Personal History: I have extensive business knowledge having built multiple businesses most recently successfully exiting in 2020 at the height of the pandemic. In 2012 I helped municipalities in GA with community development placing parks and developing safe public spaces for underprivileged kids. I worked with a development company in Northern New Jersey to help build the city's waterfront, including one of New Jersey's largest residential buildings, commercial landscapes, and a shopping mall project that helped reshape the waterfront parallel to New York City. Currently, I sit on the board of GOSHRM - Greater Orlando Society of Human Resources Management as an advocate for HR policies. I also partner with a proactive health management solution where we advocate for the preventative well-being of our community through technology and education.
