Approval and execution of Agreement between Orange County, Florida and Orlando Museum of Art (2416 North Mills Avenue, Orlando, FL 32803). (Arts and Cultural Affairs Office)

PROJECT: Orlando Museum of Art, Inc. (2416 North Mills Avenue, Orlando, FL 32803)

PURPOSE: On November 29, 2016, the Board of County Commissioners ("Board") adopted Ordinance No. 2016-30 ("Ordinance"), which amended the County's Tourist Development Plan to authorize funding from available unallocated Tourist Development Tax (TDT) revenue for legally authorized capital projects and events pursuant to a grant application process set forth in Section 25-147 of the Orange County Code (Code). Pursuant to the Ordinance, on October 31, 2017 the Board adopted Resolution No. 2017-M-44, which established the Tourist Development Tax Application Review Committee (ARC) to serve in an advisory capacity to the Board by evaluating applications for excess TDT revenue funding pursuant to established application review criteria and to make recommendations on same. At the September 13, 2024 ARC meeting, the ARC considered an application from Orlando Museum of Art for excess TDT revenue and performed an evaluation of the proposal. Orlando Museum of Art requested up to $7,236,640 for the repair and improvement of the Orlando Museum of Art (the "Museum"), specifically for repairs to the roof and HVAC system (the "Requested Project"). Following its evaluations of the grant application, the ARC approved recommending an award of $2,000,333 to the Orange County Tourist Development Council (TDC). On September 27, 2024, the TDC recommended the funding request to the Board. Then, on October 29, 2024, the Board approved the funding request recommended by ARC and TDC and directed staff to develop funding agreements. Orlando Museum of Art has executed the agreement, which will allow Orlando Museum of Art to access these previously granted funds which are Board approved. The use of TDT revenues for auditoriums and museums is authorized pursuant to section 125.0104 (5)(a)1.b. and c., Florida Statutes, respectively. If approved, the Comptroller will disburse TDT funds in accordance with the terms of the funding agreement.

WHEREAS, one of the requirements in the FY 2024 – FY 2028 TDT ARC funding application was that the request had to be for a capital project for a dollar amount in excess of $2 million and up to and including $15 million toward a project for the acquisition, construction, expansion, enlargement, renovation, and equipping of eligible facilities; and

WHEREAS, OMA applied for TDT capital funding in the amount of Seven Million Two Hundred Thirty-six Thousand Six Hundred Forty Dollars ($7,236,640.00) for the repair and improvement of the Orlando Museum of Art (the "Museum"), specifically for repairs to the roof and HVAC system (the "Requested Project"), each of which is an authorized expenditures pursuant to the Local Option Tourist Development Act, § 125.0104, Florida Statutes (2024); and

WHEREAS, on September 13, 2024, the ARC recommended approval of a portion of the Requested Project, specifically that portion for roof repairs to the Museum (the "Museum Project"), to the Tourist Development Council ("TDC"); and

WHEREAS, on September 27, 2024, the TDC recommended approval of OMA's application for the Museum Project, as recommended by the ARC; and

WHEREAS, on October 29, 2024, the Board approved the ARC grant recipients, including OMA's Museum Project, subject to the execution of a funding agreement containing certain specific terms before the end of Fiscal Year 2025.

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the mutual covenants and conditions contained herein, the County and OMA agree as follows:

1. Recitals. The recitals set forth above are true and correct and are incorporated herein and made a part of this Agreement.

2. County Contribution. Subject to all terms and conditions set forth in this Agreement, the County agrees to contribute a total aggregate amount not to exceed Two Million Three Hundred Thirty-three Dollars ($2,000,333.00) solely from Fiscal Year 2024-2028 Excess TDT Revenue ("County Contribution"). For purposes of this Agreement, "Excess TDT Revenue" shall mean those TDT revenues appropriated by the Board in 2024 in the amount of $15,000,000.00 per year beginning in Fiscal Year 2024 through Fiscal Year 2028 for capital projects that apply for and are recommended for funding from the ARC pursuant to Section 25-147 of the Code.

Nothing provided herein shall obligate or require the County to levy any ad valorem taxes, fees, or assessments whatsoever, or to fund the remaining portion of the Requested Project. This Agreement and any payments provided for in this Agreement are contingent upon the availability of Excess TDT Revenues derived from the tax levied under Section 25-136 of the Code and made available under Section 25-147 of the Code to make the payments hereunder. The County shall not cause such Excess TDT Revenues to be unavailable as a result of dilution of the funds made available through the application

Section 2: Venue/ Project Information

Project Name*

OMA Roof and HVAC project

Project Summary*

Provide a summary of the proposed Capital Project

The Orlando Museum of Art (OMA) is currently celebrating its 100-year anniversary, and we are grateful to be firmly rooted in a generous community that has supported the OMA through attendance, financial donations and volunteerism over the last century. The OMA's current facility was built in 1959 and is an important reminder of the cultural anchor it serves for Central Florida. Annually, the Museum presents 10-12 exhibitions on-site and 13 exhibitions off-site, award-winning art enrichment programs, unlimited gallery tours, teacher in-service training programs, distinguished lectures, art appreciation lectures, studio classes, lecture/luncheon programs and outreach services in its facility and throughout the community. The services benefit individuals, including visitors from all 67 counties in Florida, the other 49 states and numerous foreign countries. These programs are implemented by the Museum's staff, its Board of Trustees and more than 300 volunteers, many of whom are part of its membership of 2,700 individuals.

The OMA has spent the last few years undergoing an exhaustive assessment of the facility with representatives from Trane which will serve as the design build contractor for the modernization of the HVAC system. This contractor's recommendation is to refurbish all current gallery and non-gallery units to like new with the exception of replacing the two oldest units from 1959 with one modern unit.

The replacement roof system and building envelope will be overseen by Joe Williams of Architecture Roof Consulting (A/R/C) Associates, Inc. The OMA will directly hire A/R/C as the owners' representative for the roofing and exterior weatherization process to create working documents and secure pricing from subcontractors.

Trane and A/R/C will be contracted separately.

The proposed Capital Project includes work on the following:

- Roofing-Aggregate Surfaced Coal Tar Pitch Built Up Roof Membrane
- Roofing-Coated Modified Bitumen, Roof Level 9 (Existing RoofTop Mechanical Room)
- Roofing-Mineral Surfaced Modified Bitumen, Roof Level 20 (Existing steeply sloped area)
- Roofing-TPO Single Ply Roof Membrane
- Exterior Wall Systems – Brick veneer repair work
- Exterior Wall Systems – EFIS repair work for areas with gouges in material

- Exterior Wall Systems – EFIS repair work for areas of sealant joints above ground grade
- Exterior Wall Systems – General EFIS restoration beyond repair of damaged areas
- Glazing and Glass Storefronts – Repair work for Store Front Glass
- Glazing and Glass Storefronts – Repair work for Fixed Glass Windows
- Exterior Door Repair or Replacement
- Refurbishing all current and non-gallery units to “like new” with the exception of replacing the two oldest 1959 units with one modern unit

Trane anticipates engaging the following professionals from specialty design, engineering and trade providers with the expertise and experience directly related to the design, construction, maintenance, and performance of a safe, sustainable, and resilient facility with similar demands of the OMA:

- LAM Partners LLC., Architectural Lighting Design
- L&S Lighting/Electrical Enterprises, LLC
- ARC Associates, Inc., (Roofing and Building Envelope Design)
- Coastal Mechanical Services, LLC
- Engineered Cooling Systems, Inc.
- MK Structural Engineers, Inc.
- Affiliated Engineers. Inc. (MEP)

Trane has indicated that each of the providers (general, roofing, HVAC/mechanical, and electrical contractors) will include all required items to perform the implementation of the complete scope of work while following all aspects of Trane's extensive safety and quality control protocols.

Building Age*

What is the age of the building referenced in this application (new construction up to historic facility)?

1959

Special Approvals*

Are there any special approvals needed (historical, environmental, governmental, etc.)?

There are no special approvals needed in order to begin this work. The Orlando Museum of Art board approves this project and has undertaken the necessary steps to understand the breadth of the work needed and the kinds of contractors that will be able to render those services. Additionally, leadership of both the City of Orlando and Orange County are aware of this need for our anchor institution.

Third Party Contingencies*

Are there any third-party contingencies?

There are no known third-party contingencies.

Professional Team*

Describe the professional team of architects, engineers, owner's reps, construction firms etc. you have working on the project.

The Orlando Museum of Art (OMA) has been working with representatives from Trane Technologies and Architecture Roof Consulting (A/R/C) Associates, Inc. for the last few years to assess the needs at hand at the OMA facility and project costs related to repairs in anticipation of identifying the necessary funding.

Trane Technologies is a reputable national corporation providing HVAC and other energy related services across 48 states. "We are climate innovators with the courage to look at our world's challenges and see endless opportunity. We aren't afraid to make bold commitments that set new standards to enhance the health and well-being of our communities, customers, employees and planet."

<https://www.tranetechnologies.com/en/index.html>

A/R/C Associates, Inc. is a local firm specializing in roofing. "Our firm operates in a manner similar to and consistent with most other architectural firms, however, we limit our practice to work that involves moisture penetration problems at roofs, walls, windows, and foundations. Roofing and reroofing construction documents have been the main activity of the firm since being founded in 1982. Beyond the preceding, we also perform investigative work so as to determine the cause of the existing problems and help establish the scope of repairs that may be required. Specialty architectural services for roofing and waterproofing and the building envelope have been our entire business for the past thirty-eight years." <https://arc-arc.com/home/>

Feasibility Study*

Yes

Required Permitting*

Describe the status of the required permitting, design work, and plans. Also, include any construction work already performed

The board of the Orlando Museum of Art has undertaken a thoughtful process in speaking with industry professionals about the needs of the current facility. To that end, a comprehensive assessment was contracted in 2021 to make clear what the issues are and the best course of action to address those. The OMA submits this request fully prepared to move forward with those plans (including the required permitting and design work, among other plans) upon notification of award.

OMA 2023 attendance numbers.pdf (a) Orlando Museum of Art

(b) <https://omart.org/>

(c) It is anticipated that there will be 2,066 opportunities for participation through 198 events.

(d) Attendance is calculated through ticket sales, education programming attendance and rental and event attendance. The OMA is in its initial roll out of the three-year grant from Art Bridges that allows the museum to operate one day per month free to all visitors. Attendance on those free days has increased 85% when compared to similar weekday attendance. It is anticipated that paid attendance will continue to grow by 3% each year. If the museum decides to bring a blockbuster exhibition in the future, paid attendance will be recalculated based on volume of attendance at prior locations, prior attendance at previous OMA blockbuster exhibitions and current museum statistics. With the return of traveling exhibitions, we also anticipate attendance to increase with the historically demonstrated interest in those shows.

(e) Based on OMA's signature events (Florida Prize and Festival of Trees) and exciting annual programming and partnerships (i.e. Florida Water Color Society's annual meeting to coincide with an upcoming OMA exhibition) and event rentals, we anticipate hotel room nights to conservatively represent approximately 100 nights annually and between 10 - 25 nights per primary group event.

A combined document showing recent attendance calculations along with the upcoming 2024-2025 exhibition schedule is attached here.

Methodology Attendance and Room Night*

How do you intend to provide a valid estimated count of attendance and room nights for each event at this venue?

The most recently completed fiscal year did not include a traveling exhibition and attendance was at approximately 115,000 people. The Florida Prize in Contemporary Art, now in its tenth year, draws attendance from the artists in the show, their family and their following. We have guaranteed 25 hotels rooms for this, but it is expected that many more will be traveling to central Florida to view the exhibition. This is an annual exhibition and is expected to continue to draw visitors from across the state. In the upcoming 2025-2026 fiscal year, the OMA anticipates a traveling exhibition along with the annual statewide convening of the Florida Water Color Society. The Florida Water Color Society is anticipated to host their annual meeting to coincide with the exhibition. This, in addition to upcoming programming, should boost attendance by at least 10,000 people.

Job Creation

In the table below, enter the following information.

For two phases: (1) Construction phase and (2) Operating phase enter the number of full-time and part-time jobs to be created from project.

Phase 2: Full-Time Operating jobs Created	0
Phase 2: Part-Time Operating Jobs Created	0

Supporting Development*

How will this project drive or support development in the surrounding area, including attracting new businesses and/or supporting recruitment efforts of the surrounding business community?

An improved roof will provide a safer space for our collections and mitigate leaks which create hazards for our guests and select spaces which they navigate within our facility. A building that is better fortified against weather conditions provides greater possibility for larger scale events which draw on local businesses including caterers and equipment rental vendors, among others.

The OMA would like to facilitate more nontraditional programming. A repaired roof alleviates concerns of structural issues that may lead to unforeseen events. Greater confidence in our facility means that we can more actively plan for and pursue programming that expands the bounds of what has defined onsite events until this point.

Venue Marketing and Advertising Plan

What are your marketing and advertising plans (local, regional, national, and or international)? Will you partner for promotion with Visit Orlando or another local agency or group? Please see attachment F for more information.

The OMA has secured an outside firm to provide marketing and advertising services as it moves into a new century of engagement with the local community. This firm will evaluate search engaging optimization (SEO) and social media and other digital and traditional marketing to the lead for forward strategy.

The OMA will use strategic marketing partnerships with local, national, and international media outlets to promote the exhibition season to a wide range of diverse audience groups and broaden its core market in and beyond Central Florida. The OMA will form collaborative partnerships with arts, cultural, and media partners who will offer an excellent opportunity to attract new visitors. The Marketing and Public Relations Plan will target a diverse audience including, but not limited to, the following: International, National, Southeastern cultural travelers and the more than 20 million Florida residents living within a five-hour drive of Orlando. Local visitors, as defined by United Arts, will come primarily from Orange, Seminole, Osceola, and Lake Counties. The OMA will cross-promote the project with collaborating organization partners such as Rollins College, 90.7 WMFE, Orlando Repertory Theater, Orlando Shakespeare Theater, Orlando Philharmonic, Enzian Theater, and the Mall at Millennia. Publications and promotions include Orlando at Play, Orlando Weekly, Visit Orlando, Watermark, Bungalower, Passport to Winter Park, Onyx, Orlando Magazine, Orange Appeal, Orange County Library System, Clear Channel, Lynx Transit Advertising, and Magic 107.1, Spectrum and NBC Universal will reach audiences from Daytona to Lakeland and Melbourne. The exhibitions will be featured on monitors throughout the Orlando International Airport throughout the project duration, targeting millions of arriving tourists. Out-of-state tourists will be targeted via trip advisor, Groupon.com, and Viator to offer discounted admission and museum your/restaurant bundle tours to visitors throughout the U.S. during the project duration. The OMA will utilize a survey system that will capture the response to the exhibitions and zip code/country of origin data from visitors. Marketing and public relations plan outcomes will be monitored using historical data, Google Analytics, Facebook Insights and media tracking. Via Eventbrite's ticketing system, the OMA will capture a zip code related to each admission transaction. Additional visitation information will be collected through the museum's admissions desk. Press releases to outlets listed below will target diverse audience groups. Outlets receiving press releases will publicize the shows in their print and online presence, resulting in significant public exposure. Project Funding Narrative*

Describe the project funding contingency, available financial reserves, and insurance protections.

Note: See Attachment E of the Guideline Document for Insurance Protection Information

The OMA entered into an agreement with Trane Technologies to perform a Facility Assessment on May 4, 2021. Due to the scope of the project and mitigating factors such as COVID-19, the assessment took longer than anticipated. The goal of the assessment was to provide clear direction, costs, and mechanical engineering drawings to bring the building up to date from an environmental standpoint: a new roof, replaced and refurbished HVAC equipment and repair and replacement of storefront items (i.e. the building envelope) which have deteriorated over the last 30 years. This is not a cosmetic intervention, rather a crucial maintenance issue.

The most comprehensive information related to the assessment process that OMA has undertaken in preparation to address the pending structural needs is found in the November 2021 assessment uploaded in this application. However, it is a more recent projection from February 2023 that provides the numbers from which this project budget is based and can be provided for review upon request. These two documents have been combined and uploaded as an attachment.

The OMA provides a maintenance reserve in its budget which is in part used to contract Engineered Cooling Systems to perform monthly maintenance on all HVAC equipment at the facility. A 5% service fee is included in each rental contract. A portion of these funds is designated towards maintenance reserves. The OMA also has a maintenance line item which is currently at 4% of the annual operating budget.

The Orlando Museum of Art confirms that it has the following insurance protections: Commercial General Liability, Commercial Automobile Liability, Workers' Compensation and Employee Dishonesty/Crime Insurance.

If the requested TDT funds are awarded, OMA will take out Payment and Performance Bonds equal to the current project phase amount.

Maintenance Reserves

The work has been projected to be completed in phases. This will have minimal effect on cash flow during the renovations as many galleries and education spaces will remain operational. The budget includes 4% of operating costs towards maintenance. Modernization of the building will reduce energy costs. Estimated to be a 10% reduction in FYE27 as systems are brought online and 12% going forward. A 5% service charge has been added to facility rentals to build a maintenance reserve. (This was implemented in Jan 2024)

A special sleeping room rate for standard king studio suites has been established for your Event. This net, non-commissionable rate is quoted exclusive of applicable state and local taxes, fees, and assessments. Please instruct your guests to reserve rooms as soon as possible. There is no commitment by you to pick up these rooms, and no commitment by the Hotel to hold the rooms if other customers may wish to purchase the rooms. Each room must be secured with a valid credit card provided by you or the guest attending your Event, along with a first night's deposit, refundable up to 48 hours in advance of arrival. Rooms cancelled for any reason less than 48 hours in advance will incur an individual cancellation fee equal to one night's room rate plus applicable tax.

IMPOSSIBILITY

The performance of this Agreement is subject to termination without liability upon the occurrence of any circumstance beyond the control of either party – such as acts of God, war, acts of terrorism, government regulations, disaster, strikes, civil disorder, or curtailment of transportation facilities – to the extent that such circumstance makes it illegal or impossible for the Hotel to provide, or for groups in general to use, the Hotel facilities. The ability to terminate this Agreement without liability pursuant to this paragraph is conditioned upon delivery of written notice to the other party setting forth the basis for such termination as soon as reasonably practical - but in no event longer than ten (10) days - after learning of such basis.

Orlando Museum Art agrees that it has presented all material information required in order for Hotel to provide the rooms and facilities set forth in this Agreement. Should Hotel, in its sole reasonable discretion, determine at any time that the Event will include a high-risk activity that was previously undisclosed to the Hotel (including by way of example, and not by limitation, biological agents, pyrotechnics, etc.), Hotel may terminate this Agreement immediately and without liability, upon written notice to Orlando Museum Art.

Please sign and return this agreement by Thursday, April 25, 2024. Otherwise, quoted rates are not guaranteed and may be renegotiated.

This is in response to your June 04, 2015, request for information regarding your tax-exempt status.

Our records indicate that you were recognized as exempt under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code in a determination letter issued in January 1953.

Our records also indicate that you are not a private foundation within the meaning of section 509(a) of the Code because you are described in section 509(a)(2).

Final Payment RequirementsNarrative - Project Overview

Compared to the Project Description above (as proposed in your application), explain the project you presented. Were you able to fulfill all proposed activities? If not, explain project as completed, and the changes or challenges.

The Orlando Museum of Art (OMA) presented diverse exhibitions combined with engaging events and insightful educational programs. Featured exhibitions for the first half of the grant period included: Everyday People: Works by James E. Ransome a Coretta Scott King Award winning illustrator; the 8th annual The Florida Prize in Contemporary Art and Southernmost Art; and Literary Portraits, featuring the work of Orlando-based photographer Jimm Roberts who embarked on a twenty-year mission to photograph exceptional individuals in their studios and working environments.

Exhibitions from the second half of the grant period included: Purvis Young: The Life I See, featuring the work of a late self-taught artist from Miami that worked with discarded materials; From the Andes to the West Indies: Spanish Colonial Paintings from the Thoma Collection consisting of 26 works spanning 3 centuries; Soñadora: Yuyi Morales a Caldecott Prize winning author and illustrator; and the just opened Don't Ask Me Where I'm From featuring works by second-generation immigrant artists.

Each exhibit served as inspiration for an extensive range of programs incorporating scholarship, hands-on workshops, community access programs, music, dance, and creative opportunities for thousands of people ages 2 to 90.

