Personal History: Since becoming an attorney in early 2017, I have demonstrated my commitment to public service through my experience working for the judiciary and my positions in Bar leadership. I have a passion for making a difference in the lives of others and a role on an Orange County board is a perfect opportunity for me to use my leadership skills and experience to help make a positive impact in our community. After all, service in any aspect is never for one's self-promotion but solely for the promotion of others and for the greater good. I am also an effective communicator and have a strong working relationship with judges, colleagues, clients, and people in general, as exhibited by my work positions, prior and current various held Bar leadership positions, and my personality. I have served on the Board for the Legal Aid Society in Orange County and currently serve as the President of the Orange County Bar Association Foundation. The Foundation's purpose is charitable with a mission to raise awareness, understanding, appreciation, and respect for the law by educating the public about the legal system, including the role of lawyers, the role of courts, and the rule of law. Our focus has been and continues to be community education. From the consequences of one's actions, to how the judicial system works, to supporting the local schools, to mentoring, the Foundation helps citizens gain a better understanding of the judicial system. The Foundation has instituted scholarships and book awards for undergraduate students in legal studies programs and for law students. Additionally, our grant program has been a successful avenue to help organizations foster legal education in our community. Through my time on the Foundation Board since 2018, I have helped serve the Orange County community in various ways and I would love the opportunity to bring that perspective to a board. I am also an adjunct professor at the University of Central Florida. Thank you for considering my application.

Personal History: I have a wide range of experiences across private and nonprofit sectors. I co-own with my husband a digital marketing firm, work as an Adult Literacy Instructor at Orange County Corrections , and as a technical report writer at the global nonprofit Internet Corporation for Assigned Names and Numbers (ICANN). I also volunteer with Adult Literacy League as an English-language tutor and English-language conversation coach for seniors, in partnership with the nonprofit Easterseals. I am a sponsor of United Arts of Central Florida and routinely partner with New Image Youth Center to sponsor events, provide in-kind & monetary donations, and design services. I currently work with iDignity to produce social media guidelines, a content calendar, website changes, and an update to their corporate sponsorship program as part of my winning the Design Justice Program Grant from a professional association to which I belong: Association for Computing Machinery Special Interest Group on Design of Communication. In 2023, I worked two contract positions: The first with Pinellas County Government to update their administrative policies template and implement a new content management system, including instructional content for internal users on using the new template and content management system; the second with ICANN as a research specialist in the Public Responsibility Support department creating and coordinating learning materials related to public interest topics such as diversity and inclusion, and developing a framework for automating human rights risks for business risk management. I am a graduate of the UCF MA Program in English-Technical Communication, and I engage in independent research related to public interest topics. One such project is an interactive, map-based data visualization that localizes the impacts of client change. I am highly involved in the community and love to contribute to making Orange County a better place for individuals and families.

Personal History: As someone with over two decades of experience in the Social Security Disability (SSD) industry, I bring a wealth of knowledge and practical expertise that uniquely qualify me for appointment to the board. My journey began with a deep commitment to social justice and a desire to support individuals with disabilities in navigating the complex SSD application process. Over the years, I have developed a comprehensive understanding of the challenges faced by applicants and have been actively involved in advocacy efforts aimed at improving the system. My professional background includes working closely with SSD applicants, guiding them through each step of the application process, and helping them gather the necessary evidence to build compelling claims. This hands-on experience has given me invaluable insights into the bureaucratic hurdles and emotional toll faced by applicants, informing my approach to creating more efficient and compassionate solutions. In addition to my professional experience, I co-founded Unbound Disability Claims, a pioneering platform dedicated to expediting SSD approvals. Our flagship product, the Disability Claim Builder, leverages technology to streamline the application process, much like TurboTax does for taxes. This innovation has not only increased approval rates but also significantly reduced the time applicants spend waiting for decisions, directly addressing a critical pain point in the current system. My interests extend beyond just improving individual outcomes; I am deeply committed to systemic change. I am particularly passionate about using technological innovations to create more equitable systems and improve access to essential services for underserved populations. My background in disability rights advocacy, coupled with my technical expertise, positions me well to contribute to boards focused on advancing these goals.

Personal History: As a retiree, living in Baldwin Park for the last almost 7 years, I have a continued interest in aging, in health care facilities, and in the quality of life for all Floridians. I am of sound mind, and relatively good health myself, but as I watch the aging process, I am reminded that that status could be fleeting for me, and is gone for some of my friends. I want to give back, when and how I can.

Personal History: As a passionate advocate for community development and a proud member of the vibrant Hispanic community, I am an ideal candidate for the Neighborhood Grants Advisory Board position. My deep-rooted commitment to fostering inclusivity and representing diverse perspectives aligns seamlessly with the board's mission. With a track record of active involvement in community initiatives, I bring a unique lens to assess and prioritize projects that resonate with the needs of the Hispanic community in the county. My experience navigating the challenges faced by the Hispanic population positions me as a valuable advocate, ensuring their voices are heard in the decision-making process. Having actively engaged with local grassroots organizations, I am well-versed in understanding the nuanced needs of our community. My collaborative approach and proficiency in bilingual communication further enhance my ability to bridge cultural gaps and facilitate effective dialogue. In summary, my combination of community engagement, cultural sensitivity, and a genuine passion for uplifting the Hispanic community makes me a prime candidate to contribute meaningfully to the Neighborhood Grants Advisory Board, promoting equitable and impactful initiatives for the entire county.

Personal History: Having been an environmental consultant for over a decade, I have had many opportunities to utilize my natural resources background to implement creative solutions to various projects in Florida. Specifically, I have completed hundreds of projects that require a deep understanding of environmental land development code, ordinances, regulations, and/or policy pertaining to environmental issues. I have conducted agency consultation and public outreach on many projects, and based on my academic and professional background; am uniquely qualified to balance environmental protection with sustainable economic growth and development to assist private, federal, and state stakeholders. To date, my primary contributions to the community have been through volunteer efforts, but would welcome the opportunity to serve on the Development Advisory Board to serve my community in a more formal capacity.

Personal History: After earning my PhD in Interdisciplinary Ecology from the University of Florida, I began a career teaching about sustainability in higher education. For the last 7 years, I have taught environmental studies at the University of Central Florida. In that capacity, I have worked with several community partners-including OCPS, Orange County Environmental Protection Division, City of Winter Park, Orlando Greenworks, and Second Harvest. I have my students work on projects with these partners. I also specialize in participatory management, with a focus on having stakeholders educated and involved in environmental management decisions that affect them.
