Personal History: I am a dedicated individual with over a decade of combined experience in the nonprofit sector and community affairs. Specializing in ensuring grant compliance and achieving outcomes through sound performance measurement practices. Demonstrated success in civic engagement, project management and partnership development. Adept at managing multiple, diverse tasks simultaneously; works well under pressure. In addition to my professional background as funder, community volunteer and program administrator, I have lived in Orange County since 1995. As a low-income and troubled youth, that transitioned to become a productive Member of society and Orange County, I am uniquely qualified to speak and advise on the behalf of Orange County citizens, particularly on matters pertaining to youth, family stability and the low-income population. I would be honored to contribute my knowledge, time, and talent to the Board of County Commissioners.

Personal History: A licensed attorney in the State of Florida, Roberta Walton currently manages the newest operation division with the Orange County Clerk of Courts. As the new Self Help Center Division Manager she oversees services offered to self-represented litigants interested in family law, landlord/tenant law, and small claims cases. Prior to transitioning to the Clerk of Courts she practiced real estate, land use and development, and business law at Voight P.A. A native of Panama City, Florida, Roberta Walton obtained a degree in Social Work at Florida Agricultural & Mechanical University. From there she began her career in philanthropic development as a District Executive for the Boy Scouts of America. She later served in similar roles with the American Heart Association and Kids Incorporated (also known as 4C), an early childhood human service agency. Roberta received her Juris Doctorate from Florida A&M College of Law in 2005, as an inaugural member of the re-established College of Law. Immediately after graduation in 2005, Roberta began practicing Administrative Law with Community Legal Services of Mid-Florida providing litigation and advocacy for Medicaid, Medicare, Social Security Disability, and other like cases on behalf of low-income clients. Additionally, she served as an adjunct instructor for both ITT Technical Institute and Everest College in the Criminal Justice department. Because of her public service experience, Roberta was selected to serve as the District 6 Aide and Senior Advisor to Orange County Commissioner Tiffany Moore Russell where she adopted a strong grasp of not only the intricacies surrounding local government and policy implementation, but also strategic planning and public engagement. Both personally and professionally, Roberta is devoted to serving her community. She is a co-founder of the Central Florida Women's Empowerment Summit held annually and the Orange County Government African American Employee Network. She has held

Personal History: I am the Corporate Controller for Paramount Hospitality which currently operates four hotels in Orlando, all within the tourist corridor of International Drive. Having worked for the past 17 years in Orlando, I have seen the expansion of Orlando's tourist amenities within International Drive. With all of the expansion the roadways in and around International drive are of great importance. We must build the infrastructure to not only accommodate our current traffic flow but set the foundation for the future.