Mission & Objectives of Funded Projects

The mission of the Orange County Arts & Cultural Affairs program, and Cultural Tourism Funding, is to "elevate Central Florida's arts and culture to that befitting a diverse, world-class community," and its objectives are to:

- Enhance the Orlando area's arts and cultural identity
- Present quality arts and cultural experiences
- Promote tourism
- Successfully implement the project

Narrative - Outcomes/Evaluation: Accomplishments*

With regard to the mission and objectives above, describe what your event(s) did to "move the needle":

A. List your event's/events' three most significant accomplishments.

Note: Some responses may be used in promotion, presentations, and workshops.

1. The exhibition Don't Ask Me Where I'm From (DAMWIF) which was not part of the initial exhibition schedule at the time of OMA's application has been a resounding success. Created by Lucio Benetton's Fondazione Imago Mundi and the Aga Khan Museum, and lent to OMA, opening in December 2022. It features works by 15 artists whose stories trace immigration, settlement and integration across the world. With the rise of immigration as a political issue throughout the world, this project examines the challenges of creativity of a generation that bridges the cultures of their home country and those of their parents. The work has resonated with younger and more diverse audiences. See the Outcomes/Benefits section for more on DAMWIF.

2. OMA worked to lessen the barrier of museum admission for area residents. In addition to the ongoing Museums on Us promotion funded by Bank of America, which offers free admission to all Bank of America card or account holders on the first Saturday and Sunday of each month, weekends when many community access programs take place, the museum added the following. A new partnership with Coalition with the Homeless to provide complimentary family bundle admission to deserving families; and in concert with Museums for All, adults and families on food assistance (SNAP benefits) pay only $3 admission simply by presenting their EBT card. The Museum remains a Blue Star Museum as well, offering Active-Duty Military, Veterans and First Responders free admission with valid ID.

3. Attendance has rebounded. In OMA's FY 22, 125,737 people participated in events, education programs, utilized the museum's facilities, or enjoyed the exhibitions and permanent collections. This marks an increase of 2,729 people when compared to FY 21. The numbers for FY 23, which overlaps with the term of this grant, are even better. Also, the diversity of visitors is more varied, and the age range skewing younger, due to interest among these groups in recent exhibitions.

B. Explain the significance of each accomplishment above, emphasizing features such as:

1. uniqueness, innovation (Identity).
2. artistic excellence, critical acclaim/reputation (Quality).
3. marketing & PR, attendance, engagement (Tourism).
4. outreach and diversity, budget (Implementation)
 - a. What elements of your event addressed diversity and inclusion, or how did this event reflect the community (with regard to programming, board, staff, audience)

Note: Some responses may be used in promotion, presentations, and workshops.

The Don't Ask Me Where I'm From exhibition was fruitful in terms of outcomes and accomplishments. It was innovative in its approach, by intentionally highlighting artists with footprints in multiple geographic locations and identities. Likewise, it was meticulously organized and thoughtfully presented by Lucio Benetton's Fondazione Imago Mundi and the Aga Khan Museum. To elaborate, the participating artists were presented with large wooden freight crates and encouraged to incorporate these into their works of art. This element added to the sense of mobility and hybrid existence present in the lives of the artists. The Fondazione and the Museum represent new partners for OMA and the partnership has been an excellent one, serving to highlight and elevate Orlando's importance in the visual art arena. Finally, regarding attendance, engagement, outreach and diversity, OMA staff were delighted to note that younger and more diverse audiences were coming to the museum, presumably from a larger geographic area, specifically to experience Don't Ask Me Where I'm From. Here are some visitor comments: Salina, Key Biscayne, FL. "Stories are so different, yet, when seen objectively, so alike. Perception of life determines our quality of life." Heather, Orlando/Kissimmee/Lakeland by way of Ukraine/Germany/Ireland/Italy "I felt seen and heard. I knew these stories without knowing the people. I saw my refuge grandfather and my revolutionary great-grandparents." Andi, "Lecheria, Venezuela... but don't ask me where I'm from. It means I am all the places that have nurtured my soul, that I can't be from a place without being from another. It means that my story, myself and my future cannot be described with a simple address." Odaly "it means to take up my space through my stories. Tell my story, draw it, express it, and get to know myself — all parts of me. That is the treasure of my life. Collaboratively we are creating art and bridging cultures."

2. The work carried out in 2022 to reach more economically diverse audiences through programs like Museums For All and the partnership with Coalition for the Homeless reflects the desire of museum staff to extend the institution's outreach beyond its education programs. OMA does wonderful work with marginalized communities through its education programs but can do more on the admissions side.

3. The ongoing rebound in attendance numbers is due not just to post-pandemic returning visitors, but also to concerted efforts reflected in accomplishments 1 and 2. The museum is working on several fronts, through marketing, exhibition selection and examination of its admissions practices to create a welcoming and stimulating environment for visitors. That is being borne out in the numbers.

Narrative - Outcomes/Evaluation - Benefits*

C. Describe how your event/s benefited your organization, cultural discipline and/or community. We are interested in collecting your stories of how you made a difference. If you have a photo or video or narrative or quote showing how this event impacted, empowered, created, transformed, opened new talents or opportunities, etc., please include that here and in the optional upload that follows.

Note: Some responses may be used in promotion, presentations, and workshops.

An unexpected but welcome outcome from the 2022 exhibition and education season was the relationship forged with The Ismaili Council of Florida, led by Abdullah Tharoo. Through Mr. Tharoo's efforts and connections with The Aga Khan Museum, the Don't Ask Me Where I'm From exhibition became a reality for the museum. The Ismaili Council for Florida is the social governance structure for Shia Ismaili Muslims in the state of Florida. The Council seeks to develop and maintain positive meaningful relationships in society at large based on the Ismaili community's values of service, intellectual curiosity and contribution, and civic engagement.

The Council also collaborated with OMA staff, in ensuring that the exhibition's opening reception on December 2, 2022, enjoyed by more than 400 people was enjoyed by all. During his remarks, Orlando Mayor Buddy Dyer recognized the diversity of Orlando as one of the city's greatest strengths, stating "We have cultures and traditions that represent just about every country in the entire world. We want to make Orlando the most equitable and inclusive place it can be. That is why this exhibit is so important and a great fit for the Orlando Museum of Art."

After the exhibition opening, The Ismaili Council brought groups of teenagers and seniors to the museum for guided tours of Don't Ask Me Where I'm From, providing an accessible introduction to OMA that was also culturally relevant. This new relationship also led to an OMA education department program for families. Nowruz: A Family Celebration of the Persian New Year, took place on March 18th. Free with museum admission, this Persian New Year event welcomed nearly 450 children and adults and included art activities and a special storybook reading of Seven Special Somethings: A Nowruz Story by Adib Khorram.

As mentioned above, Don't Ask Me Where I'm From resonated with many visitors. So did the American Journey exhibition, curated by OMA to feature works from the museum's collection. American Journey invited the viewer to explore American history through paintings, sculptures, prints, and photographs dating from the nineteenth century to the present. Rather than taking a chronological approach the exhibition was divided into thematic sections in which artworks of both the past and present are seen side by side, emphasizing the shared and contrasting ideas voiced by these works. Below are some viewer comments.

Andrea, Orlando: I really enjoyed the variety of artwork. Having various modern artists that I was surprised and excited to see.

Anonymous, Orlando: Lovely sculptures and interactive aspects. A wide variety of mediums.

Anonymous, under age 14: The exhibition is excellent. I like this place.

Anonymous senior, Minnesota: Truly an excellent museum-art center-culture center. Loved the away they approached the selection.

Also related to American Journey, Orlando Poet Laureate Shawn Welcome, a friend of the Orlando Museum of Art, wrote an Ekphrastic Poem called Soundsuit, after the artwork of the same name by Nick Cave. Visitors of all ages were then encouraged to write their own poem based on a work of art in the galleries and these were posted on a wall.

The coolness blows in.

The smell of fresh rain washes over me.

Dark clouds rejoice in releasing their weight and dry ground eagerly awaits.

Once it is over, the world is renewed and resumes again.

Upload for project's community impact

How did this project make a difference, affect or uplift, whether one person or the community?

Narrative - Outcomes/Evaluation: Marketing & PR*

Describe marketing and PR strategies and results for your event/s, including information related to:

- reaching and engaging a broad spectrum of the community.
- creating local, national and international awareness.
- generating tourism and return on investment.
- achieving growth for your organization.

You may upload in a single PDF related materials such as: patron survey/analysis, media reports, website and/or social media analytics, qualitative or quantitative data.

Refer to proposed and actual attendance figures below and on Form D – address specifically tourists from outside the four-county/50-mile radius and address what happened if there is a shortfall in actual.

NOTE: AGENCY will calculate economic impact with Americans for the Arts' online calculator, using total budget expenses (cash) & attendance.

In 2022, the Orlando Museum of Art utilized a variety of marketing channels to increase the diversity of our outreach. We strategically purchased out-of-home advertising located outside of the downtown and Winter Park markets to reach airport goers as well as commuters from Orlando's western communities. We also took advantage of an expansive audience, available to us through OMA's relationship with WFME, our local public radio station, reaching listeners in over 10 Florida counties.

Many of our featured exhibitions attracted international audiences. In the fall of 2022, we connected with artists featured in our exhibition Don't Ask Me Where I'm From. These artists shared their social media handles with us, allowing us to tag them in social posts, expanding our reach to their audiences that are across the globe. We also gained international attention among the museum community by working with the Aga Khan Museum in Ontario, Canada and the Fondazione Imago Mundi, located in Treviso, Italy to bring the exhibition Don't Ask Me Where I'm From to Orlando.

For the exhibition Florida Prize in Contemporary Art, the 10 artists selected live across Florida from Jacksonville to Miami to Tampa, providing a unique opportunity to reach audiences across the state. To promote this exhibition, we utilized print, social, and video marketing. We took advantage of organic reach opportunities by tagging the artists in our social media posts. We also shared recorded artist interviews produced by OMA, which they then shared with their followers. Many of the fans of these artists are prime tourism targets because they live within 250 miles of the museum. In addition, each artist is given access to 10 complimentary Florida Prize Opening Reception tickets, easing some of the cost burden for artist's friends, patrons and relatives that wish to travel to Orlando for the exhibition opening.

Projected Total Attendance - In-Person (from Application)*

Estimated number of the total attendance this project will serve--total at all days, performances, participants, and audience.

ACTUAL Total Attendance - In-Person*

If you did not make your original attendance projections (as stated on your application), explain why you think the projection fell short. What were some factors that may have affected it?

125737

ACTUAL Total Attendance - Reason for Shortfall

If your total attendance fell short of the projection, explain:

- What do you think is the reason?
- What can you do about this to make next year's projection more accurate?
- NOTE: It is understood that many events were impacted by COVID. If so, explain what portion of your project was affected, if event(s) occurred, were offered but at decreased capacity, or were canceled, rescheduled or were moved to another year.

A major setback for OMA this year were hurricanes Ian and Nicole. The museum was closed a combined 5 days due to these two events, and suffered some damage, which although minor, was enough to jeopardize essential facilities and cancel programs. The area surrounding the museum remained difficult to navigate for at least a full week due to flooding. Most programs were rescheduled but the lost attendance numbers could not be regained. Fall is a busy exhibition season, so the timing of the storms was unfortunate. Earlier in the year, the Omicron variant likely had an impact on attendance numbers and delayed the transition of some of OMA's education and outreach programs from virtual to in-person.

Projected Tourist Attendance - In-Person (from Application)*

Number from within the figure (above) who are tourists from out of town; outside the four-county local area. Local is considered within Lake, Orange, Osceola, or Seminole counties; within 50 miles.

ACTUAL Tourist/Out-of-Town Attendees - In-Person*

As in the Total Attendance - Actual, if you did not make your projections, explain.

12573

ACTUAL Tourist/OOT Attendance - Reason for Shortfall

If your tourist/out-of-town attendance fell short of the projection, explain:

- What do you think is the reason?
- What can you do about this to make next year's projection more accurate?

Looking at the calendar year, 2022, we believe that the challenges mentioned in the Actual Total Attendance - Reason for Shortfall apply to the numbers for Out-Of-Town Attendance shortfall. The beginning of the year was impacted by the Omicron surge, which undoubtedly discouraged some people from travelling outside their area by plane, bus or train. Similarly, the fall storms, Ian and Nicole meant that some may have rescheduled their travel plans for a later date to avoid both the storms and the longer-term flooding that followed.

The variance between the actual percentage of Out of Town predicted to actual visitors is 3%. With this information in mind, OMA's marketing department diligently continues efforts begun in 2023 to diversify our advertising and to reach new partners that extend our reach beyond the Orlando metropolitan area. In particular, the museum is seeking ways to reach travelling audiences, including those arriving by plane.

Attendance Via Virtual or Streaming Content (Optional)

The previous questions for proposed and actual attendance (both Total and Tourist) were for in-person participation only, but many cultural nonprofits quickly adapted to Covid-19 pandemic closings and provided cultural programming virtually. Some ways they provided cultural programming included:

1. converted programming or archival content to provide virtual content, for online streaming,
2. created new arts education content for classroom use for online teaching, or
3. created new live streaming content.

A. Describe what your organization did to help the community and your organization (to offset lost revenue), by offering virtual or streaming content; free or did you charge for these events and programming.

B. Provide the number of virtual participants, and what method you used to determine that,

C. Describe the results or upload a report if you captured origin (zip code/location), demographics, if new or existing patrons, or whatever you might have gleaned by offering online content?

In 2021, OMA's education department created virtual programs to substitute for in-person school field trips. The videos were then offered to classes. In 2022, this offering was continued, with a new one created for Sonadora: Yuyi Morales. At present, schools may choose from 5 virtual programs. These programs are available to schools to purchase at $500 per program, and then may be viewed by multiple classes. More than 2,600 students in Osceola and Seminole counties enjoyed these programs in 2022.

From the Andes to the West Indies. Spanish Colonial Paintings from the Thoma Collection includes works of art from Peru, Bolivia, Ecuador, Venezuela, Cuba, and Puerto Rico dating from circa 1600 to the mid-nineteenth century. This selection of 26 works includes paintings on canvas and small, delicately rendered works in oil on copper. The variety of styles underlines the great diversity among works of art broadly called "Spanish Colonial." The exhibition reflects the rich artistic heritage of a considerable swath of the Americas. The themes of the majority of the works reflect the important role played by the Catholic Church during three centuries of Spanish rule. The portraits featured in the exhibition were commissioned to celebrate the social status of both peninsular Spaniards and Creoles, those born of Spanish families in the Americas.

The Carl & Marilyn Thoma Foundation is committed to supporting a greater knowledge about, and understanding of, the art of the Spanish Americas. The Thoma Foundation's Art of the Spanish Americas collection numbers approximately 200 works from the 17th to 19th centuries—principally paintings from South America. The collection includes works on religious themes and portraits from the Viceroyalty of Peru, as well as a small selection of portraits from the Spanish Caribbean. Visitors to the exhibition will see paintings by the well-known Puerto Rican artist José Campeche, by the Venezuelan painter Juan Pedro López, and works by South American painters whose names we do not know.

De los Andes a los Antillos: Pinturas coloniales españolas de la Colección Thamo incluye obras de arte de Perú, Bolivia, Ecuador, Venezuela, Cuba y Puerto Rico que datan aproximadamente de 1600 hasta mediados del siglo XIX. Este selección de 26 obras incluye obras sobre lienzo y pequeñas obras delicadamente realizadas en óleo sobre cobre. La variedad de estilos cubren la gran diversidad entre las obras de arte denominadas en general "colonias españolas". La exposición refleja el rico patrimonio artístico de una franja considerable del continente americano. Los temas de la mayoría de las obras reflejan el importante papel desempeñado por la Iglesia católica durante tres siglos de dominio español. Los retablos que aparecen en la exposición fueron encargados para celebrar el estatus social tanto de los españoles peninsulares como de los criollos, los nacidos de familias españolas en América.

La Fundación Caló & Marilyn Thoma se compromete a apoyar un mayor conocimiento y comprensión del arte de las Américas Españolas. La colección Arte de las Américas Españolas de la Fundación Thoma, cuenta con aproximadamente 200 obras de los siglos XVII al XIX, principalmente pinturas de América del Sur. La colección incluye obras de temáticas religiosas y retratos de Virreyes del Perú, así como una pequeña selección de retratos del Caribe Español. Los visitantes de la exposición podrán ver pinturas del conocido artista Puerto-ricano José Campeche, del pintor Venezolano Juan Pedro López, y obras de pintores sudamericanos cuyos nombres se desconocen.

Morales was born in Xalapa, Mexico in 1968. The influence of her Mexican birthright and culture is evident in all of her titles and helps to identify the power of heritage in the work of children's picture books. Her family was made of vivid storytellers, which laid a foundation of creative communication from the beginning of Yuyi's life. She loved drawing from an early age, an interest that was encouraged growing up by her father. She studied physical education at university and spent several years as a swim coach because, at the time, illustration was not considered a "successful" career choice.

Yoyo immigrated to the United States as a new mother with her two-month-old son, Kelly, and his American father in 1994. During a difficult transition period, she was introduced by Kelly's grandmother to a local public library. In the children's book section, she found a gateway to her new life. Even if she did not know all of the words, she could determine the story through the pictures that communicated despite language barriers. In this way, she learned English alongside her son, Kelly. This initial introduction to a public library would lead her down a path to see her childhood dream of being an artist and storyteller come to fruition.

Yuyi is a six-time recipient of the prestigious Pura Belpré award, and the first Latina to receive a Caldecott honor for her book, Vive Frida, in 2015. Her books have been recognized with starred reviews in publications such as Publisher's Weekly, The New York Times and Booklist.

Yuja's stories are heavily influenced by her upbringing in Mexico and give poignant insight from an immigrant's perspective. Dreamers, speaks to this experience and topic especially. However, pieces of her vibrant past make their way into her other titles as well. "As anyone who comes to a new country carries with her, with him, all those stories, I brought them with me, too, and I put them in my books all the time" Morales has said.

DON'T ASK ME WHERE I'M FROM

An itinerant exhibition on post-migration.

AGA KHAN MUSEUM ● Fondazione Imago Mundi

Don't Ask Me Where I'm From is a new exhibition by fifteen artists who each grew up in a different context than their parents or grandparents. As second and third generation descendants of immigrants, these post-migrant artists have multiple cultural affiliations that cross the globe. Their artworks celebrate the creativity that is born when cultures combine. These stories represent the personal side of migration trends and offer a lens through which to understand global issues in a more intimate way.

Post-migrant artists have a unique ability to act as cultural mediators, and their works celebrate diversity as an undeniable part of the twenty-first century social fabric. In the face of challenges to one's identity, representing that identity by sharing personal stories becomes a radical act.

This exhibition raises questions about nationalism, racism, and exclusionary identity politics. Throughout the exhibition, common themes weave across generations and continents. While following these intertwining paths, consider your own background. What does it really mean to be "from" somewhere?

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of Orlando Museum of Art, Inc., as of June 30, 2022, and the changes in its net assets and its cash flows for the year then ended in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Basis for Opinion

We conducted our audits in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America (GAAS). Our responsibilities under those standards are further described in the Auditors' Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements section of our report. We are required to be independent of Orlando Museum of Art, Inc., and to meet our other ethical responsibilities in accordance with the relevant ethical requirements relating to our audits. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion.

Responsibilities of Management for the Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of these financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America; this includes the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the financial statements, management is required to evaluate whether there are conditions or events, considered in the aggregate, that raise substantial doubt about Orlando Museum of Art, Inc.'s ability to continue as a going concern for one year after the date the financial statements are available to be issued.

Auditors' Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditors' report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance but is not absolute assurance and therefore is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with GAAS will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control. Misstatements are considered material if there is a substantial likelihood that, individually or in the aggregate, they would influence the judgment made by a reasonable user based on the financial statements.

In performing an audit in accordance with GAAS, we:

- Exercise professional judgment and maintain professional skepticism throughout the audit.
- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, and design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks. Such procedures include examining, on a test basis, evidence regarding the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements.
- Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of Orlando Museum of Art, Inc.'s internal control. Accordingly, no such opinion is expressed.
- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of significant accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluate the overall presentation of the financial statements.
- Conclude whether, in our judgment, there are conditions or events, considered in the aggregate, that raise substantial doubt about Orlando Museum of Art, Inc.'s ability to continue as a going concern for a reasonable period of time.

We are required to communicate with those charged with governance regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit, significant audit findings, and certain internal control related matters that we identified during the audit.

