Personal History: As a seasoned executive consultant and community leader with over two decades of experience in nonprofit development, transitional housing initiatives, and social enterprise management, I bring a unique blend of strategy, compassion, and lived experience to the Affordable Housing Advisory Board. My work has included designing and implementing housing stabilization programs for vulnerable populations, advising community-based organizations on sustainable development, and facilitating partnerships between government entities, developers, and residents. I have served as a Community Economic Development Specialist and led initiatives that secured funding for projects that empowered families transitioning from crisis to stability. My personal history includes overcoming many housing issues since a child, which fuels my deep commitment to equitable and inclusive housing solutions. I also bring a strong background in policy advocacy, program evaluation, and capacity building for both nonprofit and for-profit housing initiatives. As a mother, mentor, and mobilizer, I am passionate about creating pathways to generational stability through affordable housing. I would be honored to contribute a voice rooted in both professional expertise and community empowerment to help shape Orange County's housing future.
