Personal History: My wife and I have 5 kids all of which graduated from, are in or will be in Orange County Public Schools. As such I fully understand the importance of a stable and peaceful home for the development of children. I'd like to contribute to policy that helps families experiencing hardship. I have gone through the process of obtaining or helping others obtain permits for all kinds of unique structures from retaining walls on property lines, remodel permits for out of current zone homes, and elaborate backyard playgrounds. The issues that arise are fascinating, and I'd like to contribute to solutions that are fair to all parties and safe in practice. As a commercial and editorial photographer based out of Orange County since 2014, I see the value of public art and cultural events. These types of programs go a long way to help residents get introduced, understand, and celebrate other cultures.