Report on Summarized Comparative Information

We have previously audited Orlando Museum of Art, Inc.'s 2021 financial statements, and we expressed an unmodified audit opinion on those audited financial statements in our report dated December 1, 2021. In our opinion, the summarized comparative information presented herein as of and for the year ended June 30, 2021, is consistent, in all material respects, with the audited financial statements from which it has been derived.

ORLANDO MUSEUM OF ART, INC.
NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
JUNE 30, 2022

NOTE 1 ORGANIZATION

In the mid-1920s, a group of art enthusiasts, collectors, and artists came together for the express purpose of encouraging and promoting art and its appreciation throughout Central Florida. The Orlando Museum of Art, Inc. (OMA) was founded in 1924 as the Orlando Art Association and incorporated in 1926 as a nonprofit corporation. Today, the institution serves an estimated population of three million residents in Central Florida and visitors from around the world.

OMA's Mission is to inspire creativity, passion, and intellectual curiosity by connecting people with art and new ideas.

OMA's Vision is to be a creative change agent for education and the center for artistic engagement as well as a place for civic, cultural, and economic development.

OMA's Purpose is to interpret and present the most compelling art for the public to experience, and to positively affect people's lives with innovative and inspiring education programs that will endure as a cultural legacy in Central Florida.

To meet these objectives, OMA has dedicated itself to collecting, preserving, and interpreting notable works of art; to presenting exhibitions of local, regional, national, and international significance; to developing first-rate educational programs; and to developing creative and inclusive programs that reach every segment of its diverse audience.

OMA has maintained its national accredited status by the American Alliance of Museums since 1971 and is ranked by the state as one of the top major art museums in Florida for its demonstrated national leadership, program excellence, and statewide impact.

OMA has a number of support groups. According to OMA's bylaws:

The Council of 101 (101) is a committee of the membership operating under the charter of OMA. 101 was formed in 1965 to further the cultural development and appreciation of the visual arts in the Central Florida area and to provide financial resources for OMA, which is the sole beneficiary of 101's fundraising efforts. The designated use of such resources is unrestricted operating support for the Museum's programming and operations. The accounts of 101 are included in the financial statements.

The bylaws also provide for additional committees of the membership that serve to advance OMA's mission and vision. The purpose of these committees is as follows:

The Acquisition Trust is instrumental in the acquisition of exceptional examples of Contemporary Art from 1945 to the present moment for the OMA permanent collection through purchase and gift.

The Friends of American Art is instrumental in the acquisition of exceptional examples of American Art from the 18th Century through 1945 for the OMA permanent collection through purchase and gift.

The Associates work to expand the membership at the museum through publicity and OMA's monthly 1st Thursday's program.

The Volunteer Council focuses on recruiting, retaining, and rewarding OMA volunteers.

The Ambassadors of the OMA provide funding without restrictions for operations, exhibitions, public programs, and educational initiatives. The OMA Ambassadors help to bring the highest quality visual art experiences, and art educational opportunities, for the engagement of the Central Florida community and its visitors.

NOTE 2 SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Basis of Accounting

The financial statements of OMA have been prepared on the accrual basis of accounting.

Cash and Cash Equivalents

In these financial statements, cash and cash equivalents include cash and all highly liquid debt instruments available for current use with maturities of less than three months at time of purchase. Included in cash and cash equivalents are bank deposits, certain amounts of which are not insured under Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation regulations.

Promises to Give and Other Receivables

Pledges receivable consist of unconditional promises to give from donors, which are recognized within net assets at their fair value when unconditional promises are received.

Management expects all pledges to be received during the next 12 months; accordingly, such receivables are not discounted. Management considers all accounts and pledges receivable collectable; therefore, there is no allowance for doubtful accounts. Contributed professional support services and materials, except for artwork (see Note 10), are recorded in the accompanying financial statements at their estimated fair value at the date of receipt by OMA.

Investments

Investments consist of certificates of deposit, money market funds, and mutual funds. Under current accounting standards, investments in marketable securities with readily determinable fair values and all investments in debt securities are valued in the statement of financial position at their fair value. Fair value is determined by reference to exchange or dealer-quoted market prices. If a quoted market price is not available, fair value is estimated using quoted market prices for similar investment securities. Changes in the fair value of securities are reflected as investment gains or losses in the accompanying statement of activities. Money market funds and certificates of deposit are recorded at cost which approximates fair value.

NOTE 2 SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES (CONTINUED)

Beneficial Interest in Assets Held by Others

OMA is the beneficiary of two charitable remainder unitrusts held and administered by an independent corporate trustee. Under the terms of the trusts, OMA has the irrevocable right to receive all of the then remaining principal and income at the expiration of the trust term. The funds are to be used solely to add to OMA's permanent collection. The estimated fair value of the beneficial interest in the trusts is recognized as an asset and changes in the value are recognized as support with donor restrictions. OMA's estimate of fair value is based on fair value information provided by the trustee.

Fair Value Measurement

Fair value measurement applies to reported balances that are required or permitted to be measured at fair value under an existing accounting pronouncement. OMA emphasizes that fair value is a market-based measurement, not an entity-specific measurement. Therefore, a fair value measurement should be determined based on the assumptions that market participants would use in pricing the asset or liability and establishes a fair value hierarchy.

The fair value measurement standard defines fair value, establishes a framework for measuring fair value, establishes a fair value hierarchy based on the quality of inputs used to measure fair value, and requires expanded disclosures about fair value measurements.

OMA has categorized its investments, based on the priority of the inputs to the valuation technique, into a three-level fair value hierarchy. The fair value hierarchy gives the highest priority to quoted prices in active markets for identical assets or liabilities (Level 1) and the lowest priority to unobservable inputs (Level 3). If the inputs used to measure the financial instruments fall within different levels of the hierarchy, the categorization is based on the lowest level input that is significant to the fair value measurement of the instrument.

Financial assets and liabilities recorded on the statement of financial position are categorized based on the inputs to the valuation techniques as follows:

Level 1 – Financial assets and liabilities are valued using inputs that are unadjusted quoted prices in active markets accessible at the measurement date of identical financial assets and liabilities. The inputs include those traded on an active exchange, such as the New York Stock Exchange, as well as U.S. Treasury and other U.S. government and agency mortgage-backed securities that are traded by dealers or brokers in active over-the-counter markets.

Level 2 – Financial assets and liabilities are valued using inputs that are quoted prices for similar assets, or inputs that are observable, either directly or indirectly for substantially the full term through corroboration with observable market data. Level 2 includes private collateralized mortgage obligations, municipal bonds, and corporate debt securities.

Level 3 – Financial assets and liabilities are valued using pricing inputs which are unobservable for the asset, inputs that reflect the reporting entity's own assumptions about the assumptions market participants would use in pricing the asset. Level 3 includes private equity, venture capital, hedge funds, and real estate.

NOTE 2 SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES (CONTINUED)

Museum Shop Inventory

Inventory is stated at the lower of cost or net realizable value. Cost is determined using the first-in, first-out basis.

Deferred Revenue

Amounts received but not yet recognized as revenue are reported as deferred revenue. These amounts principally include deferred membership revenue and advanced rental deposits.

Net Assets

The financial statements have been prepared to focus on OMA as a whole and to present balances and transactions according to the existence or absence of donor-imposed restrictions. This has been accomplished by classification of net assets and transactions based on the existence or absence of donor or grantor imposed restrictions. Accordingly, net assets and changes therein are classified and reported as follows:

Net Assets Without Donor Restrictions – Net assets that are both undesignated and designated in nature. Undesignated net assets without donor restriction are those currently available for use in the day-to-day operation of OMA and those resources invested in property and equipment. From time to time, the Board of Trustees may designate certain amounts of net assets without donor restriction to be utilized/invested to meet specific objectives of OMA.

Net Assets With Donor Restrictions – Net assets subject to donor- (or certain grantor) imposed restrictions. Some donor-imposed restrictions are temporary in nature, such as those that will be met by the passage of time or other events specified by the donor. Other donor-imposed restrictions are perpetual in nature, where the donor stipulates that resources be maintained in perpetuity. Generally, the donors of these assets that are maintained in perpetuity permit OMA to use all or part of the income earned on related investments for either unrestricted or specified purposes.

Revenue Recognition

Contributions and Grants

Contributions and grants are recognized as with donor restriction if they are received with donor stipulations that limit the use of the donated assets. When a donor restriction expires, net assets with donor restrictions are reclassified to net assets without donor restriction and reported in the statement of activities as net assets released from restrictions. When restrictions are met in the same period as the contribution is received, OMA records the contribution and the related expense as without donor restriction. Contributions of assets other than cash are recorded at their fair estimated value. Contributions of services are recognized if the services received (a) create or enhance nonfinancial assets or (b) require specialized skills, are provided by individuals possessing those skills, and would typically need to be purchased if not provided by donation.

Special Events Revenue

Special events revenue results from OMA and the Council of 101's efforts to produce a wide variety of events pertaining to exhibition openings, membership programs, and large annual fundraisers. The revenue is recognized in the period that the benefits and events are held.

Education Fees

Education fees result from educational programs, tours and workshops held by OMA. Revenue from these programs is recognized over time as the benefit of the educational program is received. As of June 30, 2022, OMA recorded $80,607 of deferred revenue related to various educational programs.

Rental Fees

Rental fees result from facility rentals at the Museum. Facility rentals are recognized when the performance obligation of providing space for the event is satisfied. As of June 30, 2022, OMA recorded $56,903 of deferred revenue related to facility rental fees.

Membership Dues

Membership dues are on an anniversary-date basis and are recognized ratably over the membership period. There are no distinct performance obligations and the general member benefits, including membership to the Museum, are considered a bundled group of performance obligations that are delivered to members throughout the membership period. As of June 30, 2022, OMA recorded $112,579 of deferred revenue related to museum memberships.

Exhibition Admission Fees

Admission fees are from daily attendance and group visits to OMA and are recognized at the time of visit.

Contributed Nonfinancial Assets

Donated land, buildings, equipment, investments, and other noncash donations are recorded as contributions at their fair value at the date of donation. Contributions of donated or discounted services that create or enhance nonfinancial assets or that require specialized skills, are provided by individuals possessing those skills, and would typically need to be purchased if not provided by donation, are recorded at their fair values in the period received.

The noncash donations, included as program expenses in the accompanying financial statements, consisted of the following as of June 30:

	2022	2021	Utilization in Programs/Activities	Donor Restrictions	Valuation Techniques and Inputs
Food and Beverages	$ 20,839	$ 27,832	Programs events	None	Fair value estimated on the basis of current rates for comparable products

Services and Goods	301,958	261,533	Fundraising events
Total	$ 415,127	$ 623,116

The Organization records the value of donated services when there is an objective basis available to measure the donation's value. In addition, many individuals' volunteer time and skills to perform a variety of tasks that assist the Organization, but these services do not meet the criteria for recognition as donated services.

Functional Allocation of Expenses

The costs of program, supporting services and special events activities have been summarized on a functional basis in the statement of activities. The statement of functional expenses presents the natural classification detail of expenses by function. Certain expenses, attributable to program, supporting services and special events, were allocated by management based upon an estimate of the time of the employees involved and/or a percentage of assets utilized.

Income Taxes

OMA is exempt from income taxes under the provisions of Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code. Accordingly, no provision for federal and state income taxes has been recorded in the accompanying financial statements.

OMA's income tax returns are subject to review and examination by federal and state authorities. OMA is not aware of any activities that would jeopardize its tax-exempt status. OMA is not aware of any activities that are subject to tax on unrelated business income or excise or other taxes.

Property and Equipment

Property and equipment purchased or constructed by OMA is capitalized at cost if purchased or at estimated fair value if acquired by gift. OMA's policy is to capitalize property and equipment if the acquisition cost or estimated donated value exceeds $2,000.

Depreciation of property and equipment is provided using the straight-line method over the estimated useful lives of the related assets, which are as follows:

Buildings and Improvements	5 to 43 Years
Furniture, Fixtures, and Equipment	3 to 7 Years

Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with accounting principles accepted in the United States of America requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and the disclosures of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of support and revenue and various expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Concentration of Credit Risks

The Organization maintains cash balances with one bank. The Organization's cash accounts at this bank are federally insured up to $250,000 under Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation (FDIC) protection. As of June 30, 2022, balances in excess of the FDIC limit was $142,735. Investments are not federally insured.

During fiscal year 2022, the Organization received approximately 23%, 18%, and 12% of its total support, from the Shuttered Venues Grant, the United Arts, and a 2nd PPP Loan.

Change in Accounting Principle

In September 2020, the FASB issued ASU 2020-07, Not-for-Profit Entities (Topic 958). The main provision of the standard is to present contributed nonfinancial assets as a separate line in the statement of activities and disclose qualitative information regarding utilization, donor-imposed restrictions, and valuation techniques of contributed nonfinancial assets. There was no impact on the Organization's financial position and change in net assets upon adoption of the new standard.

Comparative Financial Statements

These financial statements include summarized comparative prior-year information. That information is not presented by net asset class and does not contain sufficient detail to conform with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America (GAAP). Therefore, this information should be read in conjunction with OMA's audited financial statements for the year ended June 30, 2021.

Subsequent Events

In preparing these financial statements, OMA has evaluated events and transactions for potential recognition or disclosure through December 1, 2022, the date the financial statements were available to be issued.

NOTE 3 LIQUIDITY AND AVAILABILITY OF FINANCIAL ASSETS

OMA's financial assets available for general expenditure, that is, without donor or other restrictions limiting their use, within one year of the statement of financial position date, comprise the following:

	2022	2021
Cash and Cash Equivalents	$ 289,819	$ 314,098
Promises to Give and Other Receivables	253,832	131,898
Endowment Spending-Rate Distribution Appropriation	239,990	183,027
Total	$ 783,641	$ 629,023

OMA's endowment funds consist of donor-restricted endowments and funds designated by the board as endowments. As described in Note 12, the endowment balance has a spending rate of 5% which can be transferred to the operating fund. Income from the Acquisition Trust Endowment is restricted for specific purposes and, therefore, is not subject to the spending policy for general expenditures. Approximately $240,000 of appropriations from the endowment funds will be available within the next 12 months. Income from donor-restricted endowments in excess of the approved spending rate is not available for general expenditure until appropriated.

As part of OMA's liquidity management, it has a policy to structure its financial assets to be available as its general expenditures, liabilities, and other obligations come due. To help manage unanticipated liquidity needs, OMA has committed a line of credit in the amount of $200,000, which it could draw upon. Additionally, Orlando Museum of Art has a quasi-endowment of $900,000 and additional Board Designated funds of $602,337. Although Orlando Museum of Art does not intend to spend from its quasi-endowment or other Board Designated Funds (other than amounts appropriated for general expenditure as part of its annual budget approval and appropriation process) amounts from its quasi-endowment could be made available if necessary.

Beneficial interest in assets held by others consists of two charitable remainder unitrusts (Trusts). The Trusts are administered by a third-party corporate trustee. Under the Trust agreement, OMA is the sole named beneficiary of the Trusts. Upon the expiration of the Trust term, the trustee shall distribute all of the then remaining principal and income of the Trusts for use by OMA solely to add to their permanent collection. Based on the donors' life expectancies and the use of a 2.9% discount rate, the present value of the future benefits expected to be received by OMA was estimated to be $2,102,008 at June 30, 2022.

NOTE 9 FAIR VALUE MEASUREMENT

OMA uses fair value measurements to record fair value adjustments to certain assets and liabilities and to determine fair value disclosures.

NOTE 9 FAIR VALUE MEASUREMENT (CONTINUED)

The following table represents significant unobservable inputs for the beneficial interest in the assets held by others:

NOTE 10 ART COLLECTIONS

In conformity with industry practice, art purchased and donated is not recorded in the accompanying statement of financial position. Even though not recorded, OMA's collections represent one of its most valuable assets. Items added to OMA's permanent collections totaled $87,000 during the years ended June 30, 2022, based on estimated fair value at the date of receipt. Of this amount, $60,355 was acquired through donations and $26,645 was purchased. No items were de-accessioned. All donated art was accessioned into the permanent collection. The collections are made up of artifacts of historical significance and art objects that are held for educational, research, and curatorial purposes. Each of the items is cataloged, preserved, cared for, and not encumbered and activities verifying their existence and assessing their condition are performed continuously. The collections are subject to a policy that requires proceeds from their sales to be used to acquire other items for collections.

OMA's land and certain improvements were donated by the City of Orlando (the City). The land was donated with the restriction that its use be exclusively by OMA in accordance with its present purposes and that the land not be sold, leased, or otherwise disposed of without the written consent of the City (see Notes 14 and 18).

NOTE 12 ENDOWMENTS

OMA follows a standard issued by the Financial Accounting Standards Board related to the classification of donor-restricted endowment funds. This standard provides guidance on the net asset classification of donor-restricted endowment funds for a nonprofit organization that are subject to an enacted version of the Uniform Prudent Management of Institutional Funds Act of 2006 (UPMIFA). It also provides additional disclosures about an organization's endowed funds.

OMA has several donor-restricted endowment funds. The majority of these were established for the purpose of providing income to support general operations. The Board of Trustees of OMA has interpreted the State of Florida UPMIFA as requiring preservation of the fair value of the original gift as of the gift date of the donor-restricted endowment funds absent explicit donor stipulations to the contrary. As a result of this interpretation, OMA classifies as net assets with donor restrictions (a) the original value of gifts donated to the permanent endowment, (b) the original value of subsequent gifts to the permanent endowment, and (c) accumulations to the permanent endowment made in accordance with the direction of the applicable donor gift instrument at the time the accumulation is added to the fund. The remaining portion of the donor-restricted endowment fund is classified in net assets depending on the existence or absence of donor-imposed restrictions.

OMA's endowment investment policy is focused on preservation of capital and investment vehicles are selected to protect the integrity of the corpus.

Fund Deficiencies

From time to time, the fair value of assets associated with individual donor-restricted endowment funds may fall below the level that the donor or UPMIFA requires OMA to retain as a fund of perpetual duration. There are no fund deficiencies as of June 30, 2021.

Investment Strategy, Return Objectives, and Risk Parameters

OMA invested its endowment fund in a balanced portfolio of debt and equity securities with the objective of preservation of capital and long-term capital appreciation. The balanced portfolio investment return objective is to produce real returns, net of inflation, over time at a moderate level of risk to invested capital.

Spending Policy and How Investment Objectives Relate to Spending

A board-approved policy transfers to the operating fund up to 5% of the endowment fund balance as of the end of the prior calendar year. This percentage was determined based on the overall needs of OMA balanced with the long-term investment return objectives for a fund to be held in perpetuity.

Included in net assets with donor restriction are several donor-restricted endowment funds. OMA's endowments consist of a Florida Cultural Endowment and various other endowments for long-term use. The Florida Cultural Endowment was originally set up with two matching grants from the state of Florida, requiring OMA to raise $360,000 for each grant and for the state of Florida to match $240,000 for each grant, for a total of $1,200,000. In fiscal year 2007, a third matching grant of $240,000 was received to match additional endowment funds of $360,000 raised by OMA. In fiscal year 2012, OMA raised an additional match of $360,000 for the endowment fund. OMA received the fourth matching grant of $240,000 in 2015. OMA keeps a minimum balance of the $2,400,000 original contribution in the donor-restricted endowment account, as required by the state of Florida.

NOTE 15 401(K) RETIREMENT PLAN

OMA has a 401(k) retirement plan that is available to all of its employees who meet minimum age and length of service requirements. The plan has a December 31 year-end.

OMA can make a discretionary matching contribution of up to 5% of eligible participant wages. For the 2022 plan year, OMA made matching contributions of $9,136.

NOTE 16 RELATED PARTY TRANSACTIONS

During the year ended June 30, 2022, $226,101 was received as contributions from Board of Trustees members.

NOTE 17 LINE OF CREDIT

On May 18, 2015, OMA took out a line of credit with a bank for borrowings up to $200,000, payable on demand. Interest accrues at a variable rate equal to the bank's prime rate. The loan is secured by all deposits and investments. There was no balance due on the line at June 30, 2022.

NOTE 18 LEASES

OMA owns the land on which it is situated and leases adjacent land from the City of Orlando. The land is utilized as parking in Loch Haven Park and maintained to benefit the residents of the City of Orlando. Under the terms of the lease, which expires in 2057, annual rent is $1. The contributed value of the lease is not presented in the financial statements.

