SUBJECT: MetroPlan Orlando Board of Directors Appointments
DISCUSSION AGENDA – DECEMBER 15, 2020

Section 339.175(2), Florida Statutes, provides the methodology to determine the membership of the MetroPlan Orlando Board of Directors (MPO). Orange County is allocated six representatives and one permanent alternate. Currently, Mayor Demings and Commissioners Moore, Uribe, Bonilla, and Siplin represent Orange County with Commissioner Gomez Cordero serving as the permanent alternate, leaving one vacancy due to the departure of former Commissioner VanderLey. The terms of Commissioners Uribe, Gomez Cordero, and Siplin have also expired.

Accordingly, on December 15, 2020, the Board will be requested to appoint three commissioners to serve on the MPO and one commissioner to serve as the permanent alternate on the MPO with terms expiring December 1, 2024. Mayor Demings has indicated his support for the reappointment of Commissioners Uribe and Siplin, the appointment of Commissioner Gomez Cordero, and the appointment of Commissioner Wilson as the permanent alternate.

Please call me if you have any questions.
