Personal History: To whom it may concern, I have been an Orange County since 2008. I love my community! I have been involved in the Orange County public schools for 13 years. I serve as PTO president at Keene's Crossing Elementary and also Bridgewater Middle School. Recently, I have been recognized as a 2023 Who's Who in Horizon West. I am very honored to have received that award. During my time with the PTO, I helped open two elementary schools and a high school. I loved every minute of my involvement with the schools! I also spend a lot of my time Volunteering through work (Disney). I have planted wire grass in one of state parks, made adoption packets for Save the Manatees foundation, decorated the Historical Center for Halloween and so much more! At my place of employment, I serve on the environmental and community outreach committees. I am also a proud of member of Salute and WIN - our veterans support group and our women's inclusion network. I am very organized, resourceful, synergy, manage my time well and I'm great under pressure.

Personal History: Joseph Simmons, a visionary leader and compassionate philanthropist, possesses a remarkable set of qualifications for appointment to the Orange County Minority Business Board. With an extensive career in the pharmaceutical industry, including prominent roles at Baxter Corporation, Johnson & Johnson, Sunrise Medical, Knoll, Abbott, and Novartis Pharmaceuticals, Joseph has demonstrated exceptional leadership and expertise. His innovative solutions and groundbreaking advancements have not only propelled organizations to unprecedented heights but have also improved the lives of individuals worldwide. In addition to his impressive professional achievements, Joseph's commitment to empowering others is evident through his establishment of The Center for Micro-Entrepreneurial Training (CMET). This nonprofit organization, founded in May 2020, focuses on empowering women, black, and brown entrepreneurs, aiming to transcend barriers and facilitate business ownership. CMET provides unparalleled support and high-quality entrepreneurial training to underrepresented groups, equipping them with the necessary tools, knowledge, and resources to succeed. Joseph's dedication to fostering long-term success and creating positive change within communities exemplifies his unwavering passion for entrepreneurship. Joseph's leadership and unwavering belief in the power of entrepreneurship continue to inspire and support the next generation of entrepreneurs. Through his transformative work at CMET, he has created an environment where dreams are nurtured, talents are honed, and ambitions are realized. With his visionary mindset and commitment to breaking down barriers, Joseph Simmons is poised to contribute significantly to the Orange County Minority Business Board, driving inclusive growth and fostering a thriving business ecosystem for all.

Personal History: Ian is an experienced engineering leader, sustainability professional, and building performance innovator responsible for managing multimillion-dollar capital projects from original conception to final completion. He currently helms the energy performance of the City of Orlando building portfolio, over 7 million square feet. Continuously driving towards Mayor Dyer's goal of 100% renewable energy for all City facilities by 2030. He recently led the installation of 100+ EV charging stations throughout the city (FY21), is landing over $5M of rooftop solar for City facilities (FY22), and is the PI for the Federally funded $2.85M Resiliency Hub Grant Project across the City of Orlando (FY22-FY24). He is an experienced speaker including engagements at Department of Energy Summits, USGBC GreenBuild, ASHRAE Winter Conferences, Smart Cities Council, USDN, and other multi-industry events. Ian's experience includes the design and construction of mission-critical facilities, LEED review, and certification for dozens of buildings. He has expertise in construction and building management delivering successful outcomes from capital planning and design through commissioning. Ian also consults privately for Fortune 100 companies specializing in mission-critical Data center construction turnover, site startup, and training for FacOps teams. A Florida Native, Ian enjoys spending time volunteering with ASHRAE and USGBC, previously serving on the board of both organizations. In his free time, Ian enjoys exploring the natural landscape and waterways with his wife and young son. Ian is a licensed Professional Engineer and holds a Bachelor of Science in Mechanical Engineering from the University of Central Florida. Go Knights!
