SUBJECT: January 25, 2022 BCC Work Session –
Transportation Funding Initiative

The Mayor has recently communicated his intent to resume efforts to pursue a Charter County and Regional Transportation System Surtax as a means of funding transportation solutions that comprehensively address needs within the County. On January 25th, staff will conduct a work session with the Board in order to review the previous efforts relative to the Transportation Funding Initiative, discuss upcoming plans to re-engage with the community, share the framework of the plan that is being developed in response to the community's priorities, and outline the process and timeline required for a potential ballot initiative.

This work session is for informational purposes only and no action is requested of the Board at this time.
