Information on Attending or Observing the Hearing:
 The hearing will be hosted by the Orange County Mayor or Vice-Mayor, a quorum of the BOC will be maintained during the hearing, other members of the BOC may be participating from different locations via WebEx (see <https://www.webex.com> for more information), and the hearing will be conducted and operated by Orange County Government.

Regardless of the format, the hearing may be viewed on Orange TV via the internet or television.
 Online: <http://orangecountyfl.net/OpenGovernment/OrangeTVVisionTV.aspx>.
 Televised: Channel 488 on Spectrum; Channel 9 on Comcast; Channel 99 on AT&T U-Verse; and Channel 10.2 over the air.

Information on Providing Testimony or Participating in the Hearing:
 Members of the public who would like to provide testimony and evidence during the hearing may utilize one of the following options:
 The person may attend the hearing at the First Floor of the Orange County Administration Center at 201 S. Rosalind Ave., in downtown Orlando, Florida.
 If the hearing is being held virtually (in part), the person may participate in one of the following two ways:

- The person may participate at a kiosk in Room 105 at the First Floor of the Orange County Administration Center, 201 S. Rosalind Avenue, Orlando, Florida; or
- The person may join and participate from a remote location through the video section of WebEx found in link in the County Calendar at <https://www.ocfl.net/Home/CountyCalendar.aspx>.

Please note, if the hearings are held virtually (in part), the person will communicate virtually with the BOC members from a remote location or from the kiosk equipped with a computer laptop located in Room 105 on the First Floor, where the person will see, hear, and speak to the BOC members and the BOC members will see, hear, and will be able to speak to the person.

Orange County staff will be present to assist at the kiosk in Room 105 and on the First Floor to ensure that social distancing and other health and safety measures are practiced and enforced.

Please also note, the time allotted to each individual for testimony will be at the sole discretion on the Orange County Mayor or Vice-Mayor, and may be reduced from the normal time limit of three minutes, depending on the number of speakers.

Also, if a person intends to show photographs, presentations, reports, or any other documents when he or she testifies at the hearing, it is requested that by not later than 5:00 p.m. on Monday, December 14, 2020, the person either email true and correct copies of such documentary evidence to Public.Comment@ocfl.net and note the hearing to which it relates, or physically deliver copies of such documentary evidence to the Planning Division at the Second Floor of the Orange County Administration Center at 201 S. Rosalind Avenue in downtown Orlando, Florida.

If a person is unable to attend the BOC meeting in person or access the WebEx meeting via a computer, please call Olan D. Hill, Assistant Manager, Orange County Planning Division, at 407-836-5373 between the hours of 8:00 a.m. and 5:00 p.m., Monday through Friday, except legal holidays, not later than 24 hours before the meeting, so that he can determine with the person whether other arrangements are feasible.

Section 286.0105, Florida Statutes, states that "if a person decides to appeal any decision made by a board, agency or commission with respect to any matter considered at a meeting or hearing, he or she will need a record of the proceedings, and that, for such purpose, he or she may need to ensure that a verbatim record of the proceedings is made, which record includes the testimony and evidence upon which the appeal is to be based."

In accordance with the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA), if any person with a disability as defined by the ADA needs special accommodation to participate in this proceeding, then not later than two business days prior to the proceeding, he or she should contact the Orange County Communications Division at (407) 836-5651.
