Previous Contact with Orange County Staff Regarding This Matter (Name/Department): None
Submitted By: Karen Broussard
Subject: To raise awareness of the state of childhood hunger in Orange County, including its impact and magnitude. With adequate funding, Orange County could insure that no child in Orange County misses a meal, particularly during out-of-school-time. Providing food for weekends, school holidays, including summer, and after school, helps protect children from poor health and behavioral problems, as well as deficits in academic performance, all shown to related to food insecurity and malnutrition.
