Personal History: I was fortunate enough to work with the Animal Services Classifications Committee, including a stint as its Vice Chair. My experience was one of community, civil service and participation in due process. I cannot emphasize enough what a growth experience it was for me. I have been in trials over millions of dollars in damages with less emotion (And fewer character witnesses) than many of the hearings. The perspective I gained from dog owners, expert witnesses (we had many) and victims was invaluable. Frankly, the dynamic is fascinating, challenging, important and rewarding. I would love to be a part of it again. In my professional experience, I worked for both insurance companies (defending dog bite owners' interests) and as a Plaintiffs attorney (representing victims). However, being in a non-interested, third party position honestly makes an individual step back and consider a situation, including its factual, legal, economic and personal consequences. Adhering to the statute is paramount, of course.
