Animal Services Advisory Board

Licences/Certificates Information: Not Listed

Personal History: I have always cared for animals since I was a small child. Growing up, I've had in total 5 dogs and I loved each as if they were my children. Throughout my upbringing I grew to understand and appreciate the value animals bring to the lives of individuals. Everything from walking them to training them, it instills more than a sense of responsibility, it also plants the seeds of a connection between humans and animals. A connection that has always remained powerful throughout human history. There's a lot we can still learn about these relationships. I believe that in order to establish these fruitful connections we must continue to foster a productive environment to do so throughout the county.

Personal History: Growing up in a single-parent household and my father being incarcerated caused many financial strains in my childhood. Due to the rent increases, we had to move often within the Kissimmee area or move in with family. While we moved often, I was blessed to be able to always have the love and support of my mother. At one point, due to child abuse allegations I had to be temporarily placed with a relative caregiver. My upbringing is truly what made me passionate about helping children that grew up like I did. At Florida State University, I studied Criminology and Family & Child Sciences which gave me a unique perspective on child development, family relationships, and criminology theories. I realized that what I was truly passionate about was prevention: children reaching appropriate developmental milestones on time, strong bonds from an early age, and providing programming for youth facing adversity. While in college, I worked as an AmeriCorps member at a local Head Start for two years helping with educational activities such as reading and writing. After college, I worked as a Child Protective Investigator in Lakeland which opened my eyes to intricacies of Chapter 39. While I enjoyed the experience, I felt that I wanted to be of more service to the families and youth that I encountered. When I started working at Big Brothers Big Sisters in 2014, I felt that I found what I wanted to do. While I do not work directly with children, I enjoy still being able to make an impact on the lives of children by fundraising, helping parents with resources they need, and fundraising for the programs that are most impactful to their lives.
