Personal History: As a retiree, living in Baldwin Park for the last almost 7 years, I have a continued interest in aging, in health care facilities, and in the quality of life for all Floridians. I am of sound mind, and relatively good health myself, but as I watch the aging process, I am reminded that that status could be fleeting for me, and is gone for some of my friends. I want to give back, when and how I can.

Personal History: Part of my childhood was spent in extreme poverty. I know first-hand what is like to live in a home that should have been condemned. I know what it is like to go to bed hungry and cold. As an adult, I provided care for my grandparents. I spent so much time with them when they were in their prime, then eased into more hands-on help and their independence faded. I then provided end-of-life care for them.
