SUBJECT: August 6, 2019 – Public Hearing
Applicant: Affordable Transport Inc.
Certificate of Public Convenience and Necessity to provide interfacility
Advanced Life Support transport services

On April 23, 2019, Affordable Transport Inc. (ATI) submitted an application for a Certificate of Public Convenience and Necessity (COPCN) to provide interfacility Advanced Life Support transport services. ATI is currently operating on a temporary COPCN.

Section 20-92(a)(4), Orange County Code, requires a COPCN application to include a statement of facts showing the “demand or need” for the proposed services. Section 20-93(b), Orange County Code, requires the Board of County Commissioners (the “Board”) to find that the proposed services are or will be required by the present or future “public convenience or necessity” before the Board grants the COPCN. In its COPCN application, ATI attached a business services agreement entered into with Haines City HMA, LLC d/b/a Heart of Florida Regional Medical Center on March 11, 2019, as its statement of fact showing a demand or need for the proposed services.

Upon receipt of ATI’s application and supporting documentation, the Orange County Emergency Medical Services Office of the Medical Director investigated, among other things, the public need for the proposed service and the geographical area involved. The Orange County Emergency Medical Services Office of the Medical Director requested the County Attorney’s Office make a determination as to whether a business services agreement with a private hospital is sufficient to satisfy the requirement that an applicant show a “demand or need” for services and whether the Board can grant such an application.

After considering the COPCN application and the supporting documentation submitted by ATI, the Orange County Emergency Medical Services Office of the Medical Director recommends that the Board issue a Certificate of Public Convenience and Necessity to ATI to provide interfacility Advanced Life Support transport services.

ACTION REQUESTED: Approval and execution of a Certificate of Public Convenience and Necessity for Affordable Transport Inc. to provide interfacility Advanced Life Support transport services. The term of the certificate is September 1, 2019 through September 1, 2021.

Re: Objection to Application of Affordable Transport, Inc. for COPCN
MPD File No. 119153

Dear Dr. Zurver,

Our firm represents Lifefleet Southeast, Inc., d/b/a American Medical Response ("AMR") as an existing holder of a Certificate of Public Convenience and Necessity ("COPCN") to operate Advanced Life Support ("ALS") and Basic Life Support ("BLS") services in Orange County. Pursuant to Section 20-92(b)(2) of the Orange County Code of Ordinances, AMR hereby files this objection (the "Objection") to the Application of Affordable Transport, Inc. (the "Applicant") for a COPCN to operate ALS/BLS service within Orange County. This Objection is timely under Section 20-92(b)(2) because it has been served within 30 days of the County's notice to AMR of the Application.

Applicable Standards and Grounds for Objection

In reviewing an application for a COPCN, Section 20-92(b)(1) of the Code requires the Emergency Medical Services Office (the "EMSO") to "investigate the public need for the proposed service". Further, in reviewing the EMSO's recommendation on the application, Section 20-93(b) of the Code requires "the board of county commissioners shall determine that the proposed service, to the extent to be authorized by the certificate, is or will be required by the present or future public convenience or necessity . . ." In fact, Section 20-92(a)(4) requires a "statement of facts showing the demand or need for the proposed service" in the application. In other words, the Orange County Code requires that the Applicant demonstrate that there is a need for additional service in the County and that the existing service is not adequate to meet the public need in the service category.

Florida law also requires that applicants seeking a certificate of public convenience and necessity for transportation services carry the burden of proving that existing service is inadequate. See: Surf Coast Tours, Inc. v. Florida Public Service Commission, 385 So. 2d 1353, 1355 (Fla. 1980) (recognizing that an evaluation of "the adequacy of existing services" must be measured by evaluating existing service providers' performance and applicant has the burden of proving substandard performance); Stewart Bonded Warehouse, Inc. v. Bevis, 294 So. 2d 315 (Fla. 1974) (holding that an applicant shall not receive a certificate of public convenience and necessity if it fails demonstrate that existing service is inadequate). See also: Great Southern Trucking Co. v. Mack, 54 So. 2d 153, 156 (Fla. 1951) in which the Court acknowledged that:

Statutes in this connection (public transportation) generally contemplate and frequently expressly require that additional new service from a different source shall not be permitted to supersede or vitally impair the present transportation service, where that is or may become adequate to the public needs. Existing investment should be conserved, and present service protected, where adequate and satisfactory, in the interest of justice and public welfare.

In Orange County there is simply no public need for additional ALS/BLS service and the Applicant has not demonstrated a factual basis for such need as required by Florida law and the Orange County Code. Rather, the Application demonstrates that the COPCN is required to finalize a private business transaction between the Heart of Florida Hospital ("HOF") and the Applicant.

Specifically, the Applicant states that it will service only one location within Orange County: HOF's emergency room located at 17430 Bali Blvd, Winter Garden, Florida. The Application provides no "statement of facts showing the demand or need for the proposed service" as required by the Code and Section 9 of the Application. Instead, the Applicant references an attached Business Services Agreement (the "Agreement") with HOF as its statement of facts demonstrating "need."