NOTE 19 PAYCHECK PROTECTION PROGRAM

On March 16, 2021, the Organization received proceeds in the amount of $246,491 to fund payroll, rent, utilities, and interest on mortgages and existing debt through an additional Paycheck Protection Program (2nd Round of PPP Funding). The 2nd Round of PPP Funding loan may be forgiven by the U.S. Small Business Administration (SBA) subject to certain performance barriers, as outlined in the loan agreement and the CARES Act. As of June 30, 2022, the SBA has formally forgiven the entire portion of OMA's obligation under this 2nd PPP loan. Therefore, OMA recognized $249,491 of revenue as a forgiveness of debt for the year ended June 30, 2022.

The SBA may review funding eligibility and usage of funds for compliance with program requirements based on dollar thresholds and other factors. The amount of liability, if any, from potential noncompliance cannot be determined with certainty; however, management is of the opinion that any review will not have a material adverse impact on the Organization's financial position.

NOTE 20 RISKS AND UNCERTAINTIES

The Organization is subject to federal audits to determine compliance with grant funding requirements. In the event that expenditures would be disallowed, repayment could be required. Government grants require the fulfillment of certain conditions as set forth by applicable laws, rules, and regulations, and in the grant agreements. Failure to fulfill the conditions could result in the return of the funds to grantor.

Report on the Audit of the Financial Statements

Opinion

We have audited the accompanying financial statements of Orlando Museum of Art, Inc. (OMA) (a nonprofit organization), which comprise the statement of financial position as of June 30, 2023, and the related statements of activities, functional expenses, and cash flows for the year then ended, and the related notes to the financial statements.

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of Orlando Museum of Art, Inc., as of June 30, 2023, and the changes in its net assets and its cash flows for the year then ended in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Basis for Opinion

We conducted our audits in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America (GAAS). Our responsibilities under those standards are further described in the Auditors' Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements section of our report. We are required to be independent of Orlando Museum of Art, Inc., and to meet our other ethical responsibilities in accordance with the relevant ethical requirements relating to our audits. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion.

Responsibilities of Management for the Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of these financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America; this includes the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the financial statements, management is required to evaluate whether there are conditions or events, considered in the aggregate, that raise substantial doubt about Orlando Museum of Art, Inc.'s ability to continue as a going concern for one year after the date the financial statements are available to be issued.

Auditors' Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditors' report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance but is not absolute assurance and therefore is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with GAAS will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control. Misstatements are considered material if there is a substantial likelihood that, individually or in the aggregate, they would influence the judgment made by a reasonable user based on the financial statements.

In performing an audit in accordance with GAAS, we:

- Exercise professional judgment and maintain professional skepticism throughout the audit.
- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, and design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks. Such procedures include examining, on a test basis, evidence regarding the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements.
- Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of Orlando Museum of Art, Inc.'s internal control. Accordingly, no such opinion is expressed.
- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of significant accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluate the overall presentation of the financial statements.
- Conclude whether, in our judgment, there are conditions or events, considered in the aggregate, that raise substantial doubt about Orlando Museum of Art, Inc.'s ability to continue as a going concern for a reasonable period of time.

We are required to communicate with those charged with governance regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit, significant audit findings, and certain internal control related matters that we identified during the audit.

Report on Summarized Comparative Information

We have previously audited Orlando Museum of Art, Inc.'s 2022 financial statements, and we expressed an unmodified audit opinion on those audited financial statements in our report dated December 1, 2022. In our opinion, the summarized comparative information presented herein as of and for the year ended June 30, 2022, is consistent, in all material respects, with the audited financial statements from which it has been derived.

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

NOTE 1 ORGANIZATION

In the mid-1920s, a group of art enthusiasts, collectors, and artists came together for the express purpose of encouraging and promoting art and its appreciation throughout Central Florida. The Orlando Museum of Art, Inc. (OMA) was founded in 1924 as the Orlando Art Association and incorporated in 1926 as a nonprofit corporation. Today, the institution serves an estimated population of three million residents in Central Florida and visitors from around the world.

OMA's Mission is to inspire creativity, passion, and intellectual curiosity by connecting people with art and new ideas.

OMA's Vision is to be a creative change agent for education and the center for artistic engagement as well as a place for civic, cultural, and economic development.

OMA's Purpose is to interpret and present the most compelling art for the public to experience, and to positively affect people's lives with innovative and inspiring education programs that will endure as a cultural legacy in Central Florida.

To meet these objectives, OMA has dedicated itself to collecting, preserving, and interpreting notable works of art; to presenting exhibitions of local, regional, national, and international significance; to developing first-rate educational programs; and to developing creative and inclusive programs that reach every segment of its diverse audience.

OMA has maintained its national accredited status by the American Alliance of Museums since 1971 and is ranked by the state as one of the top major art museums in Florida for its demonstrated national leadership, program excellence, and statewide impact.

OMA has a number of support groups. According to OMA's bylaws:

The Council of 101 (101) is a committee of the membership operating under the charter of OMA. 101 was formed in 1965 to further the cultural development and appreciation of the visual arts in the Central Florida area and to provide financial resources for OMA, which is the sole beneficiary of 101's fundraising efforts. The designated use of such resources is unrestricted operating support for the Museum's programming and operations. The accounts of 101 are included in the financial statements.

The bylaws also provide for additional committees of the membership that serve to advance OMA's mission and vision. The purpose of these committees is as follows:

The Acquisition Trust is instrumental in the acquisition of exceptional examples of Contemporary Art from 1945 to the present moment for the OMA permanent collection through purchase and gift.

The Friends of American Art is instrumental in the acquisition of exceptional examples of American Art from the 18th Century through 1945 for the OMA permanent collection through purchase and gift.

The Associates work to expand the membership at the museum through publicity and OMA's monthly 1st Thursday's program.

The Volunteer Council focuses on recruiting, retaining, and rewarding OMA volunteers.

The Ambassadors of the OMA provide funding without restrictions for operations, exhibitions, public programs, and educational initiatives. The OMA Ambassadors help to bring the highest quality visual art experiences, and art educational opportunities, for the engagement of the Central Florida community and its visitors.

NOTE 2 SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Basis of Accounting

The financial statements of OMA have been prepared on the accrual basis of accounting.

Cash and Cash Equivalents

In these financial statements, cash and cash equivalents include cash and all highly liquid debt instruments available for current use with maturities of less than three months at time of purchase. Included in cash and cash equivalents are bank deposits, certain amounts of which are not insured under Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation regulations.

Promises to Give and Other Receivables

Pledges receivable consist of unconditional promises to give from donors, which are recognized within net assets at their fair value when unconditional promises are received.

Management expects all pledges to be received during the next 12 months; accordingly, such receivables are not discounted. Management considers all accounts and pledges receivable collectable; therefore, there is no allowance for doubtful accounts. Contributed professional support services and materials, except for artwork (see Note 10), are recorded in the accompanying financial statements at their estimated fair value at the date of receipt by OMA.

Investments

Investments consist of certificates of deposit, money market funds, and mutual funds. Under current accounting standards, investments in marketable securities with readily determinable fair values and all investments in debt securities are valued in the statement of financial position at their fair value. Fair value is determined by reference to exchange or dealer-quoted market prices. If a quoted market price is not available, fair value is estimated using quoted market prices for similar investment securities. Changes in the fair value of securities are reflected as investment gains or losses in the accompanying statement of activities. Money market funds and certificates of deposit are recorded at cost which approximates fair value.

Beneficial Interest in Assets Held by Others

OMA is the beneficiary of two charitable remainder unitrusts held and administered by an independent corporate trustee. Under the terms of the trusts, OMA has the irrevocable right to receive all of the then remaining principal and income at the expiration of the trust term. The funds are to be used solely to add to OMA's permanent collection. The estimated fair value of the beneficial interest in the trusts is recognized as an asset and changes in the value are recognized as support with donor restrictions. OMA's estimate of fair value is based on fair value information provided by the trustee.

Fair Value Measurement

Fair value measurement applies to reported balances that are required or permitted to be measured at fair value under an existing accounting pronouncement. OMA emphasizes that fair value is a market-based measurement, not an entity-specific measurement. Therefore, a fair value measurement should be determined based on the assumptions that market participants would use in pricing the asset or liability and establishes a fair value hierarchy.

The fair value measurement standard defines fair value, establishes a framework for measuring fair value, establishes a fair value hierarchy based on the quality of inputs used to measure fair value, and requires expanded disclosures about fair value measurements.

OMA has categorized its investments, based on the priority of the inputs to the valuation technique, into a three-level fair value hierarchy. The fair value hierarchy gives the highest priority to quoted prices in active markets for identical assets or liabilities (Level 1) and the lowest priority to unobservable inputs (Level 3). If the inputs used to measure the financial instruments fall within different levels of the hierarchy, the categorization is based on the lowest level input that is significant to the fair value measurement of the instrument.

Financial assets and liabilities recorded on the statement of financial position are categorized based on the inputs to the valuation techniques as follows:

Level 1 – Financial assets and liabilities are valued using inputs that are unadjusted quoted prices in active markets accessible at the measurement date of identical financial assets and liabilities. The inputs include those traded on an active exchange, such as the New York Stock Exchange, as well as U.S. Treasury and other U.S. government and agency mortgage-backed securities that are traded by dealers or brokers in active over-the-counter markets.

Level 2 – Financial assets and liabilities are valued using inputs that are quoted prices for similar assets, or inputs that are observable, either directly or indirectly for substantially the full term through corroboration with observable market data. Level 2 includes private collateralized mortgage obligations, municipal bonds, and corporate debt securities.

Level 3 – Financial assets and liabilities are valued using pricing inputs which are unobservable for the asset, inputs that reflect the reporting entity's own assumptions about the assumptions market participants would use in pricing the asset. Level 3 includes private equity, venture capital, hedge funds, and real estate.

NOTE 2 SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES (CONTINUED)

Museum Shop Inventory

Inventory is stated at the lower of cost or net realizable value. Cost is determined using the first-in, first-out basis.

Deferred Revenue

Amounts received but not yet recognized as revenue are reported as deferred revenue. These amounts principally include deferred membership revenue and advanced rental deposits.

Net Assets

The financial statements have been prepared to focus on OMA as a whole and to present balances and transactions according to the existence or absence of donor-imposed restrictions. This has been accomplished by classification of net assets and transactions based on the existence or absence of donor or grantor-imposed restrictions. Accordingly, net assets and changes therein are classified and reported as follows:

Net Assets Without Donor Restrictions – Net assets that are both undesignated and designated in nature. Undesignated net assets without donor restriction are those currently available for use in the day-to-day operation of OMA and those resources invested in property and equipment. From time to time, the Board of Trustees may designate certain amounts of net assets without donor restriction to be utilized/invested to meet specific objectives of OMA.

Net Assets With Donor Restrictions – Net assets subject to donor- (or certain grantor) imposed restrictions. Some donor-imposed restrictions are temporary in nature, such as those that will be met by the passage of time or other events specified by the donor. Other donor-imposed restrictions are perpetual in nature, where the donor stipulates that resources be maintained in perpetuity. Generally, the donors of these assets that are maintained in perpetuity permit OMA to use all or part of the income earned on related investments for either unrestricted or specified purposes.

Revenue Recognition

Contributions and Grants

Contributions and grants are recognized as with donor restriction if they are received with donor stipulations that limit the use of the donated assets. When a donor restriction expires, net assets with donor restrictions are reclassified to net assets without donor restriction and reported in the statement of activities as net assets released from restrictions. When restrictions are met in the same period as the contribution is received, OMA records the contribution and the related expense as without donor restriction. Contributions of assets other than cash are recorded at their fair estimated value. Contributions of services are recognized if the services received (a) create or enhance nonfinancial assets or (b) require specialized skills, are provided by individuals possessing those skills, and would typically need to be purchased if not provided by donation.

Special Events Revenue

Special events revenue results from OMA and the Council of 101's efforts to produce a wide variety of events pertaining to exhibition openings, membership programs, and large annual fundraisers. The revenue is recognized in the period that the benefits and events are held.

Education Fees

Education fees result from educational programs, tours and workshops held by OMA. Revenue from these programs is recognized over time as the benefit of the educational program is received. As of June 30, 2023, OMA recorded $83,864 of deferred revenue related to various educational programs.

Rental Fees

Rental fees result from facility rentals at the Museum. Facility rentals are recognized when the performance obligation of providing space for the event is satisfied. As of June 30, 2023, OMA recorded $45,889 of deferred revenue related to facility rental fees.

Membership Dues

Membership dues are on an anniversary-date basis and are recognized ratably over the membership period. There are no distinct performance obligations and the general member benefits, including membership to the Museum, are considered a bundled group of performance obligations that are delivered to members throughout the membership period. As of June 30, 2023, OMA recorded $55,626 of deferred revenue related to museum memberships.

Exhibition Admission Fees

Admission fees are from daily attendance and group visits to OMA and are recognized at the time of visit.

Contributed Nonfinancial Assets

Donated land, buildings, equipment, investments, and other noncash donations are recorded as contributions at their fair value at the date of donation. Contributions of donated or discounted services that create or enhance nonfinancial assets or that require specialized skills, are provided by individuals possessing those skills, and would typically need to be purchased if not provided by donation, are recorded at their fair values in the period received.

ORLANDO MUSEUM OF ART, INC.
NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
JUNE 30, 2023

Contributed Nonfinancial Assets (Continued)

The noncash donations, included as program expenses in the accompanying financial statements, consisted of the following as of June 30:

	2023	2022	Utilization in Programs/Activities	Donor Restrictions	Valuation Techniques and Inputs
Food and Beverages	$ 16,677	$ 20,839	Programs events	None	Fair value estimated on the basis of current rates for comparable products
Household Goods	-	7,860	Programs events	None	Fair value estimated on the basis of current rates for comparable products
Services	107,938	84,470	Interior design, floral design, signage for events, entertainment, marketing, and other services	None	Fair value estimated on the basis of current rates for comparable products
Services and Goods	211,304	301,958	Fundraising events
Total	$ 335,919	$ 415,127

The Organization records the value of donated services when there is an objective basis available to measure the donation's value. In addition, many individuals' volunteer time and skills to perform a variety of tasks that assist the Organization, but these services do not meet the criteria for recognition as donated services.

Functional Allocation of Expenses

The costs of program, supporting services and special events activities have been summarized on a functional basis in the statement of activities. The statement of functional expenses presents the natural classification detail of expenses by function. Certain expenses, attributable to program, supporting services and special events, were allocated by management based upon an estimate of the time of the employees involved and/or a percentage of assets utilized.

Reclassifications

Certain reclassifications of amounts previously reported have been made to the accompanying consolidated financial statements to maintain consistency between periods presented. The reclassifications had no impact on previously reported net assets.

Income Taxes

OMA is exempt from income taxes under the provisions of Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code. Accordingly, no provision for federal and state income taxes has been recorded in the accompanying financial statements.

ORLANDO MUSEUM OF ART, INC.
NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
JUNE 30, 2023

Income Taxes (Continued)

OMA's income tax returns are subject to review and examination by federal and state authorities. OMA is not aware of any activities that would jeopardize its tax-exempt status. OMA is not aware of any activities that are subject to tax on unrelated business income or excise or other taxes.

Property and Equipment

Property and equipment purchased or constructed by OMA is capitalized at cost if purchased or at estimated fair value if acquired by gift. OMA's policy is to capitalize property and equipment if the acquisition cost or estimated donated value exceeds $2,000.

Depreciation of property and equipment is provided using the straight-line method over the estimated useful lives of the related assets, which are as follows:

Buildings and Improvements	5 to 43 Years
Furniture, Fixtures, and Equipment	3 to 7 Years

Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with accounting principles accepted in the United States of America requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and the disclosures of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of support and revenue and various expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Concentration of Credit Risks

The Organization maintains cash balances with one bank. The Organization's cash accounts at this bank are federally insured up to $250,000 under Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation (FDIC) protection. As of June 30, 2023, balances in excess of the FDIC limit was $18,373. Investments are not federally insured.

During fiscal year 2023, the Organization received approximately 35%, 14%, and 12% of its total support, from the United Arts of Central Florida, Orange County, and State of Florida.

Adoption of Accounting Pronouncement

In February 2016, The Financial Accounting Standards Board (FASB) issued Accounting Standards Update (ASU) 2016-02, Leases (Topic 842). This new standard increases transparency and comparability among organizations by requiring the recognition of right-of-use (ROU) assets and lease liabilities on the statement of financial position. Most prominent among the changes in the standard is the recognition of ROU assets and lease liabilities by lessees for those leases classified as operating leases. Under the standard, disclosures are required to meet the objective of enabling users of financial statements to assess the amount, timing, and uncertainty of cash flows arising from leases.

ORLANDO MUSEUM OF ART, INC.
NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
JUNE 30, 2023

Adoption of Accounting Pronouncement (Continued)

The Organization adopted the requirements of the guidance effective July 1, 2022, and has elected to apply the provisions of this standard to the beginning of the period of adoption.

Lease disclosures for the year ended June 30, 2022 are made under prior lease guidance in FASB ASC 840.

Comparative Financial Statements

These financial statements include summarized comparative prior-year information. That information is not presented by net asset class and does not contain sufficient detail to conform with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America (GAAP). Therefore, this information should be read in conjunction with OMA's audited financial statements for the year ended June 30, 2022.

Leases

The Organization determines if an arrangement is a lease at inception. Operating leases are included in right-of-use (ROU) assets – operating and lease liability – operating, and finance leases are included in right-of-use (ROU) assets – financing and lease liability – financing in the statements of financial position.

ROU assets represent the Organization's right to use an underlying asset for the lease term and lease liabilities represent the Organization's obligation to make lease payments arising from the lease. ROU assets and liabilities are recognized at the lease commencement date based on the present value of lease payments over the lease term. Lease terms may include options to extend or terminate the lease when it is reasonably certain that the Organization will exercise that option. Lease expense for operating lease payments is recognized on a straight-line basis over the lease terms. The Organization has elected to recognize payments for short-term leases with a lease term of 12 months or less as expense as incurred and these leases are not included as lease liabilities or right of use assets on the statements of financial position.

The individual lease contracts do not provide information about the discount rate implicit in the lease. Therefore, the Organization has elected to use a risk-free discount rate determined using a period comparable with that of the lease term for computing the present value of lease liabilities.

The Organization has elected not to separate nonlease components from lease components and instead accounts for each separate lease component and the nonlease component as a single lease component.

Subsequent Events

In preparing these financial statements, OMA has evaluated events and transactions for potential recognition or disclosure through March 6, 2024, the date the financial statements were available to be issued.

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
JUNE 30, 2023

NOTE 3 LIQUIDITY AND AVAILABILITY OF FINANCIAL ASSETS

OMA's financial assets available for general expenditure, that is, without donor or other restrictions limiting their use, within one year of the statement of financial position date, comprise the following:

	2023	2022
Cash and Cash Equivalents	$ 138,977	$ 113,061
Promises to Give and Other Receivables	95,395	219,417
Endowment Spending-Rate Distribution Appropriation	186,997	239,990
Total	$ 421,369	$ 572,468

OMA's endowment funds consist of donor-restricted endowments and funds designated by the board as endowments. As described in Note 12, the endowment balance has a spending rate of 5% which can be transferred to the operating fund. Income from the Acquisition Trust Endowment is restricted for specific purposes and, therefore, is not subject to the spending policy for general expenditures. Approximately $186,997 of appropriations from the endowment funds will be available within the next 12 months. Income from donor-restricted endowments in excess of the approved spending rate is not available for general expenditure until appropriated.

As part of Orlando Museum of Art's liquidity management, it has a policy to structure its financial assets to be available as its general expenditures, liabilities, and other obligations come due. To help manage unanticipated liquidity needs, Orlando Museum of Art has committed a line of credit in the amount of $200,000, which it could draw upon. Additionally, Orlando Museum of Art obtained $200,000 loan to be paid over five years.

Additionally, Orlando Museum of Art has a quasi-endowment of $900,000 and additional Board Designated funds of $70,151 from its quasi-endowment that could be made available if necessary.

NOTE 4 GRANTS – GOVERNMENT AND OTHERS

Net Revenue	$ 465,529	$ -	$ 465,529

NOTE 6 BENEFICIAL INTEREST IN ASSETS HELD BY OTHERS

Beneficial interest in assets held by others consists of two charitable remainder unitrusts (Trusts). The Trusts are administered by a third-party corporate trustee. Under the Trust agreement, OMA is the sole named beneficiary of the Trusts. Upon the expiration of the Trust term, the trustee shall distribute all of the then remaining principal and income of the Trusts for use by OMA solely to add to their permanent collection. Based on the donors' life expectancies and the use of a 2.9% discount rate, the present value of the future benefits expected to be received by OMA was estimated to be $2,133,711 at June 30, 2023.

