SUBJECT: Work Session Item for July 27, 2021
Local Provider Participation Fund

This work session item is to provide the Board information on a hospital requested program called the Local Provider Participation Fund (LPPF). This program will assist Orange County hospitals with Medicaid reimbursements. The presentation will provide background, information on the LPPF program, and ordinance required if implemented. Hospital representatives will be present at the work session.

This item is for information purposes only, and no action is required.
