and older.
- Are the residents monitored?
 - Yes! Though our residents just need daily assistance or do not want to manage a household alone, we still have them check in/out to ensure their safety and security.

Project Updates

New Concept Plan

Updates to Project Layout

- Reoriented the entire concept plan to make the ALF look like a normal townhome/residential product from Seidel Road.
- Removed parking and drive aisles in front of building which would be customary for this type of product.
- Reduced building frontage by over 40% along Seidel Road.
- Set the ALF entry feature off Seidel Road
- Created open space on site via multiple courtyards and front lawn (we are not maxing out the allowable buildable area on this site).

Updates to Project Design

- Did not use all 4 stories otherwise allowed in this district. Our buildings range between 1-3 stories high.
- Building is only 2 stories along Seidel Road
- Created a townhouse style façade massing which is consistent with and complementary to the residential neighborhoods nearby.
- Created an upscale façade design to tie into the residential neighborhood design
 - Shingle roof
 - Decorative shutters, dormers and vents
 - Mix of stucco, stone veneer and transition bands
- Created a façade relief to break up the long building, similar to traditional residential townhouses

I don't mind this at all. The one in Summerport came out beautiful. We all are going to get old one day , our elders still need to belong to a community, not stuck someplace "out of the way ". ❤️❤️❤️💧

This looks great! Facts, not feelings and it's not 7 stories!

And, bonus: an ALF doesn't add any population to our overcrowded schools!