NOTE 7 FAIR VALUE MEASUREMENT

OMA uses fair value measurements to record fair value adjustments to certain assets and liabilities and to determine fair value disclosures.

Assets measured at fair value on a recurring basis at June 30, 2023:

	Level 1	Level 2	Level 3	Total
Mutual Funds:
Domestic Equity	$ 1,971,279	$ -	$ -	$ 1,971,279

The following table represents a reconciliation of assets in which significant unobservable inputs (Level 3) were used to determine fair value for the year ended June 30, 2023:

Fair Value at June 30, 2022	$ 2,102,008
Unrealized Gain in Beneficial Interest in Assets Held by Others	31,703
Fair Value at June 30, 2023	$ 2,133,711

Fair value of beneficial interest in assets held by others was determined by computing the present value of required future distributions expected to be paid, using published life expectancy tables, a discount rate of 2.9%, and a historical rate of return of 5% as provided by the Trustee.

The following table represents significant unobservable inputs for the beneficial interest in the assets held by others:

Instrument	Fair Value		Principal Valuation Technique	Unobservable Inputs
	2023	2022
Beneficial Interest in Asset Held by Others	$ 2,133,711	$ 2,102,008	FMV of Trust Investments	Time Period of Trust

NOTE 8 ART COLLECTIONS

In conformity with industry practice, art purchased and donated is not recorded in the accompanying statement of financial position. Even though not recorded, OMA's collections represent one of its most valuable assets. Items added to OMA's permanent collections totaled $785,600 during the years ended June 30, 2023, based on estimated fair value at the date of receipt. Of this amount, $672,600 was acquired through donations and $113,000 was purchased. No items were de-accessioned. All donated art was accessioned into the permanent collection. The collections are made up of artifacts of historical significance and art objects that are held for educational, research, and curatorial purposes. Each of the items is cataloged, preserved, cared for, and not encumbered and activities verifying their existence and assessing their condition are performed continuously. The collections are subject to a policy that requires proceeds from their sales to be used to acquire other items for collections.

NOTE 9 PROPERTY AND EQUIPMENT

Property and equipment consisted of the following at June 30, 2023:

Land and Land Improvements	$ 2,536,638

Total	$ 6,607,147

OMA's land and certain improvements were donated by the City of Orlando (the City). The land was donated with the restriction that its use be exclusively by OMA in accordance with its present purposes and that the land not be sold, leased, or otherwise disposed of without the written consent of the City (see Note 18).

NOTE 10 ENDOWMENTS

OMA follows a standard issued by the Financial Accounting Standards Board related to the classification of donor-restricted endowment funds. This standard provides guidance on the net asset classification of donor-restricted endowment funds for a nonprofit organization that are subject to an enacted version of the Uniform Prudent Management of Institutional Funds Act of 2006 (UPMIFA). It also provides additional disclosures about an organization's endowed funds.

OMA has several donor-restricted endowment funds. The majority of these were established for the purpose of providing income to support general operations. The Board of Trustees of OMA has interpreted the State of Florida UPMIFA as requiring preservation of the fair value of the original gift as of the gift date of the donor-restricted endowment funds absent explicit donor stipulations to the contrary. As a result of this interpretation, OMA classifies as net assets with donor restrictions (a) the original value of gifts donated to the permanent endowment, (b) the original value of subsequent gifts to the permanent endowment, and (c) accumulations to the permanent endowment made in accordance with the direction of the applicable donor gift instrument at the time the accumulation is added to the fund. The remaining portion of the donor-restricted endowment fund is classified in net assets depending on the existence or absence of donor-imposed restrictions.

OMA's endowment investment policy is focused on preservation of capital and investment vehicles are selected to protect the integrity of the corpus.

Fund Deficiencies

From time to time, the fair value of assets associated with individual donor-restricted endowment funds may fall below the level that the donor or UPMIFA requires OMA to retain as a fund of perpetual duration. There are no fund deficiencies as of June 30, 2023.

Investment Strategy, Return Objectives, and Risk Parameters

OMA invested its endowment fund in a balanced portfolio of debt and equity securities with the objective of preservation of capital and long-term capital appreciation. The balanced portfolio investment return objective is to produce real returns, net of inflation, over time at a moderate level of risk to invested capital.

Spending Policy and How Investment Objectives Relate to Spending

A board-approved policy transfers to the operating fund up to 5% of the endowment fund balance as of the end of the prior calendar year. This percentage was determined based on the overall needs of OMA balanced with the long-term investment return objectives for a fund to be held in perpetuity.

Included in net assets with donor restriction are several donor-restricted endowment funds. OMA's endowments consist of a Florida Cultural Endowment and various other endowments for long-term use. The Florida Cultural Endowment was originally set up with two matching grants from the state of Florida, requiring OMA to raise $360,000 for each grant and for the state of Florida to match $240,000 for each grant, for a total of $1,200,000. In fiscal year 2007, a third matching grant of $240,000 was received to match additional endowment funds of $360,000 raised by OMA. In fiscal year 2012, OMA raised an additional match of $360,000 for the endowment fund. OMA received the fourth matching grant of $240,000 in 2015. OMA keeps a minimum balance of the $2,400,000 original contribution in the donor-restricted endowment account, as required by the state of Florida.

NOTE 13 401(K) RETIREMENT PLAN

OMA has a 401(k) retirement plan that is available to all of its employees who meet minimum age and length of service requirements. The plan has a December 31 year-end.

OMA can make a discretionary matching contribution of up to 5% of eligible participant wages. For the 2023 plan year, OMA made matching contributions of $5,451.

NOTE 14 RELATED PARTY TRANSACTIONS

During the year ended June 30, 2023, $66,809 was received as contributions from Board of Trustees members.

NOTE 15 LINE OF CREDIT

On May 18, 2015, OMA took out a line of credit with a bank for borrowings up to $200,000, payable on demand. Interest accrues at a variable rate equal to the bank's prime rate. The loan is secured by all deposits and investments. There was a balance of $195,000 due on the line as of June 30, 2023. Interest expense paid on the line of credit was approximately $14,000 during the year ended June 30, 2023.

NOTE 16 LONG-TERM DEBT

On March 30, 2023, OMA entered into a note payable agreement with Truist Bank for $200,000 due in monthly payments of principal and interest payments of $4,071 at a fixed rate of interest of 7.99% with a maturity date of April 5, 2028. The note payable is collateralized by certain inventory, chattel paper, accounts, equipment, and general intangibles. The loan is secured by all deposits and investments. The balances and amount paid as of June 30, 2023 are as follows:

The contributed value of the lease is not presented in the financial statements.

NOTE 19 GOING CONCERN

The Organization believes their resources owned currently and to be obtained in the future will be sufficient to fund operations as a going concern. Management's evaluation of the events and conditions and management's plan regarding these matters are that they have mitigated this substantial doubt by their cash flow plan. The financial statements do not include any adjustments that might result from the outcome of this uncertainty.

NOTE 20 RISKS AND UNCERTAINTIES

The Organization is subject to federal audits to determine compliance with grant funding requirements. In the event that expenditures would be disallowed, repayment could be required. Government grants require the fulfillment of certain conditions as set forth by applicable laws, rules, and regulations, and in the grant agreements. Re: Facility Assessment for Orlando Museum of Art Modernization Program –
Interim Report

Dear Dr. DeGroot,

Thank you for the honor to be selected to prepare the Facility Assessment of the Infrastructure of the Existing Orlando Museum of Art, which includes a condition assessment; recommendations for repairs, upgrades, or replacements; pricing proposals and qualification documentation of the following systems: (progress copy included in Attachment "A")

- Complete HVAC system, including but not limited to, the building automation system (BAS), Air Handling Units, duct work, piping, valves
- All exterior and interior lighting
- Miscellaneous general trades including but not limited to acoustical ceiling and drywall replacement
- Miscellaneous concrete, paver, building envelope repairs and/or replacement
- Roofing replacement
- EIFS (Exterior Insulation Finishing System) repairs and refreshment
- Storefront systems
- Waterproofing
- Optional sustainable scopes including solar, EV charging stations, etc.
- Confirmation of scopes related to PACE Funding criteria (if required)

To assist TRANE with the analysis of the OMA's existing systems, we have engaged the following professionals from specialty design, engineering and trade providers with the expertise and experience directly related to the design, construction, maintenance, and performance of a safe, sustainable, and resilient facility with similar demands of the OMA:

- LAM Partners LLC., Architectural Lighting Design
- L&S Lighting/Electrical Enterprises, LLC
- ARC Associates, Inc., (Roofing and Building Envelope Design)

- Coastal Mechanical Services, LLC
- Engineered Cooling Systems, Inc.
- MK Structural Engineers, Inc.
- Affiliated Engineers. Inc. (MEP)

As we discussed in August, additional time was required and granted to submit our findings due to the need to engage additional engineering and specialty systems providers to address hidden structural and mechanical conditions and the re-creation of missing building plans and specifications for early phases of the existing museum along with production interruptions resulting from our team's individual COVID impacts.

We are currently nearing completion of the assessment and are now coordinating with partners to gather detailed budget pricing to support our final copy of the report and our approach to delivering a "Turnkey Design-Build Solution".

We have carefully prequalified specialty mechanical, electrical, roofing, and general contractors with proven experience and success working in and on secure, occupied facilities to provide accurate costing proposals taking into consideration the following:

- Each contractor shall be responsible for all elements within their major work element as required to attain a complete, operable system. Additionally, and critical to the success of this project is the awareness and acknowledgement of the presence of museum employees and guests of all ages at various times and the protection of various priceless works of art either in storage or exhibited in any one of several galleries within the facility or located around the grounds.
- Each contractor and their employees will submit to similar background checks and badging required for working around school age children on occupied public schools in the State of Florida.
- Additionally, each contractor shall acknowledge that all work is to occur within or adjacent to existing facilities with varied hours of operation, on a City of Orlando managed multi-tenant campus.
- Pricing proposals shall take into consideration schedule and cost impacts related to preventing or scheduling around interruptions to utilities, traffic, etc. to avoid conflicts with any Lock Haven Park tenant activities.
- All work shall be performed in accordance with all laws, codes, ordinances, regulations, etc. of City of Orlando Florida, Orlando Utilities and Orange County Florida, the State of Florida, and Local authorities having jurisdiction.

At the conclusion of this assessment, scheduled for delivery in January 2021, Trane will present the complete assessment with pricing to support our "good-better-best" approach to addressing the energy and facility improvements in time for the upcoming Centennial Celebration in 2024.

Each of the providers (general, roofing, HVAC/mechanical, and electrical contractors) will include all required items to perform the implementation of the complete scope of work while following all aspects of Trane's extensive safety and quality control protocols.

Each of the providers will adjust delivery and installation schedules to accommodate museum activities, exhibits and special events.

Trane is poised to assist you, your staff and Board to lead the necessary improvements to exceed the demands of your landmark facility while creating a showcase for sustainability and resiliency as well as for works of masters from across the centuries and the globe. Trane with U.S. headquarters in Davidson, N.C. brings efficient and sustainable climate innovations to buildings of all types across the United States and world-wide.

Orlando Museum of Art- Conditions Assessment (Interim Report)

0.0 Executive Summary

The recommendations included in this study will include a clear articulation of the positive effects on energy performance and environmental impact. This report will provide valuable data to facilitate the next steps to address reduced energy consumption, lower utility expenses, and a smaller carbon footprint, based upon how they align with the museum's commitment to sustainability. Trane will provide analysis to benchmark the museum's current utility and environmental performance versus OMA peers and quantify the potential impacts of the recommendations on utility expenses and meeting institutional sustainability goals.

Air system upgrades for Gallery Spaces will be characterized as a "Good", "Better", and "Best" approach, to allow for incremental cost/benefit analysis on the part of the owner. The "Good" option will focus on system controls, functionality of existing system configuration, and achieving significant energy savings through system modifications. The "Better" option will include the system improvements contemplated in the "Good" option plus additional system configuration modification to bring existing systems and components into as close compliance to the latest museum design standards as possible without complete system replacement. The "Best" option will include complete system replacements as necessary to bring system configuration into compliance with the latest museum critical space design criteria. Exceptions and additions for specific air systems will be noted as need to address any non-standard system applications.

2.0 Building Envelope Improvements

A/R/C Associates Incorporated was engaged to provide an evaluation of the existing envelope systems employed at OMA. This systems evaluation included roofing, exterior walls, windows, exterior doors, and EFIS material and included recommendations on repair and/or replacement. The entire report from A/R/C Associates will be included as Exhibit in the final narrative.

2.1 Roofing Systems

The OMA facility has been expanded and consolidated with several major renovations over the course of approximately 50 years. Each renovation has added building area to the footprint of the facility and significantly impacted the elevation and roof lines of the complex. As a result, the existing roofing system at OMA consist of three (3) major different roof applications applied to twenty-two (22) different roof elevations. These major roof systems include:

- Aggregate surface built up roofing
- Mineral surfaced and coated modified bitumen roofing
- Thermoplastic single ply membrane (TPO) roofing

Each of these systems are at or beyond scheduled useable life and are recommended for immediate replacement, as the integrity of repair could not be insured.

1. Aggregate Surface Building Up Roofing

a. Existing Conditions

The roofs are approximately 30 years and are beyond their anticipated service life. Due to the advanced age and poor condition, repairs are not recommended. Replacement with a new roof system is the best course of action. There is significant granule loss on the surface of the cap sheet.

b. Replacement Scope of Work

Roofing-Aggregate Surfaced Coal Tar Pitch Built Up Roof Membrane:

- Remove all gravel, built up roofing, flashing, and insulation down to the existing roof deck.
- Remove existing base and counter flashing at wall structure.
- Replace/repair lightweight insulating concrete (LWIC) where damaged.
- Nail a vented base sheet to LWIC.
- Raise counterflashing on wall structure to create a 10" base flashing. Repair wall as needed.
- Foam Adhere a 3" base layer of isocyanate insulation.
- Foam Adhere a ¼" per foot tapered isocyanate insulation system.
- Foam Adhere a ½" gypsum cover board.
- Replace existing roof drains throughout roof area. Ensure proper slope to allow proper roof drainage. Add tapered insulation board as required to maintain proper slope.
- Torch apply a 180 mill smooth surface modified bitumen interply.

- Torch apply a second 180 mill smooth surface modified bitumen interply.
- Torch apply a 180 mill mineral surfaced modified bitumen cap sheet.
- Install new stainless-steel copings with fully solder/welded transitions.

2. Modified Bitumen Roofing

a. Existing Conditions

The roofs are also worn and approaching the end of their service life. Replacement is recommended due to the age, condition, and short remaining life.

b. Replacement Scope of Work

Roofing-Coated Modified Bitumen, Roof Level 9 (Existing Roof Top Mechanical Room):

- Recommend removal of the existing steep sloped roof system, and sloped roof deck and framing to expose the existing parapet walls.
- Remove existing base and counter flashing at wall structure.
- Extend the perimeter CMU masonry bearing wall vertically about eight feet.
- Install new roof framing and metal roof deck.
- Raise counterflashing on wall structure to create a 10" base flashing. Repair wall as needed.
- Mechanically fasten a 3" base layer of isocyanate insulation.
- Foam Adhere a ¼" per foot tapered isocyanate insulation system.
- Foam Adhere a ½" gypsum cover board. Replace existing roof drains throughout roof area. Ensure proper slope to allow proper roof drainage. Add tapered insulation board as required to maintain proper slope.
- Torch apply a 180 mill smooth surface modified bitumen interply.
- Torch apply a second 180 mill smooth surface modified bitumen interply.
- Torch apply a 180 mill mineral surfaced modified bitumen cap sheet.
- Install new stainless-steel copings with fully solder/welded transitions.

Roofing-Mineral Surfaced Modified Bitumen, Roof Level 20 (Existing steeply sloped area):

- Remove all modified bitumen roofing, flashing, and insulation down to the existing roof deck.
- Nail a vented base sheet to lightweight insulating concrete.
- Foam adhere a 3" base layer of isocyanate insulation.
- Foam Adhere a ¼" per foot tapered isocyanate insulation system.
- Foam Adhere a ½" gypsum cover board.
- Replace existing roof drains throughout roof area. Ensure proper slope to allow proper roof drainage. Add tapered insulation board as required to maintain proper slope.
- Torch apply a 180 mill smooth surface modified bitumen interply.
- Torch apply a second 180 mill smooth surface modified bitumen interply.
- Torch apply a 180 mill mineral surfaced modified bitumen cap sheet
- Install new stainless-steel copings with fully solder/welded transitions.

3. Thermoplastic Single Ply Membrane

a. Existing Conditions

The single ply roof system in place appears to be a TPO material that was installed over a recovery board and coal tar built up roof system. This means that there are two roof systems in place. The building code will require that both roofs are replaced. The quality of the installation is marginal. The roofs are recommended for replacement with other roofing work being performed.

b. Replacement Scope of Work

Roofing-TPO Single Ply Roof Membrane:

- Remove the existing TPO single ply roof membrane system.
- Remove existing recovery board.
- Remove all gravel, built up roofing, flashing, and insulation down to the existing roof deck.
- Remove existing base and counter flashing at wall structure.
- Nail a vented base sheet to lightweight insulating concrete.
- Raise counterflashing on wall structure to create a 10" base flashing. Repair wall as needed.
- Adhere a 3" base layer of isocyanate insulation.
- Adhere a ¼" per foot tapered isocyanate insulation system.
- Adhere a ½" gypsum cover board.
- Torch apply a 180 mill smooth surface modified bitumen interply.
- Torch apply a second 180 mill smooth surface modified bitumen interply.
- Torch apply a 180 mill mineral surfaced modified bitumen cap sheet.
- Install new stainless-steel copings with fully solder/welded transitions.

2.2 Exterior Wall Systems

The original building of the Orlando Museum of Art was constructed in the 1960's. Major renovations and enlargement of the building were performed in 1990 and 1995. Several other additions and alterations have been performed as well. The exterior wall system of the building consists of brick veneer. An exterior insulation and finish system (EIFS) has been used for accents and detailing around the building. The windows currently in place are primarily aluminum frame with insulated glass. The doors located around the building are few and primarily constructed out of steel or aluminum.

1. Brick Veneer

a. Existing Conditions

The brick veneer overall was observed as being in fair to good condition. The brick mortar joints around the building appear to be in good condition currently. The conditions that were observed primarily pertain to brick control joints and wall mounted accessories. The true vertical control joints overall were observed as in fair condition with little sealant degradation occurring. The bulk of the control joints observed however are of a staggered joint that follows the mortar joints. It is believed that this type of control joint was utilized for the purpose of blending the control joint in with the adjacent mortar joints. The second issue observed pertains to sealant conditions where wall mounted accessories such as hose bibb and fire alarm boxes that penetrate the brick veneer. In some cases, sealant is lacking and needs to be applied. In other cases where sealant exist, the sealant is showing.

b. Repair Scope of Work

Brick veneer repair work is as follows:

- Thoroughly clean brick veneer with a manufacturer approved cleaning agent and cleaning process. Due care is to be taken with high pressure washer or other potentially destructive means.
- In horizontal control joints, remove all existing sealant and backer rods and replace with new.
- In vertical control joints, remove all existing sealant and backer rods and replace with new.
- At all wall mounted devices (Lights, hose bibs, etc) remove all existing sealant. Repair mortar where there is damage. Install new sealant around all devices where service conduit or piping penetrates brick veneer

2. Exterior Insulation and Finish System (EFIS)

a. Existing Conditions

The EIFS (Exterior Insulation and Finish System) which is located at many areas around the building, overall is considered in poor condition. The issues observed consist of gouges, cracking in the surface as well as thinning and fading elastomeric coating. The gouges observed primarily occur on the east and north sides of the building in an area located and are thought to be a result of impact from possibly lawn equipment. This speculation is based on consistent patterns observed in their locations. These patterns consist of the affected areas occurring at the same elevation along the base of the exterior walls where there is minimal area between the EIFS and adjacent trees promoting a tight fit for lawn equipment. Additionally, there are locations where the sealant joint between the EFIS and the concrete slab on grade is 3" in depth, which is not an approved application by the manufacturer. As stated, the overall finish of the EIFS is showing signs of age due to UV exposure, movement, and physical damage. This condition is most prevalent at the top horizontal surfaces of the EIFS windowsills building. In these areas the finish has degraded to a point where the expanded styrene insulation, which makes up the body of the EIFS system is becoming exposed. The exposed expanded polystyrene can receive water. The last issue observed with the EIFS system pertains to the sealant applied at joints between the EIFS system and the adjacent brick veneer. These sealants are showing signs of decay and separation. This includes vertical joints, joints located on both side of the EIFS windowsills and along the base of the EIFS system where sealants have been used to seal between the EIFS system and adjacent concrete walkways and where concrete projects out from the building at grade.

b. Repair Scope of Work

EFIS repair work for areas with gouges in material:

- Around affected areas, squarely cut and remove exterior membrane and polystyrene insulation material.
- Replace removed polystyrene material with new EPS insulation. Bond new EPS insulation to underlying structure and to the polystyrene insulation surrounding the cavity created by the removal of affected materials.
- Apply polyester reinforcement matt over new EPS insulation patch and overlap only surrounding polystyrene insulation.
- Apply base brown coat suitable for the application over repair area.
- Apply elastomeric coating suitable for the application over the brown coat.

