The Community Action Board (CAB) is responsible for development, review, supervision, evaluation, and making recommendations for final approval of all fiscal and program policies, plans, priorities, proposals, budgets, and any other activities to be conducted by Orange County Community Action. The CAB consists of three sectors: public sector, private sector, and low income community sector.

The Board of County Commissioners appoints the eight members of the public sector, which is composed of up to three County Commissioners, up to three elected officials from three different municipalities located in Orange County, up to two members representing the state of Florida or United States Congress, and one member of the Orange County School Board. The municipality slots rotate among the 11 municipalities in Orange County (Apopka, Belle Isle, Eatonville, Edgewood, Maitland, Oakland, Ocoee, Orlando, Winter Garden, Winter Park, and Windermere).

Currently, there is one vacancy on the CAB for a municipal representative due to the passing of City of Edgewood Mayor Ray A. Bagshaw. In addition, the Orange County School Board has recommended Melissa Byrd to succeed Pam Gould as its CAB representative with a term expiring December 31, 2020. A copy of Ms. Byrd's advisory board application for appointment is available upon request.
