Personal History: I returned to college in my 40s. Attended UCF and received degree in Counselor Education, Mental Health Agency Track. I focused a great degree on counseling older adults and their families. I have worked consistently for private none-profit organizations. I had the opportunity to receive a Disney Award for initiating program: Counseling Older Adults and their Families in late 1980s. I have been a team member (joining community service agencies, hospital chaplains, and faith communities) of an innovative and successful semiannual Spirituality and Aging Interfaith Seminars/Programs in Central Florida. Over the years, I've counseled groups in day cares, nursing homes, and senior centers in the past. I've been involved in The Advisory Committee with Ms. Reggentin, I participated several years ago a task force within Children & Family Services that reviewed Elder Abuse & Neglect Cases. I have served on the Winter Park Health Foundations Aging Advisory Committee. Currently, I continue to work as a therapist part-time; and, my clients are couples, adults and senior adults. All walks of life are represented among our centers clientele; they teach me much about life! Variety and various themes include: issues such as those of ethnicity, economics/finances, workplace happenings,, family life & relationships, health issues, ages, and sexual orientation. Personally, I want to stay involved in service to the community. I have a strong past background for volunteering. I have been engaged with my clinical practice and fewer commitments outside but I want to remain involved. I have life experiences as well as professional and other personal experiences that I can bring to our County. I've been a resident since 1970 and I've seen the growth !