EFIS repair work for areas of sealant joints above ground grade:

- For above grade sealant joints, remove existing failed sealant and backer rods in affected joints.
- Replace backer rods and sealant

EFIS repair work for areas of sealant joints which contact concrete slab at ground grade:

- Around the affected areas, squarely cut and remove existing oversized sealant joint and exterior membrane and polystyrene insulation material to allow a 6" minimum working space.
- Install stainless steel metal (L)flashings, tied into the horizontal concrete using a "V" crimp fabricated along the outer edge of the horizontal flange.
- Score vertical concrete structure horizontally and embedded flashing into a saw cut using a high-quality bonding agent.
- Replace removed polystyrene material with new EPS insulation. Bond new EPS insulation to underlying structure and to the polystyrene insulation surrounding the cavity created by the removal of affected materials. Use the flange of the "L" flashing as the bottom form for the new EIFS system.
- Apply polyester reinforcement matt over new EPS insulation patch and overlap only surrounding polystyrene insulation.
- Apply base brown coat suitable for the application over repair area.
- Apply elastomeric coating suitable for the application over the brown coat.

General EFIS restoration beyond repair of damaged areas:

- Thoroughly clean EFIS surface with a manufacturer approved cleaning agent and cleaning process. Due care is to be taken with high pressure washer or other potentially destructive means.
- Spray or roll apply an exterior grade primer layer per manufacturer recommendations.
- Apply elastomeric coating suitable for the application over the primer coat.

3. Glazing and Glass Storefronts

a. Existing Conditions

The store front glass windows which are primarily located on the east and west sides of the building appear to have double paned, insulated glass. These windows are displaying signs of age, consisting of perimeter framing sealants starting to decay as well as formation of condensation showing internally between the double glass panes.

The fixed glass windows, which make up most of the windows around the building, are considered in fair condition. A few issues, primarily pertaining to sealants were observed. The sealants used to seal the perimeter of the window framing are showing signs of age consisting of decay and shrinkage resulting in separation. Many of the windows observed appear to have been wet glazed, which is the application of sealants at the joint between the exterior side of the window glass and the framing. There are a few however where this does not appear to have been performed. These windows are located primarily in wall section areas existing above the primary roof line.

b. Repair Scope of Work

Repair work for Store Front Glass:

- Thoroughly clean store front system with a manufacturer approved cleaning agent and cleaning process. Due care is to be taken with high pressure washer or other potentially destructive means.
- Remove and replace existing window sealants from around windows and from exterior joints between window glass and aluminum framing.
- At locations where condensation appears, remove and replace the existing glass panels and sealants replace with new.

Repair work for Fixed Glass Windows:

- Thoroughly clean window system with a manufacturer approved cleaning agent and cleaning process. Due care is to be taken with high pressure washer or other potentially destructive means.
- Remove and replace existing window sealants from around windows and from exterior joints between window glass and aluminum framing.
- Wet seal window glass to surrounding aluminum frame

4. Exterior Doors

a. Existing Conditions

Non-store front exterior doors are located at various places around the perimeter elevation of the museum complex. These doors generally are either emergency egress pathways or means to enter mechanical or back of house locations. These doors are typically recessed under canopies and are painted to blend with the surrounding surfaces. Apart from the double door exiting onto the roof from the 2nd floor mechanical equipment room housing AHU 2, these doors appear to be in fair to good condition and are only in need of cleaning and routine maintenance.

b. Repair Scope of Work

Exterior door repair or replacement:

- Clean all exterior doors with a low-pressure washer and manufacturer approved cleaning agent.
- Remove and replace existing sealant between the door frame and surrounding wall opening.
- Adjust, repair, or replace door closers and locksets as needed.
- Replace existing double 4'-0" door existing the 2nd floor mechanical equipment room onto the roof at AHU 2. Remove all existing door components including frame and threshold. New door to meet all applicable building and wind codes for the City of Winter Park and State of Florida. Door to be installed with primer finish and then painted with oil-based satin finish paint to blend with surrounding wall area.

3.0 Lighting System Upgrades

LAM Partners LLC were engaged to provide an evaluation of the lighting systems at OMA and to make design recommendations. This system evaluation included interior gallery space lighting and controls, interior non-gallery space lighting and controls, and exterior building and grounds lighting. LAM Partners' full report will be contained in Exhibit B of the final narrative. In the museum environment, lighting is as much an architectural feature as it is an energy consuming system. Lighting is used to illuminate art and exhibits, draw attention to items of special interest, create mood, presence, and atmosphere, build anticipation and excitement as well as to provide for safety and occupant comfort and egress. To this end, LAM Partners, not only evaluated and made recommendations on the lighting as a utility and service, but also made recommendations regarding architectural features within the gallery. However, OMA is currently engaged with an architectural team, who are evaluating the interior and exterior of the complex for planning of a future renovation. As of this report, Trane has no insight into what this future architectural initiative will hold for the facility as it pertains to potential ceiling and interior space alterations and makes commenting on architectural features and improvements impractical. As such, Trane will make recommendations regarding the lighting systems from the perspective that architecturally, the ceilings and spaces will remain as they are currently designed and installed. We will make recommendations regarding acoustical ceiling grid and tiles, but only within the confines of the current footprint and application.

3.1 Gallery Spaces

Within the gallery spaces, the ceiling system can be divided into three categories, Baffle Ceiling, High Acoustical Tile Ceiling, and Low Acoustical Tile Ceiling. Each ceiling system has direct impact on the lighting system application.

1. Baffle Ceiling Area

a. Existing Conditions

The ceiling application consist of a suspended architectural egg-crate baffle system with black painted structure and system services above. The lighting system consist of a surface mounted track system within the recessed groove on the bottom edge of the baffle system. Individual pieces of art are illuminated by incandescent/halogen track heads installed in the recessed track system. Suspended incandescent or CFL cylinder downlights are positioned in the open spaces of the baffle grid. 'Bug-eye' emergency lighting with remote battery packs. Lighting controls are manually controlled through a combination of switch-based contractor controls located in adjacent electrical rooms and diming switches located in various location.

b. Lighting Scope of Work

Remove existing track system from the recessed grooves in the baffle system and replace with museum-grade track system and track heads. Replace downlight cylinders with dimmable LED downlight cylinders. The downlights would be used for general lighting, security lighting, and setup/cleanup lighting, and emergency lighting only, not event lighting. Lighting control to be provided by new architectural building level lighting control system capable of interfacing with the facility Building Automation System (BAS). Gallery track system to be dimmable via dedicated on-board diming control on a fixture by fixture of area basis, via web enabled lighting control package.

2. Acoustical Tile Ceiling Area

a. Existing Conditions

The ceiling application consist largely of a suspended acoustic ceiling tile (ACT) system with inverted waffle-pattern tiles, which are no longer in production. The grid system is a basic 'T' style grid. There is finished drywall ceilings around the perimeter. Some tiles are stained, missing, faded, or damaged and the museum is running low on available replacement tiles. The lighting system consist of surface mounted track on the ACT, typically along the grid lines. There are recessed downlights in center-tile positions.

b. Lighting Scope of Work

Remove and replace the existing ACT ceiling system with a 2'x4' grid pattern and install replica baffle 2'x2' pattern acoustical tiles. Replace all existing track system and track head fixtures with new LED track system. Repair drywall ceiling as needed and paint, color to be coordinated with the museum architect. Lighting control to be provided by new architectural building level lighting control system capable of interfacing with the facility Building Automation System (BAS). Gallery track system to be dimmable via dedicated on-board diming control on a fixture by fixture of area basis, via web enabled lighting control package.

3.2 Non-Gallery Spaces

Non-Gallery spaces encompasses several different functions and associated ceiling and lighting systems. Roughly, the non-gallery spaces can be divided into categories of Public Common Spaces, Retail Spaces, Meeting Rooms, Art Studios, Auditorium, Private Offices, Vaults & Art Storage, Back of House.

1. Public Common Spaces

a. Existing Conditions

The areas comprising the public common spaces include the Entry Hall, Rotunda, Gallery Hall, and Chihuly. These spaces employ suspended ACT systems surrounded by drywall soffits. Recessed downlights provide the main functional lighting in each space. In the Entry Hall/Rotunda there are perimeter custom torchieres with integral uplights meant to wash the ceiling. There is a small PL fluorescent lamp in the bottom of each as well, which makes the bottom lens glow. In the Gallery Hall / Chihuly Exhibit area, there are surface mounted tracks around the perimeter to light the walls. There is a ring of downlights in the soffit around the circular skylight as well as a ring of uplights in the sidewall of the skylight well. Finally, there are surface mounted tracks on the skylight mullions which light the Chihuly. Between these two spaces is a multi-plaque donor wall that is currently illuminated with two lines of halogen / retrofit LED PAR downlights.

b. Lighting Scope of Work

As mentioned in the introduction to Section 3.0 Lighting Systems Upgrades, LAM Partners made several recommendations regarding architectural changes associated with lighting applications. These recommendations will be included in the final Exhibit B, which contains their full report. Trane is in full support of instituting these or similar changes to the architectural spaces within the museum. However, without a coordinated effort with the architectural planning effort underway, defining a vision and direction for these changes would be difficult if not futile. As such, in this narrative, Trane will address the lighting and ceiling systems as they are currently defined within the museum spaces.

- Entry Hall/Rotunda
 - Replace existing downlights with adjustable LED accent downlights
 - Add RGBW cove lighting between radiused ceiling planes

3. Meeting Spaces

a. Existing Conditions

The meeting spaces are located immediately adjacent to the Rotunda. These room offer flexible room configurations as is common in convention spaces, where the space can be one large space or can be divided down to 3 separate meeting rooms via flexible wall partitions. The ceiling system is a combination of drywall soffits around the perimeter with ACT ceiling systems in the center of each meeting space. The lighting system consist of 2'x4' T-8 fluorescent troffer fixtures suspended in the ACT grid and recessed downlights in the drywall soffit areas. The is a dimming system to allow dimming capability of each meeting space.

b. Lighting Scope of Work

The lighting scope of work for the art studio is as follows:

- Replace existing track systems with new Lightolier (non-museum-grade) track and track heads.
- Replace the existing T-8 troffer with new LED door kits.

5. Auditorium

a. Existing Conditions

The Auditorium is located immediately off the Rotunda and Donor Hall. The auditorium has a seating capacity of approximately 250 and provides a source of revenue for the museum as the space is rented to a local church and various community events. The ceiling system is a combination of ACT in the upper ceiling area, drywall bulkheads on the out-board side of the seating and open ceiling with black painted structure and system services above around the perimeter. Lighting is provided by downlights in the upper ACT ceiling and within the open ceiling area around the perimeter. Local dimming control is provided.

b. Lighting Scope of Work

The lighting scope of work for the auditorium is as follows:

- Remove existing ACT ceiling systems and replace with new architectural acoustic baffle system.
- Add new suspended linear slot fixtures between the baffles.
- Add new suspended oval-flood downlight cylinders over the aisles for egress.
- Add new suspended track (in acoustic baffles system) and museum-grade track fixtures.

6. Private Offices/Corridors

a. Existing Conditions

There are private offices on both on the 1st floor and the 2nd floor. The ceiling and lighting system consist of ACT ceiling system with recessed 2x4 T-8 troffer lighting fixtures. There is limited track lighting system on the 2nd floor in the entry lobby and corridors in the executive offices.

b. Lighting Scope of Work

The lighting scope of work for the private offices is as follows:

- Replace surface mounted track with new Lightolier (non-museum-grade) track and track head

7. Vaults and Art Storage

a. Existing Conditions

The ceiling system in the vaults and art storage area is 2x4 acoustical grid. The lighting system consist of pendant hung troffers with T-8 fluorescent fixtures, operated on motion sensors. Some UV-limiting gels may be in use and the use of occupancy sensors should help limit exposure of the art to UV light. However, any exposure to UV does contribute to the overall degradation of fade-able works of art over time.

b. Lighting Scope of Work

The lighting scope of work for the private offices is as follows:

- Retrofit the existing T-8 troffer fixture with new LED door kits.

8. Back of House

a. Existing Conditions

The Back of House spaces include the carpentry shop, the documents storage area, mechanical rooms and electrical rooms. The ceiling systems in these areas are open to the structural pan supporting the 2nd floor slab or roof, depending on location. The lighting system are 4' T-8 fluorescent fixtures.

b. Lighting Scope of Work

The lighting scope of work for the private offices is as follows:

- Retrofit the existing T-8 troffer fixture with new LED driver and bulb

3.3 Exterior Building and Grounds Lighting

Exterior lighting is of vital importance to the success of a modern museum. The exterior lighting illuminates and accents the building and complex to set the theme of any current show or exhibition or to celebrate a season during the year. The exterior lighting highlight banners and signage as a means of public outreach of happenings at the museum. The exterior lighting showcases exterior sculptures and artwork. And exterior lighting provides for safety for the public and museum staff. The exterior lighting systems can broadly be divided into areas of Street-Facing Façade, Entry Plaza and Façade, Building Perimeter, Secondary Entrances, and Site Sculpture.

1. Street Facing Façade

a. Existing Conditions

There are currently 3 layers of lighting on the N Mills Ave. street-facing façade:

- backlit self-illuminated channel letters (for the Museum signage)

- select floodlights used to highlight special event banners directly beneath the signage
- color changing decorative lighting at the architectural 'crown'

The floodlighting currently in use uses legacy sources and it stemmed up in the lawn area, which makes it prone to damage when mowing. The optics in the current floodlight are wide as well. Some more controlled optics would better help to focus the light.

b. Lighting Scope of Work

The lighting scope of work for the exterior street facing facade is as follows:

- The signage lighting, being self-contained, is acceptable to leave as-is. Any future upgrades to the signage can simply incorporate upgrades to the sign itself.
- Replace existing RGB "crown" lighting with marine-grade RGBW LED fixtures, 1 per pocket in the "crown".
- Replace the existing flood lighting with stake-mounted LED wall wash fixtures located close to the façade.

2. Entry Plaza and Facade

a. Existing Conditions

The current entry plaza utilizes decorative/functional lighting poles along the curb, with temporary string lights pulled between the building and the poles. In-grade uplights at the curved rotunda flank the entry doors along the outer façade while the inset soffit contains downlights over each entry door. Similar to the street-facing façade 'crown', a similar color-changing detail is used at the rotunda 'crown'. Some limited landscape and fountain lighting is present but in a state of disrepair/damage.

b. Lighting Scope of Work

The lighting scope of work for the entry plaza and facade is as follows:

- Replace existing RGB 'crown' lighting with marine-grade RGBW fixtures, 1 per pocket.
- Replace in-grade uplights and Rotunda perimeter columns with new RGBW in grade uplights.
- Replace existing pole lights with new multi-function 20' poles, equipped with:
 - anchor points for a new catenary system overhanging the plaza space
 - new adjustable RGBW flood fixtures with snoots for special events
 - new adjustable white-light flood fixtures to illuminate the drop-off lane
 - new adjustable white -light spot fixture to highlight any sculpture in the plaza
- Replace existing landscape lighting with new stake-mount marine-grade tree uplights.
- Replace existing fountain lighting with new RGBW underwater fixtures.
- Replace downlights in the Rotunda soffit above the entry doors.

3. Building Perimeter

a. Existing Conditions

Lighting around the perimeter of the building, in areas away from doors and the aforementioned façade areas is very limited or non-existent. At least one solar powered flood light has been installed on the south, lawn-facing side of the building as a security measure.

b. Lighting Scope of Work

The lighting scope of work for the building perimeter is as follows:

- Add new wall-mounted downlight-only sconces or flood fixtures to illuminate the building perimeter and around emergency egress exits.
- Add new tree uplights along the south lawn-facing façade of the building to provide a backdrop for the lawn and to subtly illuminate the perimeter of the property.
- Add new tree uplights along the north façade of the building to mask the view of the adjacent mechanical yard from the street.

4. Secondary Entrances

a. Existing Conditions

Nearly all the secondary service entrances and all of the emergency exits have some lighting provided. At egress doors, recessed legacy-source downlights in the soffits should provide adequate security and safety lighting in an emergency. The loading dock has lighting both in the covered dock itself and over the door. There are also a few wallpacks in the yard adjacent to the dock. There is one service door to the north of the main entrance plaza that has no exterior lighting that could possibly benefit from added light. That service door also conceals the main building switchgear and better lighting to facilitate emergency access would be beneficial. Additionally, as the service door is set into the façade adjacent to the main entry plaza, a bit of façade lighting could help to enhance the overall appearance of the building as viewed from the parking lot.

b. Lighting Scope of Work

The lighting scope of work for the secondary entrances is as follows:

- Replace existing downlights at emergency egress points with new LED downlights.
- Add new downlight-only LED sconces at the mechanical yard.
- Add new wall-mounted sconces along the façade adjacent and to the north of the entry plaza and replace those at the loading dock area.

5. Site Sculptures

a. Existing Conditions

There are 4 large-scale pieces of sculpture on the site – two in the entry plaza and two in the lawn areas. The pieces in the lawn are currently illuminated from several stem-up flood lights set back in the lawn and positioned around each base. Some of the fixtures are functional and some are not. The sculptures in the entry plaza, set on the paved surface, are currently unlit.

b. Lighting Scope of Work

The lighting scope of work for the site sculptures is as follows:

- Replace and reposition existing legacy-source flood fixtures with marine-grade stake mount adjustable LED flood fixtures at each sculpture.
- Add custom metal shrouds around each uplight to protect fixtures and to block views of and glare from said fixtures.

4.0 HVAC/Electrical System Upgrades

Air systems for OMA are divided into two broad categories of “Gallery Spaces” and “Non-Gallery Spaces” for the purpose of this narrative and for project execution. “Gallery Spaces” units are considered critical spaces and will be configured and controlled accordingly. “Non-Gallery Spaces” are considered non-critical spaces and will be configured as typical comfort cooling/heating applications.

Gallery space air systems are identified as the following systems:

- AHU-1/OAU-1
- AHU-2/OAU-2
- AHU-5/OAU-3
- AHU-6/OAU-1
- AHU-9
- AHU-10

These systems are currently configured as constant volume AHUs with chilled water-cooling coils. AHU-1, AHU-2, AHU-5, and AHU-6 are configured as multizone systems, with face and bypass damper assemblies within the AHU and downstream reheat HHW zone coils and controls. Gallery space zones are also equipped with dry steam point of use humidifiers downstream from the HHW zone coils. Dry steam humidifiers are local control only, while reheat HHW coils are BAS controlled. These units are also equipped with dedicated outside air system to precondition outside air prior to entry into the air handling system. The dedicated outside air systems are equipped with pre-HHW coil, cooling coil, and reheat HHW coil. AHU-9 and AHU-10 have heating hot water (HHW) coils located in the AHUs and have no downstream zone control.

Non-Gallery space air systems are identified as the following systems:

- AHU-3
- AHU-4

- AHU-7
- AHU-8
- AHU-11
- AHU-RR

The configuration of these systems varies based on location and application. See table 4.1 AHU Systems Schedule for additional details on unit location, configuration, and areas served.

4.2 Air System Modifications – Gallery Spaces

Air system upgrades for Gallery Space will be characterized as a “Good”, “Better”, and “Best” approach, to allow for incremental cost/benefit analysis on the part of the owner. The “Good” option will focus on system controls, functionality of existing system configuration, and achieving significant energy savings through system modifications. The “Better” option will include the system improvements contemplated in the “Good” option plus additional system configuration modification to bring existing systems and components into as close compliance to the latest museum design standards as possible without complete system replacement. The “Best” option will include complete system replacements as necessary to bring system configuration into compliance with the latest museum critical space design criteria. Exceptions and additions for specific air systems will be noted as need to address any non-standard system applications.

