Describe your company's waste hauling activity:

Bulk Waste removal. We pick up Junk furniture from multi-family and take to landfill.

Select one:

1. This company hauls material for hire, payment, or other consideration in unincorporated Orange County (e.g., the company collects waste from a property and is paid to haul it to the landfill or transfer station). A commercial license application will be sent to you before your Orange County solid waste disposal account can be validated.
2. This company hauls only its own waste material to the landfill or transfer station from unincorporated Orange County (e.g., a roofing company that self-hauls old roofing material from company job sites or a landscape maintenance company that self-hauls vegetative debris from properties it maintains). A commercial license is not required. Staff will contact you to confirm your exemption from needing a license.
3. This company no longer needs an account with the Orange County Solid Waste Division and requests that our account be closed.