However, the Agreement does not show there is any inadequacy (i.e. public need) as to the existing service in the County. To the contrary, Section 4.1 of the Agreement at p. 13 recognizes that HOF may call other providers to transport patients and that HOF is "under no obligation to use only ATP". Additionally, the Agreement provides that the Applicant's "dedicated ALS Ambulance shall be visually co-branded with HOF through use of an approved wrap on the Ambulance." In other words, the Applicant would be an in-house carrier for HOF and would essentially function as a mobile advertisement for that company. Plainly, the Application demonstrates that the COPCN is required for a private business purpose rather than to fulfill a public need for ALS/BLS service that could not otherwise be provided by existing certificate holders and the Application must fail as a result.

Moreover, Section 10 of the Application states that Applicant proposes to service the HOF emergency room with only one ambulance. Simply put, servicing a single facility with a single ambulance does not demonstrate a public necessity for issuance of a COPCN in Orange County. Currently, there are two ALS COPCN holders (including AMR) along with Orange County Fire Rescue and the Applicant has not shown that the existing providers are not adequately serving the market. In fact, AMR has serviced the Heart of Florida Facility and has more than enough capacity to provide the service the Applicant proposes to that facility. AMR would be able to further demonstrate in any future public hearing that it (along with the other existing provider) has excess capacity to serve the ALS/BLS market in Orange County, especially a single facility requiring a single ambulance. In short, AMR has a record of exemplary service in Orange County, and in other counties throughout Florida, and there is no proven need for an additional service provider.

In addition to the inadequate demonstration of need for additional service, the Application is defective because it does not identify a business location within Orange County. Therefore, the Applicant cannot possibly comply with the requirement of Code Section 20-95 (c)(3) that a COPCN holder "[k]eep posted at the principal business locations in the county a copy of the certificate, and of any rate or fee schedule." (emphasis added) Thus, unlike AMR which has an operations base in Orange County, the Applicant doesn't intend to have any presence in Orange County to service the general public. Rather, it seeks the COPCN to serve one business with a single ambulance that is covered in that business's trade dress. Such an arrangement does not meet the standards of the Orange County Code or Florida law for public need and issuance of a COPCN.

For all of the foregoing reasons, American Medical Response, as an existing provider of ALS/BLS service in Orange County, respectfully requests that the Application of Affordable Transport, Inc. be denied.

Should you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact me at (813) 229-3500.

Best regards,

Re: Falck Southeast II Corp, d/b/a American Ambulance's Opposition to Affordable
Transport, Inc.'s Application for Certificate of Convenience and Necessity for Ambulance and Fire/Rescue Services

Dear Dr. Zuver:

Please be advised that we represent Falck Southeast II Corp, d/b/a American Ambulance ("American Ambulance"), one of two current providers of emergency medical transportation under Orange County's Certificate of Public Convenience and Necessity (COPCN) program pursuant to County Code Chapter 20, Article III. American Ambulance is aware of an application made to Orange County Emergency Medical Services Office for an ALS Inter-facility COPCN requested by Affordable Transport, Inc. (ATI). American Ambulance has reviewed said application and opposes the application for the reasons stated herein.

Orange County Code Section 20-92, requires ten (10) items for inclusion in an application for COPCN. Those requirements include standard information such as the name of the applicant and its experience in the proposed service and the rates to be charged. Section 20-92 also requests essential and critical information such as the geographical area to be served and the demand or need for the service. This last requirement is paramount to Orange County's public safety - meeting the needs of the public. Specifically, subsection (4) requires "A statement of facts showing the demand or need for the proposed service." Section 20-92 further provides in subsection (b)(1) that the EMSO "shall investigate the public need for the proposed service." (Emphasis added).

American Ambulance respectfully submits that the application submitted by ATI does not meet the required public need. Section 9 of the application requests a "STATEMENT OF FACTS SHOWING THE DEMAND OR NEED FOR THE PROPOSED SERVICE." (Emphasis in the original). In response to that request, ATI referenced an attached document, which was an agreement between Haines City HMA, LLC dba Heart of Florida and ATI. The agreement does not contain any information that provides any statement of fact demonstrating a need or demand for another provider to be issued a COPCN in Orange County. Further, that is the only information provided to support the public need or demand.

American Ambulance is unaware of any complaints of the existing providers currently serving Orange County or any demand for additional providers. As well, American Ambulance can attest that Haines City HMA, LLC dba Heart of Florida has not requested its services.

As such, we respectfully request the EMSO reject ATT's application, as there is no need established for an additional provider of emergency transport services as required in section 20-92 of Orange County's code.

Thank you for your consideration and please do not hesitate to contact us should you wish to better understand our concerns with ATT's application.

Sincerely,

L. Charles Gray