1. “Good” System Modifications

a. AHU Refurbishment

This scope will be applied to AHU 1, 2, 5, and 6 and OAU 1, 2 and 3. AHU 9, 10, and RR will be addressed separately. Units will be repaired and refurbished as follows:

- Sand and grind the interior and exterior surfaces of (9) AHUs and (2) OAUs to remove corrosion and create adhesion for the coating system
- Interior surfaces to include walls, ceilings, floors, fan housing, drain pans and fan section framework.
- Install new coated chilled water coils provided by Trane
- Coils to be coated to reduce future corrosion
- Clean and coat filter racks
- Repair and/or provide new drain pans as required
- Dampers will be cleaned (not coated)
- Provide and install new insulation on the interior of air handlers if applicable
- Replace corroded sheet metal where necessary
- Units will be painted with rust penetrating primer
- Units will be painted with a final top coating
- Excludes providing new AHU support springs
- 1 year warranty on the coil is included
- 3 year warranty on the refurbishment is included

b. AHU Replacement

This scope will be applied to AHU 9, 10, and RR. AHU 9 and 10 are located in the architectural doghouse, which is located on the roof above the Crawford Gallery. They were installed in the 1967 renovation, where the roof top heat pump system from original construction was replaced with a chilled water system. The areas served by these units has been revised due to subsequent renovations at the Museum and their connected load is significantly less than the original design. Currently, this units serve only the Crawford Gallery and a portion of the Clive Gallery. These units are located within a confined space, where proper service is impossible, and access is very difficult. This predicates the need to relocate them out of the doghouse and onto the adjacent roof as a new roof top (RTU) application. Due to the resigned connected load, it will be possible to combine these units into a single AHU, which will reduce both construction cost and maintenance cost.

AHU RR is installed within the men's restroom, on the 1st floor adjacent to the Clive Gallery, behind the customer service desk. This unit is installed in an architectural void accessed by removing the paper towel dispenser. The unit is ceiling hung, cooling only unit which serves the men's and women's restrooms and the adjacent storage and services spaces. It will be possible to remove this unit from the system and support the cooling/heating load of these space from the new roof top unit will be installed adjacent to the doghouse.

The installation scope of work is as follows:

- Disconnect existing chilled water and hot water piping from the existing units. Demo pipe as necessary for existing unit removal and for providing chilled water services to the new RTU.
- Demo and remove existing ductwork within the confined space on the lower level of the doghouse.
- Disconnect existing electrical service from exiting units and remove existing power conduit and wire to the electrical panel.
- Demo and remove the existing AHUs in their entirety.
- Provide and install a new structural support rack, which will be mechanically bonded to the structural roof system. Installation will be coordinated with the ongoing roofing project to allow proper installation of pitch pans and pipe/conduit sleeving.
- Provide and install new Trane Performance Climate Changer (PCC) RTU size to support the combined total load of AHU 9, 10, and RR. Unit to be chilled water application with four (4) unit fan wall with variable frequency drives (VFD) to allow the unit to modulate supply fan capacity to meet load conditions. Unit filtration will be MERV 13. Structural support and tie down to per local code.
- Install four (4) new Trane variable air volume zone (VAV) boxes within the upper level of the doghouse space as described. Units will be configured with zone heating hot water (HHW) coils, zone supply air control damper, and factory installed Trane building automation system (BAS) controller and input/output devices. Two (2) boxes will be installed in the ductwork system for AHU 9, serving either side of the Crawford Gallery. One (1) box will be installed in the ductwork system for AHU 10, service the Clive Gallery. One (1) box will be installed within the upper level of the doghouse and connected to the ductwork system associated with AHU RR.
- Install new ductwork system from the new Trane PCC RTU into the upper level of the doghouse space. New ductwork to be double walled metal ductwork with encapsulated insulation on the exterior of the system. Ductwork within the doghouse will be metal with external insulation wrap. Ductwork will be provided for both supply and return air systems. Provide structural roof stands as necessary to support the ductwork. Ductwork will be routed through the wood framed roof structure for both supply and return. Ductwork penetrations will be sleeved with galvanized metal sleeves and will be properly flashed to prevent roof leaks and water penetration. This work will be coordinated with the ongoing roofing project to allow for proper installation.

- Connect new supply air ductwork to the new VAV boxes within the doghouse upper level. Connect the new return air ductwork to the existing return air ductwork within the doghouse upper level.
- Provide and install new supply air and return air ductwork from the doghouse to the existing ductwork system for AHU RR. New ductwork to be metal with external insulation wrap.
- Install new system CHW and HHW from existing doghouse service to new RTU location. In interior spaces, the new piping is to be wrapped with 2" foamglass insulation, with mastic joints, paper wrapped straight lengths and PVC wrapped corners. In exterior applications, the new piping is to be wrapped with 2" foamglass insulation with mastic joints and aluminum jacketing. Provide directional labeling per MCA for all new system piping.
- BAS requirements will be addressed in a separate section, but in general add BAS devices to control the AHU and VAV box for each area served by the system. Add BAS programming to provide control of the zone supply air flow, supply air temperature, and space humidity to add or reduce capacity based on space conditioning needs.

2. "Better" System Modifications

a. AHU Refurbishment

The AHU Refurbishment scope of work for the "Better" system modification option will include all of the scope of work anticipated for the "Good" system modification option, plus the following additions. The "Better" System modifications will include supply air fan (SAF) modifications for AHU 1, 2, 5, and 6, which are constant volume face and bypass multi-zone systems. Currently, the unit SAFs are single motor units connected by a shaft to a single air foil centrifugal fan operating on a constant volume configuration. Electrically, the motors are controlled through a line voltage electrical motor starter. These units will be modified to include fan wall applications with VFD SAF control.

This installation scope of work is as follows:

- Electrically disconnect units from the SAF motor starter and remove motor starter
- Remove existing SAF motor.
- Remove existing SAF fan, shaft assembly and motor/fan frame.
- Install new fan wall bracket assembly and seal around bracket assembly to prevent air leakage.
- Install new plug fan assemblies within the fan bracket assembly. Fan configurations will be 4 to 6 fans, depending on unit size.
- Install new Variable Frequency Drive in place of the existing AHU SAF motor starter. Electrically connect new VFD to the new fan wall SAFs.
- BAS requirements will be addressed in a separate section, but in general add BAS devices to control the AHU supply fan array for each system. Add BAS programming to provide control of the unit supply air flow, supply air temperature, and space humidity to add or reduce capacity based on space conditioning needs

b. AHU Replacement

The AHU Replacement scope of work for the “Better” system modification option will be the same as for the “Good” system modification option.

c. AHU System Configuration Modifications

System configuration modifications included in the “Better” system option will include conversion of the multizone face and bypass application for AHU 1, 2, 5, and 6 and associated outdoor air units to a variable volume system application. This will allow for reduced fan energy consumption and will allow the system capacity to vary as load requirements vary, thus improving energy performance. This system will also allow for more precise space temperature and humidity control, which will enhance the system performance for preservation of the art and artifacts contained in the galleries and vaults. Additionally, conversion of the OAU to energy recovery units will allow the use of previously conditioned space air to pre-condition incoming outside air before being exhausted to the atmosphere. This will further allow modification of outside air intake and system exhaust to allow ventilation to meet the variable occupancy needs of the galleries.

The AHU installation scope of work is as follows:

- Remove the existing mixing box and face and bypass damper section on the AHU.
- Remove the existing low-pressure ductwork from the AHU to the location of the zone reheat coil for each zone.
- Remove the existing zone reheat coil for each zone.
- Remove the existing dry steam humidifier for each zone.
- Install new medium pressure discharge plenum box on AHU supply section, in place of the removed face and bypass damper section.
- Install new Trane variable air volume zone (VAV) boxes. Units will be configured with zone heating hot water (HHW) coils, zone supply air control damper, and factory installed Trane building automation system (BAS) controller and input/output devices.
- Install new medium pressure ductwork from new discharge plenum to each zone VAV box location.
- Reconnect HHW to new VAV box and re-insulate pipe to match existing.
- Install new Trane provided dry steam humidifier for each zone where unit previously existed.
- All new ductwork will be medium pressure sheetmetal ductwork with external insulation wrap. Repair existing insulation as necessary to match existing.
- BAS requirements will be addressed in a separate section, but in general add BAS devices to control the VAV box for each gallery area served by the system. Add BAS programming to provide control of the zone supply air flow, supply air temperature, and space humidity to add or reduce capacity based on space conditioning needs.

The OAU installation scope of work is as follows:

- Remove the existing OAU units from within each mechanical equipment room (MER).
- Remove existing RA duct exhaust fan from ductwork system.
- Install new roof curb on the roof structure above the MER for new energy recovery ventilator unit (ERV) to be installed. Installation will be coordinated with the ongoing roofing project to allow proper installation of pitch pans and pipe/conduit sleeving.
- Remove the existing motor-starters for the OAU unit and return air duct exhaust fans.

- Remove existing system ductwork as needed for new installation. Install new system exhaust ductwork through new roof curb to provide system return air to new ERV. Install new system OA supply ductwork from existing AHU mixed air plenum to new roof curb to provide system OA to AHU.
- Install new ERV on new roof curb and connect HHW, CHW, electrical service and ductwork to new unit. Structural support and tie down to per local code.
- BAS requirements will be addressed in a separate section, but in general add BAS devices to measure space CO₂ in each gallery area served by the system. Add BAS programming to provide control of the ERV to add or reduce capacity based on space ventilation needs.

3. “Best” System Modifications

a. AHU Refurbishment

There will be no AHU Refurbishment scope included in the “Best” system option for the Gallery Airside Systems.

b. AHU Replacement

The AHU Replacement scope of work for AHU 9, 10, and RR included for the “Best” system modification option will be the same as for the “Good” system modification option.

This AHU Replacement scope will additionally be applied to gallery units AHU 1, 2, 5, and 6 and their associated OAUs. The existing AHUs will be replaced with new Trane Performance Climate Changer (PCC) units. These units will be configured with fan walls of 4 to 6 fans, depending on unit size. This will enhance system controls, reduce energy consumption, and allow for system redundancy in the event of fan failure for these critical spaces. The units will be configured with split 1/3, 2/3 chilled water coils to allow more precise part load control for when the gallery spaces are largely unoccupied. The units will be configured with a fix plate energy recovery module within the AHU, which will allow the use of exhaust air to pre-condition incoming outside air prior to being exhausted to the atmosphere. This will further allow modification of outside air intake and system exhaust to allow ventilation to meet the variable occupancy needs of the galleries without the need to install a rooftop ERV as was included in the “Better” system option.

The installation scope of work is as follows:

- Disconnect existing chilled water and hot water piping from the existing units. Demo pipe as necessary for existing unit removal and for providing chilled water services to the new AHU.
- Disconnect existing electrical service from exiting units and remove existing power conduit and wire to the electrical panel.
- Demo and remove the existing AHUs in their entirety.
- Modify existing housekeep pad to proper position and set new PCC AHU.
- Provide and install new Trane PCC AHU. Unit to be chilled water application with four (4) to six (6) unit fan wall with variable frequency drives (VFD) to allow the unit to modulate supply fan capacity to meet load conditions. Unit filtration will be MERV 13. Structural support and tie down to per local code.
- Remove existing system ductwork as needed for new installation. Install new system exhaust ductwork fix plate heat exchange module to provide react air to new energy recovery module. Install new system OA supply ductwork from existing OAU intake to fix plate heat exchange module to provide system outside air to unit.
- Connect new supply air ductwork to the new VAV boxes within the MER. Connect the new return air ductwork to the existing return air ductwork within the MER. New ductwork to be metal with external insulation wrap.
- Install new system CHW and HHW from existing unit service to new AHU location. In interior spaces, the new piping is to be wrapped with 2” foamglass insulation, with mastic joints, paper wrapped straight lengths and PVC wrapped corners. Provide directional labeling per MCA for all new system piping.
- BAS requirements will be addressed in a separate section, but in general add BAS devices to control the AHU and VAV box for each area served by the system. Add BAS programming to provide control of the zone supply air flow, supply air temperature, and space humidity to add or reduce capacity based on space conditioning needs.

c. AHU System Configuration Modifications

System configuration modifications included in the “Best” system option will include system modification included in the “Better” option with regard to ductwork modifications and VAV box installation. AHU modifications will be accomplished with the provision of a new AHU, as described above.

The ductwork modification scope of work is as follows:

- Remove the existing low-pressure ductwork from the AHU to the location of the zone reheat coil for each zone.

- Remove the existing zone reheat coil for each zone.
- Remove the existing dry steam humidifier for each zone.
- Install new medium pressure discharge plenum box on AHU supply section.
- Install new Trane variable air volume zone (VAV) boxes. Units will be configured with zone heating hot water (HHW) coils, zone supply air control damper, and factory installed Trane building automation system (BAS) controller and input/output devices.
- Install new medium pressure ductwork from new discharge plenum to each zone VAV box location.
- Reconnect HHW to new VAV box and re-insulate pipe to match existing.
- Install new Trane provided dry steam humidifier for each zone where unit previously existed.
- All new ductwork will be medium pressure Sheetmetal ductwork with external insulation wrap. Repair existing insulation as necessary to match existing.
- BAS requirements will be addressed in a separate section, but in general add BAS devices to control the VAV box for each gallery area served by the system. Add BAS programming to provide control of the zone supply air flow, supply air temperature, and space humidity to add or reduce capacity based on space conditioning needs.

4.3 Air System Modifications – Non-Gallery Spaces

Air system upgrades for Non-Gallery Space will be characterized as a “Good”, “Better” and “Best” approach, to allow for incremental cost/benefit analysis on the part of the owner. The “Good” option will focus on system controls, functionality of existing system configuration, and achieving significant energy savings through system modifications. The “Better” option will include the system improvements contemplated in the “Good” option plus additional system configuration modification to bring existing systems and components into as close compliance to the latest museum design standards as possible without complete system replacement. The “Best” option will include complete system replacements as necessary to bring system configuration into compliance with the latest HVAC design criteria. Exceptions and additions for specific air systems will be noted as need to address any non-standard system applications.

1. “Good” System Modifications

a. AHU Refurbishment

This scope will be applied to AHU 3, 4, 7, 8, and 11. Units will be repaired and refurbished as follows:

- Sand and grind the interior and exterior surfaces of (9) AHUs and (2) OAUs to remove corrosion and create adhesion for the coating system
- Interior surfaces to include walls, ceilings, floors, fan housing, drain pans and fan section framework.
- Install new coated chilled water coils provided by Trane
- Coils to be coated to reduce future corrosion
- Clean and coat filter racks

- Repair and/or provide new drain pans as required
- Dampers will be cleaned (not coated)
- Provide and install new insulation on the interior of air handlers if applicable
- Replace corroded sheet metal where necessary
- Units will be painted with rust penetrating primer
- Units will be painted with a final top coating
- Excludes providing new AHU support springs
- 1 year warranty on the coil is included
- 3 year warranty on the refurbishment is included

b. AHU System Configuration Modifications

System configuration modifications included in the “Good” system option will include replacement of VAV boxes for AHU 4 in the Art Education department. The existing zone boxes are proprietary to the Carrier system and are under local control only. These boxes utilize an outdated plunger style zone damper that is not compatible with any BAS based VAV box controller in the market, Trane or otherwise. Additionally, the AHU 4 system is configured as a variable air distribution system supply by a constant volume AHU. To accomplish this, a bypass duct is connected from the system supply to system return ductwork to allow bypass air to be diverted from the supply to the return, controlled by a similar proprietary plunger style damper. This control approach maintains a constant supply fan air flow, which consumes excess energy during low load conditions. The new system configuration will convert the system to a true VAV application with variable speed supply air fan, elimination of bypass ductwork and control of new industry standard VAV boxes.

The installation scope of work will include the following:

- Remove the existing proprietary VAV boxes.
- Remove the existing bypass ductwork and associated control box.
- Remove existing AHU motor-starter.
- Install new Trane variable air volume zone (VAV) boxes. Units will be configured cooling only, with zone supply air control damper, and factory installed Trane building automation system (BAS) controller and input/output devices.
- Install new ductwork as necessary to install new boxes. Patch holes and penetrations in existing ductwork and repair insulation to match existing.
- Install new Trane VFD for AHU supply fan control.
- BAS requirements will be addressed in a separate section, but in general add BAS devices to control the VAV box served by the system. Add BAS programming to provide control of the zone supply air flow and supply air temperature to add or reduce capacity based on space conditioning needs.

An additional system configuration modification included in the “Good” system option will include the conversion of existing constant volume AHUs to single zone VAV applications. This will apply to AHU 3 in the Carpentry Shop and AHU 11 in the Auditorium. Currently these systems utilize a constant volume supply fan, regardless of load conditions in the space, and modulate CHW supply and HHW supply to maintain unit discharge conditions. By modifying the supply fan operations to variable volume, the unit total output can be modulated to match space load demands and reduce the use of excess supply fan energy.

The installation scope of work will include the following:

- Remove existing AHU motor-starter.
- Install new Trane VFD for AHU supply fan control.
- BAS requirements will be addressed in a separate section, but in general add BAS devices to control the supply air fans serving the system. Add BAS programming to provide control of the unit supply air flow to match space demand. Modulate supply air temperature to add or reduce capacity based on space conditioning needs.

An additional system configuration modification included in the “Good” system option will include the installation of BAS automated controls on the existing locally controlled VAV boxes for AHU 7 and 8. If you refer to the table in section 4.1, the majority of the VAV boxes supporting AHU 7 and 8 are not part of the existing Niagara based BAS. These units operate strictly by local electro/mechanical thermostats and provide on data or communications to the BAS to allow optimized operations of the system. The existing local VAV boxes were manufactured by Envirotec and are compatible with most industry standard BAS VAV box zone controllers and applications, including the Trane BAS. Therefore, VAV box replacement will not be necessary. The existing local controller will be replaced with a Trane BAS VAV box controller, unitizing the existing power supply and damper. The existing damper actuator will be replaced with a compatible Trane actuator. This will allow the system to collect data from each VAV box for system optimization and will allow the individual zones to be incorporated into the new BAS and participate in all the functionality including graphics, trend data, remote access, and critical alarming.

The installation scope of work will include the following:

- Remove existing local VAV box controller and zone thermostat.
- Remove the existing rotational zone damper actuator.
- Install new Trane BAS VAV box application controller, utilize existing box power supply.
- Install new Trane damper actuator.
- Connect Trane BAS VAV box controller to existing supply air velocity probe and calibrate airflow readings.
- Connect Trane BAS VAV box controller to new zone damper actuator.
- Install new Trane wireless zone temperature sensor

2. “Better” System Modifications

a. AHU Refurbishment

The AHU Refurbishment scope of work for the “Better” system modification option will include all of the scope of work anticipated for the for the “Good” system modification option, plus the following additions. The “Better” System modifications will include supply air fan (SAF) modifications for AHU 7 and 8, which are variable volume systems. Currently, the unit SAFs are single motor units connected by a shaft to a single air foil centrifugal fan operating on a variable volume configuration based on duct static pressure. These units will be modified to include fan wall applications with VFD SAF control.

This installation scope of work is as follows:

- Electrically disconnect units from the SAF motor starter and remove existing VFD.
- Remove existing SAF motor.
- Remove existing SAF fan, shaft assembly and motor/fan frame.
- Install new fan wall bracket assembly and seal around bracket assembly to prevent air leakage.
- Install new plug fan assemblies within the fan bracket assembly. Fan configurations will be 4 to 6 fans, depending on unit size.
- Install new Variable Frequency Drive in place of the existing AHU SAF motor starter. Electrically connect new VFD to the new fan wall SAFs.
- BAS requirements will be addressed in a separate section, but in general add BAS devices to control the AHU supply fan array for each system. Add BAS programming to provide control of the unit supply air flow, supply air temperature, and space humidity to add or reduce capacity based on space conditioning needs

b. AHU System Configuration Modifications

System configuration modifications included in the “Better” are the same as those included in the “Good” option above.

