Personal History: I bring more than 25 years of active service and leadership in arts, culture, and community engagement, rooted in both creative practice and advocacy. As a community advocate, I founded and hosted Café Poetry Night in Central Florida for several years, a platform dedicated to championing authors, musicians, and poets—particularly emerging spoken-word artists, many of whom now lead and influence the field. I am a published author of several books and my work centers on uplifting, empowering, and preserving arts, culture, and community narratives. My commitment extends through decades of organizing cultural events and fundraising initiatives in support of community organizations and faith-based institutions, helping advance missions that strengthen collective identity and access to the arts. I have also amplified artistic and youth voices through media, producing and carrying a local arts-focused radio program on 1600 AM and hosting a teen television talk show on Brighthouse Networks that highlighted positive, up-and-coming young leaders. Collectively, I believe these experiences reflect a long-standing dedication to cultural stewardship, public engagement, and the advancement of the arts in service to community development. Thereby, equipping me to serve thoughtfully and effectively on the Arts and Cultural Affairs Advisory Council. Thank you!