3. “Best” System Modifications

a. AHU Refurbishment

The AHU Refurbishment scope of work for the “Best” system modification option will include all of the scope of work anticipated for the for the “Better” system modification option except for units included in the AHU Replacement scope.

b. AHU Replacement

The AHU Replacement scope of work for AHU 7 is included for the “Best” system modification option. AHU 7 shows significant deterioration in the unit housing, drain pan, and chilled water coils. While AHU 7 is a viable candidate for refurbishment, the unit application remains complicated by the vastness of the area served by the unit. AHU 7 serves all of the 2nd floor executive suite and a large portion of the 1st floor non-gallery area, see the table in section 4.1 for details. System performance is further complicated due to use of a plenum return application, where return air paths are obstructed by above ceiling structures such as ductwork, VAV boxes, electrical conduit and lighting fixtures.

System performance and control could be greatly enhanced by splitting AHU 7 into two separate smaller units to allow separated conditioning for the 1st floor and the 2nd floor spaces. The units would remain as variable volume applications. The new units will be configured with split 1/3, 2/3 chilled water coils to allow more precise part load control for when the spaces are largely unoccupied. The new AHU 7 will be sized and configured for the 2nd floor executive offices only. The new AHU for the 1st floor space will be designated as AHU 12 for the purpose of this document and will be located in the 1st floor plenum in the hallway outside of the art studios.

The installation scope of work is as follows:

- Disconnect existing chilled water and hot water piping from the existing unit. Demo pipe as necessary for existing unit removal and for providing chilled water services to the new AHU.
- Disconnect existing electrical service from exiting units and remove existing power conduit and wire to the electrical panel.
- Remove existing system ductwork as needed for new installation.
- Demo and remove the existing AHU in their entirety.
- Modify existing housekeep pad to proper position and set new PCC AHU.
- Within the existing 2nd floor MER, provide and install new Trane PCC AHU size for new AHU 7 load. Unit to be chilled water/hot water application with four (4) to six (6) unit fan wall with variable frequency drives (VFD) to allow the unit to modulate supply fan capacity to meet load conditions. Unit filtration will be MERV 13. Structural support and tie down to per local code.
- Connect new supply air ductwork to the new unit within the MER. New ductwork to be metal with external insulation wrap. Return air is a room plenum return. Install new plenum box to ceiling level to promote system hygiene.
- Install new system CHW and HHW from existing unit service to new AHU, including new chilled water control and hot water control valves. In interior spaces, the new piping is to be wrapped with 2" foamglass insulation, with mastic joints, paper wrapped straight lengths and PVC wrapped corners. Provide directional labeling per MCA for all new system piping.
- Within the existing 1st floor ceiling above 1st floor hall at art studio, provide and install new Trane PCC AHU size for new AHU 12 load. Unit to be chilled water/hot water application with four (4) to six (6) unit fan wall with variable frequency drives (VFD) to allow the unit to modulate supply fan capacity to meet load conditions. Unit filtration will be MERV 13. Unit to be supported from the existing roof structure. Structural support and tie down to per local code.
- Provide new chilled water and hot water piping. Hot water piping source is available in the art studio hallway. Chiller water piping source is available at the chilled water riser entering the building from the chiller plant on the north side of the building. In interior spaces, the new piping is to be wrapped with 2"

- foamglass insulation, with mastic joints, paper wrapped straight lengths and PVC wrapped corners. Provide directional labeling per MCA for all new system piping.
- Provide condensate pump at unit and pipe condensate to the exterior of the building.
 - Connect new supply air ductwork to the new unit at the point where the existing AHU 7 supply air ductwork penetrates from the 2nd floor to the 1st floor. Existing ductwork is 24" round, new ductwork to match. New ductwork to be metal with external insulation wrap. Return air is to be a plenum return. Install new plenum box to ceiling level to promote system hygiene.
 - Provide new electrical service from the main switchgear in the kitchen sallyport on the west side of facility. Install new electrical breaker to match system load requirements. Run new conduit and wire from main switchgear to new Unit 12 location.
 - Install new Trane VFD to provide supply fan control for new AHU 12. Electrically connect to supply and demand side wiring to provide completed system.
 - BAS requirements will be addressed in a separate section, but in general add BAS devices to control the AHU and VAV box for each area served by the system. Add BAS programming to provide control of the zone supply air flow, supply air temperature, and space humidity to add or reduce capacity based on space conditioning needs. New Trane PCC will be provided with factory installed control devices and BAS controller.

4.4 Electrical System Upgrades – Facility Wide Emergency Power

The utility electrical service which supplies electrical power to the OMA facility is a typical commercial building application. A primary transformer, which is owned and maintained by OUC, is sited on the north perimeter of the property along East Rollins Street. Primary power is supplied to the transformer, typically at 13.2kva, which is then stepped down to the secondary building level voltage, which is 480v, 3 phase for OMA. The secondary feeds exit the transformer underground and run to the building primary switchgear, which is in the electrical room off of the kitchen sally port on the west side of the facility. Upon entering the main switchgear, power is terminated on a main breaker, which provides whole building overload protection, and then distributes to various loads within the building, either directly or through additional step-down transformers.

The initial system design did not include any means for providing emergency power to the facility, in the event OUC lost the primary electrical feed due to a service outage, which could happen during inclement weather or due to utility equipment failure. After the initial design and installation of the electrical system for the facility, the system was modified to allow a limited means of providing emergency power to the museum. This approach included providing a dedicated standby generator breaker in the main electrical switchgear and service taps to the exterior of the switchgear cabinet. In this configuration, in the event of a utility power failure, the main switchgear breaker must be unlocked and switch "off", to disconnect the building from the incoming utility power secondary feeds. A mobile standby generator must be secured and delivered to the driveway outside the kitchen sally port and electrically connected with free run cabling to the generator service taps located on the outside of the main switchgear cabinet. Once the generator is connected and started up, the dedicated generator breaker must be unlocked and switched “on”, effectively connecting the generator service taps to energize the main switchgear bus by back feeding through the dedicated generator breaker. This configuration limited by the availability of a rental generator, availability of diesel fuel in a potential time of crisis, the size of the dedicated generator breaker and electrical service cabling and allows for “survival” level operation of the facility only. Loads within the museum must be manually switched “off” at breakers to limit amount of electrical load which can be applied to the standby generator, to not overload the dedicated generator breaker or the generator itself. This is a very labor-intensive process and requires facilities staff to have full awareness of dynamics of the application during a stressful event of loss of utility power. Additionally, this approach to providing emergency power is not consistent with the latest design standard for critical museum spaces.

A modern standby power system compliant with the current design standards for critical museum spaces will include a permanently installed standby generator, an automatic transfer switch, and emergency or essential power service to the facility. The generator would contain a minimum of 3 days (72 hours) of fuel contained within the generator equipment skid, to minimize fuel supply concerns. The automatic transfer switch would continuously monitor incoming electrical utility service and in the event of a loss of utility power, the system would start the generator, validate proper unit operation, and switch the building load to the generator, all without any human intervention or need for facility staff to be present.

In a new construction application, the building electrical loads would be segregated into “essential” and “non-essential” loads, in order minimize the capacity requirements of the backup generator system. During normal utility operations, both essential and non-essential loads would be operated from the normal power system distribution system. In the event of loss of utility power and initiation of emergency generator operations, only the essential power loads would be connected to the generator system. Non-essential loads would be dormant and non-operational until the restoration of utility power. To accomplish this functionality, the facility electrical system would be divided into essential and non-essential busses and dedicated power services distributed throughout the facility for both forms of electrical service. Additionally, during the design process, a decision matrix would be created to define what electrical loads are essential and what loads are non-essential. An example of this decision matrix would be in a chiller plant with multiple chillers and pumps, where a limited number of chillers and pumps would be connected to the essential power service to allow limited cooling capacity and the balance would be connected to non-essential power service. So that, in the event of a loss of utility power, the equipment connected to the essential power service would be operational while the balance would be dormant until the restoration of utility power. The same decision matrix process would apply to air systems, lighting systems, elevator systems, to name just a few.

As stated, this afore outlined system approach is typical for new construction application, where installation of complete electrical service is contemplated in the cost of construction. In this way, there is no duplication of equipment or labor during the installation process and the size of the emergency generator, automatic transfer switch, and essential electrical switchgear can be limited by the electrical load identified during the decision matrix process. However, in a retrofit application, as is anticipated at OMA, segregated approach can become quite complicated and cost prohibitive. The complete electrical distribution system is in place with no division between essential and non-essential services. To provide such a segregated approach, a completely new switch gear section with automated transfer switch must be installed, which at OMA is very space limited in the sally port electrical room. Additionally, from the new essential switchgear, new electrical distribution has to be run throughout the building to parallel the exiting electrical distribution to provide essential breaker panels co-located where any existing electrical panels are located. Then, electrical loads which have been deemed essential must be re-wired from the existing electrical panel to the new essential electrical panel.

A more cost-effective approach for an emergency power retrofit application such as OMA is to take a whole building approach, where the entire facility is considered essential load. This would eliminate the need to introduce new switchgear into the building electrical system or to run a parallel electrical distribution system throughout the building for division of essential and non-essential loads. Work would be limited to the outside of the building associated with the generator and automatic transfer switch installation and connection to the existing utility secondary power feed. This eliminates a significant cost associated with labor and materials within the facility but does require the installation of a much larger generator.

Specific to OMA, the scope of work associated with this whole building approach would be as follows:

- Removal of the existing bicycle parking and associated sidewalks and pads. Bicycle parking will be relocated to the sidewalk running down the west side of the building.
- Remove existing vegetation and trees necessary for installation of concrete pads to support installation of standby generator and automatic transfer (ATS) switch skid. Where feasible, trees to be relocated to other areas of the OMA property. Where not feasible, replacement trees to be planted on the OMA property in compliance with local landscaping codes.
- Sprinkler systems to be capped outside the area of construction to allow continued system operation during construction. Sprinkler system to be re-installed around new emergency generator pad area upon completion of construction.
- Excavate, backfill, and compact pad area as required by local codes to meet nuclear density test standards.
- Form and pour new concrete pad for emergency generator and automatic transfer switch skid.
- Install generator/ATS pad brick screen wall around 3 sides of pad installation. Provide decorative metal gate on parking lot side of pad, to allow for maintenance access and service.
- Excavate and run new secondary power feed from existing utility power transformer to new ATS. Power interruptions to be coordinated with OUC and with OMA staff.
- Set new emergency generator and ATS equipment skids. Structural tie down to be per local and State codes for uplift and wind load.
- Connect electrical system to new generator and ATS equipment skids, per local codes and manufacturer guidelines.
- Connect generator and ATS equipment to new Trane BAS to allow for full monitoring of emergency generator/ATS operations through the automation system functionality.

- Perform complete commissioning and start up of generator/ATS system, per manufacturer recommendations. Load test completed system with full museum electrical load to insure full functionality. Utility power interruptions to be coordinated with OUC.
- Restore area sidewalks, irrigation, and planting beds to match existing upon completion of construction operations.

These new abilities allow for the safe and secure expansion of the systems out into the world of IOT (Internet Of Things). Our world is becoming ever more connected. Billions of intelligent devices and machines generate massive amounts of data, creating a bridge between real and virtual worlds. Turning these vast amounts of data into value is a key factor for success.

Utilization of our Trane Tracer® SC+ & Synchrony™ Control System based Building Automation System (BAS) complete with custom graphics. The system interface will be web based with user access via any standard internet browser. Unit and terminal control will be accomplished through our BACnet® Tracer™ UC Programmable Controller lines. Deployment of Trane WCI Coordinators which incorporate secured BACnet® / Zigbee® wireless communications as part of an Air-Fi™ backbone within the building to avoid rewiring whenever the spaces are reconfigured or expanded. Air Systems

Existing Conditions – AHUs are all in need of refurbishment or replacement:

- Gallery Spaces (critical) - AHU-1/OAU-1, AHU-2/OAU-2, AHU-5/OAU-3, AHU-6/OAU-1, AHU-9, AHU-10
 - Constant Volume with Chilled Water coils
 - AHU-1, AHU-2, AHU-5, and AHU-6 are multi-zone with downstream reheat with downstream humidifiers, dedicated outside air units
 - AHU-9 and AHU-10 with downstream reheat
- Non-Gallery Spaces (considered non-critical) - AHU-3, AHU-4, AHU-7, AHU-8, AHU-11, AHU-RR, systems vary

Building Automation System (BAS)

Existing Conditions:

- No programming, system control or scheduling utilized - only temperature control
- Existing System Software/Hardware no longer supportable due to age
- No connection to humidifiers – manual control of humidity in space

Existing Conditions – Roofing Systems (by others)

Study performed by Trane in conjunction with building envelope engineer: ARC Associates

Existing Conditions:

- Multiple renovations over past 50 years that has impacted roofing design
- Three different roof applications applied to 22 roof elevations – all at or beyond useable life, replacement required
 - Aggregate surface built up roofing (Aggregate) – 30 years old – beyond useful life
 - Mineral surfaced and coated modified bitumen roofing (Bitumen) – worn, at or near end of life
 - Thermoplastic single ply membrane roofing (TPO) — TPO installed over existing tar roof with poor installation with replacement needed – code requires both roofs removed, and new roof installed

A 'treasure trove': Orlando Museum of Art receives major gift of 314 works

PUBLISHED: April 4, 2024 at 5:28 p.m. | UPDATED: April 4, 2024 at 7:28 p.m.

Orlando Museum of Art has received a significant gift of more than 300 pieces, including works by Robert Mapplethorpe and Keith Haring, that greatly expands and diversifies its permanent holdings. The gift also opens a relationship with a New York City museum, sparks new educational opportunities and offers the beleaguered institution a morale-boosting sign of support from the art world.

"It's a brilliant collection," says the museum's recently installed chief curator, Coralie Claeysen-Gleyzon. "I can't tell you how excited we are."

The gift, mostly paintings and mixed-media work with some sculptures and photographs, comes from a pair of New York City-based collectors and activists who have a particular interest in LGBTQ issues. Claeysen-Gleyzon said the Cottrell-Lovett Collection not only comes at a "pivotal moment for the OMA" but could help fight homophobia and other forms of discrimination by acting "as a catalyst for broader societal change."

Dr. James Cottrell and Joseph Lovett have been collecting art since 1976; the museum has had a relationship with the couple since hosting an exhibit of some of their pieces in 2004. In 2016, the museum presented a follow-up exhibition and afterward retained 63 works on long-term loan.

This photogravure with watercolor is by noted American artist Robert Mapplethorpe, who died in 1989. Known as "Untitled #4," it has been given to the Orlando Museum of Art by Dr. James Cottrell and Joseph Lovett. (© Robert Mapplethorpe Foundation via Orlando Museum of Art)

The gift greatly — and suddenly — increases the breadth of the museum's 3,120-piece permanent collection, boosting it by 10 percent. A comparison with the more measured and usual pace of the museum's collecting organizations illustrates the dramatic gain to the museum by the additional 314 works: The museum's Acquisition Trust has contributed 60 pieces over 40 years, the Friends of American Art have added 12 pieces over 30 years, and the Council of 101 has purchased 208 art prints in 50 years.

But even more than the size, it's the scope of the works that impresses, Claeysen-Gleyzon said. Living in downtown Manhattan during the 1980s, Cottrell and Lovett knew and collected from the prominent artists of the time.

Among other names represented in the collection are David Hockney, whom the couple met 50 years ago; avant-garde French artist and playwright Jean Cocteau; American Helen Frankenthaler, whose abstract paintings span generations; mixed-media pop artist Deborah Kass; and Kwame Brathwaite, who died last year after a career spent artistically chronicling Black life in Harlem and elsewhere.

Beyond the U.S. and Europe, artists represented in the collection also come from Haiti, Mexico and Ecuador, increasing the museum's international offerings.

Claeysen-Gleyzon is equally excited about names perhaps not as well-known to the general public, such as French artist Edouard Prulhière, an important figure in the Supports/Surfaces artistic movement in which paintings are often folded, cut or otherwise constructed to also focus attention on their physical presence.

"It is a treasure trove," she said of the gift.

The collection's artists will be of interest to scholars, Claeysen-Gleyzon said, which will help raise the museum's profile.

"You want a collection to be seen and studied and part of the narrative of contemporary art," she said. To that end, the collection's pieces will be accessible through the museum's website.

The gift follows a donation of 200 works by Cottrell and Lovett to the Grey Art Museum, affiliated with New York University. The dual donations have the potential to allow the institutions to share works and educational opportunities. Claeysen-Gleyzon also envisions loaning the collection to other museums, ensuring the works can be seen by a broader audience — another way to raise OMA's national impact.

Locally, the collection will spark an array of new educational programs, she said, sentiments echoed by museum executive director and CEO Cathryn Mattson.

Beyond education, the new works also could trigger more outreach opportunities with local organizations, particularly those that serve the LGBTQ community. The museum already hosts Art With Purpose, a visual-journaling program in partnership with Zebra Coalition, which supports lesbian, gay, bisexual and transgender teens and young adults.

In a joint statement, Cottrell and Lovett said the museum's community work was one of the reasons for the donation.

"We've long been deeply inspired by OMA's vibrant outreach into underserved communities, creating educational programs for people of all ages," they wrote.

The couple was deeply affected by living through New York City's AIDS crisis of the 1980s.

"We have so many friends who died of AIDS. ... A whole generation of artists was lost to AIDS, if not more," Lovett recounted in an interview marking OMA's 2004 exhibition.

Barton Lidice Beneš, who died in 2012, is one of the artists represented in the couple's gift to the museum.

"Artists such as Barton who lived through the AIDS epidemic — he was HIV positive for many years — have done a lot of work on social issues including HIV AIDS," Lovett said in the 2004 interview. "Wherever I saw his work, I would think of his incredible sense of humor and his take on life and realize that he was still with us through his work."

In announcing the gift, Mattson referred to the couple as "longtime advocates and dedicated supporters" of the museum.

Cottrell, who helped found the specialty of neuro-anesthesiology, is chairman emeritus of anesthesiology at the SUNY Downstate Medical Center in New York City and past president of the American Society of Anesthesiologists. He is a founding chair of the AIDS Action Foundation and served on the board of God's Love We Deliver, a service that provides meals to individuals with chronic illnesses.

Lovett is a Peabody award-winning and Emmy-nominated documentary filmmaker who has worked with ABC and HBO. He also has received multiple awards for his social advocacy.

Former Orlando Museum of Art curator Hansen Mulford described the couple's collecting methods in a 2016 essay.

"Informed by curiosity, careful observation and a continual dialog with artists, gallerists, curators and museum directors, Cottrell and Lovett have built an important collection of contemporary art with an international scope," he wrote.

"This is a collection that starts with and is sustained by the act of looking," Cottrell said at the time. "We have to like what we are looking at. While the works in the collection must be strong visual statements, it becomes important to understand what the artists are about, the journey they are on and what they are doing with their lives."

Central Floridians will see some of the new works in a small exhibition this summer. In the spring of 2025, the museum will open its 101st year with a major exhibition showcasing much of the Cottrell-Lovett gift.

In honor of the donation, Claeyson-Gleyzon's position will now officially be designated the Cottrell-Lovett Collection Chief Curator.

"We could not be happier with our decision to make this significant gift to OMA and the wider Central Florida community," the couple wrote in a joint statement. "We are especially proud to create a lasting impact via the museum, which has long demonstrated a vested interest in sharing and supporting our commitment to disability activism, non-censorship, accessibility and LGBTQ+ issues."

Claeyson-Gleyzon said the gift was a vote of confidence in the staff and mission of the museum, celebrating its centenary this year in the shadow of the Basquiat scandal.

"It's definitely a boost to the morale," she said.

The seizure of works attributed to Jean-Michel Basquiat in a 2022 FBI raid as part of an ongoing fraud investigation, and the subsequent fallout, has damaged the museum's reputation, led to lawsuits between OMA and its former director, and battered staff morale.

The real reason they're called flappers.

Orlando Museum of Art can't afford repairs, new roof

WFTV.com News Staff, Sarah Kinbar

Editor's note: This story is available as a result of a content partnership between WFTV and the Orlando Business Journal.

Orlando Museum of Art leaders said the museum doesn't have the money to cover needed HVAC repairs and a new roof, due to the $315,000 it spent to respond to FBI subpoenas, combined with lost revenue from cancelled exhibitions and legal fees.

"It's in the hundreds of thousands of dollars that would be a budget shortfall," museum board Chair Mark Elliott told Orlando Business Journal on Jan. 23.

The museum needs to "restructure its economic infrastructure and fix the building," said Executive Director and CEO Cathryn Mattson, though there have been no internal talks about filing for Chapter 11 bankruptcy protection, she said.
